

by Mayor Walter Jones.

The following were winners of prizes donated by firms in the area served by the membership: C. H. Albritton, R-1, Hookerton, lectric toaster; Pete Sutton, R-3, Snow Hill, electric toaster; W. C. Hinson, R-2, Walstonburg, automatic can opener; Virgil Hart, R-3, Snow Hill, electric toaster; Mrs/ W. H. Owens, R-1, Fountain, electric clock; Mrs. Ben Gardner, R-1, Fountain, an electric clock; James N. Barrow, R-1, Snow Hill, fire extinguisher: W. C. Dildy, R-1, Greenville, box of cigars; W. E. Cobb, R-1, Fountain, electric toaster; William Tatum R-1, Green-ville, electric iron; Henry Dixon, R-2, Snow Hill, rug; Elliott Pope, R-2, La Grange, table lamp; Will Bartlett, R-3, Snow Hill, shower and window curtain set; James Hall, R-1, Farmville, Presto cooker; G. L. Tugwell, R-2, Farmville, 25 lbs. of flour; Mrs.

esday to spend several days with her aunt, Mrs. Edgar Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Chandler of ruled against him but the circuit court of appeals reversed the decision

West Point, Va., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Z. B. T. Cox. Mrs. Dora Bauch of Akron, Ohio s visiting her brothers, Luther and Travis Little, and Mrs. Chaude Allen, Mrs. W. P. Easley and daughter, Miss Jen Easley, spent the week end in Smithfield with Mrs. J. T. Gurley, Mrs. Easley's mother. Pat Bergeron, son of Mr. and Mrs.

as the Maury firm did. The suit has Gary Bergeron, underwent an appendectomy in a Greenville hospital last A similar suit against the Henry Thursday.

Vann Industries of Clinton was fore Mrs. Corinne Stilley has returned stalled when the Clinton firm settled after undergoing treatment for week at Fowle Memorial hospital J. Henson Boydon, patent lawyer of Washington. Washington, D. C., appears with Lew-

Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., attended the vedding of Miss Martha Finch Worhington and James Abernathy in Avden Sunday, Leola and Yvonne Briley of Win-Rev. William D. Morton, speaking t the Rotary club Tuesday night. week with their aunt. Mrs. Harry wards and Dr. Paul E. Jones.

onnaires have their annual get-to gether in September. By that time, the Post may be in its new home on West Church street.

The following appointments Adjutant, Chester Outland; service officer, J. W. Joyner; athletic officer

J. M. Gibbs; sergeant-at-arms, David P. Bundy; guardianship, A. W. Bob-bitt; historian, J. B. Hockaday. Committee chairmen were also announced as follows: Membership, Archie Cayton; boys' state, L. P. Yel-verton; child welfare, Chester Outland; school awards, Eli Joyner, Jr.;

graves registration and memorial, G. S. Edwards; oratorical contest, Paul E. Jones; Americanism, R. L. Rollins; Boy Scout, R. N. Darden; Sons of Legion, Wyley Yelverton; public relations, J. D. Joyner. The executive committee is posed of Chas. Rasberry, Chas. Bau-ing double parking, especially in front of the post office, and a decided improvement was noted. Lately, how ever, laxness has been noted and it might be well for another campaign to be undertaken.

Improvements and repairs to local school this summer include a coat of red paint to the roof of the gymnasium. It is hoped that this is hits. indication of the type of basketball Coach Elbert Moye's teams will play next season, and is not an indication of the political leanings of anyone associated with the school. Those who selected the colar, however. shouldn't be too surprised if they are subjected to an investigation by Sen. McCarthy.

R. E. Mayo, whose successful de lopment of an oil-burning curer has given Farmville the largest factory in the world devoted exclusively to the manufacture of such curers, uite pleased with the decision won from the Crusaders by a score of 6 to 1. For five innings this looked like a duplication of the game last Thursday night when the Panthera on over the Crusaders, 2 to 0, but the Mustangs put the game in the win column in the sixth on four hits and an error which produced three runs. Brock contributed three hits for the winners and Thomas two hits. In the last two games for the Crusaders they have produced only four

Score by innings; 020 003 1-6. Mustanga 010 000 0-1 Crusaders rusaders three. Last Thursday night the Bears de-eated the Mustangs, 10-9, and the Panthers defeated the Crusaders, 2-0. Tuesday night of next week, the rusaders.

and Mustangs meet in the first game over county.

LIONS TO HAVE CHARTER NIGHT NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT The recently-organized Farmville Lions club will observe Charter Night on Friday, June 16, with a banque at 7:30 in the high school lunchroon Jack Yelverton is chairman of the committee in charge of arrange teaching home economics for The Mustangs had nine hits; the years in Nashville high school, has accepted an appointment as assistant home agent for Pitt county. She be-

Miss Parker, whose home is in Northampton county, is a graduate of Bears will meet the Mustangs at 8 East Carolina Teachers college. She clock and the Panthers meet the succeeds Miss Verna Belle Lowery, who resigned March 1 to accept a On Thursday night, the Crusaders position as home agent in New Han-

NEW HOME AGENT

Miss Ann Parker, who has thre

gins her work on July 1.

at the Rotary club Tuesday nig briefly but very forcibly offered a Dixon. challenge to civic organizations to spreading cloud of Communism. Morton, who recently received his ministerial degree at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, told the story of a rich man and his three sons, each son being given the same sum of money and charged with the responsibility of purchasing something that would most nearly fill a room. The wheat straw and thistle down brought in by the first two made their mark. but the light from the candle and flint purchased by the third son, and the knowledge that good deeds had been done with the bulk of his share of the money, found favor with the father. And so, in Rotary, "Service and sided with Mayo. Another suit involving the curers and the ratented features has started its way through the legal maze that finally ends with a ruling. Mayo has entered suit against the Long Manufacturing Company of Tarboro. He charges that the Long firm violates his patent in much the same manner

been filed in Federal court in Wilson with Mayo without court action.

At The Rotary Club

is in the suits,

Above Self?' ever presents an oppor-tunity and stands as a bulwark to the prevailing feeling of unrest. Russell Mizelle, program chairman, presented Rev. Morton. Irvin Morgan welcomed Emerson

Smith as a new member of the Ro-tary club and presented him with a lapel pin and a book on the doctrines of Rotary. Seven members were absent, J. D.

hackleford, a visitarian from the East Point, Ga., club, was the guest of Frank Dupree.

George Greekmur received the at tendance prize,

Walter B. Jones will be in charge of the program Tuesday night. Club president, Charlie Fitzgerald, 为我的尊敬,当此 如 presided.

At The Kiwanis Club

Miss Mamie Davis talked to the Kiwanis club Monday night on Americanism and brought out several fine points in showing that church, home and school form a triangle on which our ideas of Americanism rest. Miss Mamie was introduced by Carol Modlin, program chairman for the ise of Miss Mami M. T. Chandler of West Point, Va., was a visiting Kiwanian, the guest of his son-in-law, Rev Z. B. T. Cor.

BOYS' BASEBALL LEAGUE ert Moye, director of the m clock at the local ball park.

Herbert Moore and Carol Modlin were re-appointed to the food com-Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bradham and nittee. No meetings will be held in July or son, Frank, were dinner guests Fri-day night of Miss Sarah Lee Taylor August but the Post is trying to se-of Rocky Mount. cure as many memberships as possi-Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cox of Ayden ble during the vacation lull. were week end guests of Mrs. Cox's brother, J. A. Wooten, Jr., and Mrs.

Wooten. Misses Louise Lovic and Mattie Dail left Monday for a week's visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Vann

W. Little, Monroe. Mrs. C. C. Satterfield of Richmond and Mrs. W. D. Simpson of Norfolk, Va., are spending a few days with State Conference of Agriculture Teachers at Carolina Beach this week. their cousin, Mrs. M. V. Jones. Jack Willis left. Wednesday morn-Mrs. Bass and two sons are with him. Misses Jean Moore, Gayle Flana-gan, and Ann Bynum and Harold ing for Nags Head where he has ac-and of week's conference at Atlantic Christ-with and dughter of Camp Buth and dy is one of the teachers. Cedric Davis, student at Wake For-Bobby and Billy, of Richmo tel for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson Raleigh spent last week end Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr.

Mrs. R. K. Pippin. Mrs. James Coughlin will return to her home in LaFayette, Ind., today after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs Wesley R. Willis. Cedric Davis, student at Wake For-est college, returned last week to spend the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davis, Ced-ric was recently initiated into Phi Beta Kappa. A too hand his Miss Helen Thomas arrived during the week end to spend the summer at thome. She has been attending Dun-barton schoel in Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Peeler and daughter will leave Monday , for Chapel Hill where Mr. Peeler will at-Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walston returntend the summer session at the University of North Carolina. Mr. Peeled Friday from a visit with their son, er is principal of the Walstonburg

Donald Walston, a midshipman at the high school. United States Naval Academy, Anna-E. C. Carr, Jr., Jay Flanagar polis, Md. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fields, Jr., and

Bruce Darden and Harry Davis, stu-dents at State college, Raleigh, ar-rived Thursday for the summer va-cation. Carp and Davis will return during the week and for summer amily of Robersonville spent Sunday uternoon with Mrs. R. A. Fields.

Arternoon with Mrs. R. A. Freins Betsy King returned with them for a week's visit. Mr and Mrs. G. W. Windham, Mr. und Mrs. Jack' Yelverton and Mrs. G. E. Case spent Sunday in Suffolk. Va., with Mrs. Case's brother, B. F. Case, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cobb and son Wheless. They will return to nome in Florida on Wednesday. and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carraway and daughter visited Mrs. Henry Pitt in Oak City Sunday. Janie Pitt re-turned with them to spend three Lt. and Mrs. L. D. Rober

voeks. nes, left Sund, y

Sanford, Fis., and Mrs. Nashville, W unn, arrived last Thur nts, Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Davis

le Lord's P

handed down in his favor by the Circuit Court of Appeals. , It gives him a perfect record with the courts over litigation that has developed during the 15 years he has been making the curers. In addition to those suits which resulted directly from manufacturing processes and the question unch workshop for the managers of of infringement, Mayo won a decisio Taylor. Lucas was indicted for lunch rooms in the northeastern area. in the Court of Appeals on the ques-The workshop has been held at the John Small school in Washington. E. P. Bass, agriculture teacher in the local high school, is attending the State Conference of Agriculture Teac cruelty to animals, wanton destruchis case on appeal and the re-issue patent was granted.

Walstonburg News

Mrs. W. A. Marlowe and Miss Lillian Craft were Wilson shoppers of Wednesday morning. Mrs. W. B. Strickland of Louisburg and daughter of Camp Butner visited Mrs. E. Paris Bounda and

Bobby and Billy, of Richmond were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fields. Mrs. Sam Jenkins and Miss Clara the University of North Carolina, he

Jenkins were Rocky Mount visitors Fuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parker and chiliren of Charlotte are spending this V-5 to Midshipmen Training and was week with Mrs. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bailey. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lang, Jr, and Mr. and Mrs. Truett Lang spent the week end at Atlantic Beach. Mrs. W. V. Redick and Emma Jean Redick attended the Mayo-Worthing-on wedding in Greenville Spturday. Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Hicks are spending this week at Myrtle Beach, Dending this week at myrtle beach, S. C. where Mr. Hicks is attending a man association.

where fir. Hicks is attending a ing of the Bright Belt Ware-e association. a. W. E. Lang, Sr., went to nsboro Monday and was accom-id home by Mrs. W. R. Lang and hter of Norfolk, Va., who will wallan Air Depot at Hickam Field. They are the proud parents of a little daughter, Kathy Rountree, Rountree's mother, Mrs. M. H. Rountree of Farmville and St. Pet-ersburg, Fla., his sister, Mrs. Wayne Mitchell, Jr., Miss Madeline Harrison Mrs. W. E. Lang, Sr., went to reensboro Monday and was accom-banied home by Mrs. W. R. Lang and laughter of Norfolk, Va., who will pend sometime here. *

C. Edwards an

with Mrs.

and Mirs. J.

Mitchell, Jr., miss Madeline Harrison Mitchell of Kinston, his mother and father-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lotz, and brother-in-law, Bill Lotz, of Dayton, Ohio, attended the gradua-tion exercises in Kenan Stadium at pend sometime here." Mrs. W. A. Dildy has seturned to ter home from Carolina General hos-pital and is slowly improving. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Eagles of Foun-nin and Mrs. Rosa Eagles of Crisp inited relatives here Wednesday. Chapel Hill, Andread A LA REVIVAL SERVICES REGIN and Mrs. Clarence Jones and and Mrs. Arthur Jones made a ess trip to Charlotte Tuesday. Stewart McKeel of Conway spe week end with his mother, M Mann is attending You ce at ACC in Wilson th

CLASS ENTERTAINS

nday night, June 18. P B. Holmos Song leaders will be Bob Vernon Tyson, Mrs. Br will be planist. The land will be the home of Mrs. H. cordially invited to part n. Friday evening, June

Bears meet in the nightcan. ATTEND BOYS' STATE

Pollard will leave Sunday morning to attend Boys' State at Chapel Hill. Chief of Pelice L. T. Lucas wa equitted Tuesday of charges which were lodged against him as the result of shooting a dog belonging to B. O.

tion of personal property, and unnecessarily firing a gun within 200 yards of a house in Farmville.

GRADUATES FROM CAROLINA

Horton Rountree received a Bachof Law degree from the University of North Carolina on Monday. After finishing Farmville high school and Darlington Preparatory School in Rome, Ga., Rountree enter-ed the University of North Carolina and in 1942 he enlisted in the Navy under the V-7 program and in 1943 after receiving an A. B. degree from

MONDAY AT BELL ARTHUI

Revival services will begin here that the Bethlehem Meth urch in Bell Arthur, with the D. A. Autry, pastor of the LaGrander of the Methodist church, uest preacher and evang

clock and will cont

transferred to V-5, serving as avia-tion cadet until November, 1944. He TO SWEDISH POST – W. Walton Butterworth, above, as-sistant secretary of state, was named by President Truman as U. S. ambassador to Sweden, re-placing Ambassador H. Preeman Matthews. Butterworth was strongly attacked in Congress while in charge of the State De-partment's Far Eastern division. then voluntarily transferred from commissioned an Ensign in the Navy at Columbia University. He re-entered flight training serving as flight officer until January, 1946, at which time he was transferred to Pearl Harbor, Oahu, as liason officer for the 20th Naval Construction Regiment. While in Hawaii, he married Miss Helen Elizabeth Lotz from Dayton, Ohie, who was with the Ha-walian Air Depot at Hickam Field.

Jim Beamon, R-3, Snow Hill, electric hot plate; W. F. Welfare, R-2, Snow Hill, floor lamp;

Frank Johnson, R-1, Farmville, electric heating pad; Sam Albritton, R-1, Snow Hill, electric broiler; Alfred Harper, R-3, Snow Hill, Presto cooker; Maybelle Dildy, R-1, Fountain, hatchet; Major Gorham, R-1, Greenville, glass tea set; Kirby Murphy, R-1, Farmville, electric percolator; J. W. Frazier, R-3, Snow Hill, electric percolator; Floyd Williams, Jr., R-3 ,Walstonburg, electric iron; Raymond Wade, R-3, Snow Hill, electric iron; Nora Mae Bartlett, R-3, Snow Hill, electric toaster; W. L. White, Farm-Ille, electric fan; Mrs. Eugene Hardy, R-2, Snow Hill, elec-tric razor; H. R. Davenport, R-2, Farmville, gallon of anti-freeze; T. C. Hughes, R-1, Farmville, electric fan; Lother Moore, R-1, Snow Hill, elec-tric soldering iron; John Grimsley, R-3, Snow Hill, Presto cooker; Jack Wise, R-2, Snow Hill, electric percolator; W. J. Baker, R-2, Farmville, pair of sun glasses; J. C. Tugwell, R-2, Farmville, electric heater; Jack Cunningham, R-1, Walstonburg, appliance cord; Douglas Edmo R-2, Farmville, electric iron.

Henry May of R-2, Farmville, was winner of the grand prize, a washing machine.

Every fifth person registering for the meeting was given a pass to the Paramount theatre, Farmville.

Baptist WMS Has Meeting At Church

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met Monday at the church Mrs. H. D. Johnion, presi-dent, presided. The devotional was given by Mrs. J. P. Jones with the topic, "Arise, Lift Up the Lad." Mrs. J. T. Walston and Mrs. J. W. Mrs. J. T. Waiston and Mrs. J. W. Miller gave the program, using as the topic, "On the Rock or on the Rocks." Grace Miller sang a solo, " It Pays to Serve Jesus." and the program, concluded with her singing, "Rock of Ages," as a prayer. "The George W. Truett circle won the attendance for the afternoon. The hostesses, Mrs. Clayton Sulton and Mrs. Advian Paramore, served cota colas and assorted cookles dur-ing the social hour. Barbara Para-more and Franc es Jones were hos-

and Franc es Jones were to the Nursery department RETURN HOME