Clarence Hardy Will Is Probated In Greene County

An estate valued at approximately one and three-quarter million dollars was left by Clarence L. Hardy of Maury.

Hardy, who owned more than 12 000 acres of land in Pitt and Greene counties, died at his home in Maury on October 27.

His 35-page will written in 193 and including two codicils has been filed for probate with George Mewborn, clerk of superior court at his office in Snow Hill.

An attorney stated that the value of the estate is only an estimate until an inventory has been made.

It is believed that the total worth of the Hardy estate will pass the two million mark and may be worth as much as three million dollars.

Getting the bulk of the estate wil be two nieces and 10 nephews. The only other persons who are direct benefactors are his sisters. Mrs. Esther Tucker of Maury and Mrs. Estelle Moye of Farmville.

Atlantic Christian college in Wil son will receive $10,000 from the estate. The other two institutions benefiting will be the Hookerton Christion church and the school library at Hardy had served on the board trustees of ACC for a number of years. He had contributed $12,000 to a dining hall and $105,000 for a 75,-000 volume library which was named in his honor.

The will also specified that a trus fund would be established with L. A Moye and-J. T. Hardy, nephews, as executors. The executors are authorized by the will to dispose of and invest the money in the trust fund for a 10-year period. At the expiration of this period, the money will be divided among the nieces and nephews. The amount of the trust fund will not be determined until completion of the inventory. Nephews and nieces sharing in the estate are: Clarence Moye, Hardy Albritton and Jesse Hardy of Maury; H. Noel Hardy of Hartville, Tenn.; Lucille Albritton of Maury; Harmon Hardy of Kinston; Howard and W. Jesse Moye of Farmville; Lawrence Moye of Maury; Milton Moye of Tarboro: George Move of New York and Mrs. A. J. Moye of Farmville. In addition to his farm lands, which made him the largest producer of tobacco in the world, he operated : general store in Maury, cotton gins and supplied Maury and surrounding area with electricity.
