May-Haps

(By Elizabeth May) Girl Scouts throughout the nation are celebrating this week as National Girl Scout week, honoring the founding of the organization in Savannah, Ga., 38 years ago by Juliette Low.

Without more boys, the Farmville High School Mixed chorus, even its most optimistic supporters know, will not be able to bring back a superior rating from district music festivals, such as the one in Greenville today.

Readers for the Easter cantata to be presented Sunday evening, April 9, in the Baptist church have been announced by Mrs. Bernice Turnage, director.

the log and she would follow, but the man did not wish to. After much insistence, he did. When they were safely across, she discovered that he was blind. Mrs. Low was deaf.

With the college crowd — Betsy Morris, Junior at W. C., will be moderator at 7:15 tonight of a program her sociology class is producing and presenting over Station WBIG in Greensboro.
