

Medical Auxiliary Holds Meeting At Southern Manor

The auxiliary of the Pitt County Medical Society held its annual fall meeting at the Southern Manor in Farmville.

The meeting opened with the reading in unison of the auxiliary pledge as members stood at their appointed places around the dining table.

Mrs. R. T. Williams, president, presented Mrs. E. B. Beasley of Fountain, who gave the invocation.

After a delicious turkey meal was enjoyed, Mrs. Williams presided over the business session. The minutes were read by the secretary after which the president gave a brief report on the district meeting which was held in Morehead City. The nominating committee, composed of Mrs. F. P. Brooks, Mrs. W. L. Wooten and Mrs. Fred Hær presented the names of Mrs. Herbert Hadley as president, and Mrs. D. B. Armistead as secretary and treasurer. They were unanimously elected.

The following committee members gave reports: Mrs. K. B. Pace, chairman of the Tubercular Beds, Student Loan and Cancer Fund; Mrs. J. M. Barrett, chairman of Today's Health; and Mrs. Charles Fitzgerald, legislative chairman.

The president appointed the following committees to make plans for the observance of Doctor's Day: Mrs. Beasley, Mrs. Grady Dixon of Ayden and Mrs. J. L. Winstead of Greenville. The following committee was appointed to make plans for financing the Cooper Bed at the Wilson Sanatorium: Mrs. A. M. Mumford, Mrs. D. B. Armistead and Mrs. M. T. Frizzelle.

Mrs. Leslie Lee of Kinston, who is first vice president of the State Medical Auxiliary, was a guest. She gave a very interesting and informative talk on organization.

Mrs. Williams then presented the guest speaker, Mrs. Ben Royal of Morehead City, district chairman. Mrs. Royal praised the organization for the work it is doing. She spoke of the importance of the cooperation of the Medical auxiliary with that of the Medical society.

Mrs. Gordon Smith, a guest from Snow Hill, formerly of London, gave a brief report on how government medicine is administered in England. She stated that the present form of medicine proved very unsatisfactory to both the profession and the patient.

Mrs. W. A. Marlowe of Walstonburg was also a guest.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mrs. A. D. McLawhorn and daughter, Mrs. Julian Worthington, and Mrs. Gene Cannon of Winterville visited Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Norville Sunday.

Mrs. John T. Thorne and daughter, Miss Mary Leah Thorne, spent Thursday in Magnolia with Mrs. Thorne's sisters, Mrs. J. N. Horne and Miss Louise Croon, and with her brother, John R. Croon.

Miss Elsie May, sophomore at Flora Macdonald college in Red Springs, will arrive tomorrow to spend the Thanksgiving holidays at her home.

Thurman Joyner of Norfolk, Va., is spending a week's vacation with his mother, Mrs. Carrie Belle Joyner.

Mrs. Grimes Lewis and sons, Bobby and John Reddin, spent the week end in Oriental with Mrs. Lewis' mother, Mrs. J. O. Robinson.

Tech. Sgt. and Mrs. W. S. Russell of Laurinburg and Mrs. Mary Russell, who is visiting them after spending several months in Florida, spent the week end here. Sgt. Russell is an Air Force Recruiting officer.

J. C. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Parker and children, Eleanor, Joe and Jack, of Norfolk, Va., visited Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jones during the week end. Mr. Skinner is a brother-in-law. Mrs. Parker is a niece of Mrs. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Albritton of Wilmington spent the week end with Mrs. Smith's and Mrs. Albritton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Jones.

VFW AUXILIARY

The ladies auxiliary of the VFW met Thursday night with President Ross Humphrey presiding.

The auxiliary will sponsor a Standish party at the VFW club Nov. 20 at 7:30 p. m.

The auxiliary will receive the VFW members at the Standish party.

Farmville Featured

The Baltimore American edition of Sunday, Nov. 19, will have an illustrated feature article about Farmville. Data for the article was compiled by Fred C. Moore, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

The paper will be on sale at Pete's Soda Shoppe.

MRS. LEONA OWENS

Mrs. Leona Bass Owens, 72, widow of Walter D. Owens, died at her home in Fountain Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock following a long illness.

Funeral services were held from the home Monday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by the Rev. R. L. West, Baptist minister of Fountain. Burial was in Queen Anne cemetery.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Leslie P. Yelverton and Mrs. William W. Walker, both of Fountain; one son, W. L. Owens of Walstonburg; a brother, J. W. Bass of Farmville, and four grandchildren, among them being Mrs. Harold Rouse of Farmville.

Pallbearers were Leroy Bass and Lyman Bass, James Wheelers, Wiley Yelverton, H. F. Owens, Sr., and H. F. Owens, Jr.

REVIVAL AT KINGS CROSS ROAD

Rev. L. B. Manning will deliver a series of sermons next week at the Kings Cross Road church. The revival starts Monday night and will continue through the week, with services each evening at 7:30.

The public is invited.

MT. HERMAN STUDY CLASS

Under the direction of the education chairman, Mrs. Leon Eason, the Mount Herman Woman's Society of Christian service is holding its mission study class this week and next. The sessions are held Monday and Friday nights, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

The group is studying "Rural Prospect" by Mark Rich.

Midgets Play Strong Greenville Team Sat.

The Farmville midget football team will play Greenville midgets at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at ECTC stadium in Greenville. The game is sponsored by the Farmville Jaycees and the Greenville Exchange club.

The local midgets have won the hearts of Farmville fans by the fine spirit they have shown and it is expected that a big contingent of Farmville rooters will be on hand for the game.

PTA Pays Balance On Stage Curtains

The appointment of a committee from the Parent-Teacher association to meet with the local school board was voted at the November meeting of the Farmville PTA on Thursday night, Nov. 2. The PTA also approved the executive committee's recommendation that the balance due on curtains recently purchased for the stage be paid now with profits from the Halloween carnival. Under terms of the sales contract, the PTA could defer payment until next fall.

The appointment of a committee to meet with the school board was done at the request of the board.

The president has appointed Mrs. Ted Albritton, George Davis and Mrs. Walter Jones to serve on this committee.

Mrs. E. R. Smith reported that more than $100 was raised at the Halloween carnival. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. W. A. Allen served as co-chairmen of the event.

Mrs. Frank Allen, president, appointed the following for a month's service on the inspection committee: Mrs. Ted Albritton, Mrs. R. E. Pickett and Mrs. C. C. Simpson.

Mrs. Joseph Batchelor's fourth grade won the room roll call. It was announced that the December program will be a community sing, with open house afterwards.

Two short plays and a devotion were presented by Girl Scouts under the direction of Mrs. W. R. Burke and Mrs. R. T. Williams, in observance of Girl Scout Week.

Miss Jean Moore read Psalm 111, and Miss Carolyn Kittrell offered prayer, after which the audience sang "God Bless America."

SERVICE CHANGING BEING AT CARRAWAY'S CHAPEL

Funeral services will be held every Sunday morning at 9:30 and church members will be asked to contribute to the fund for the chapel.

Gridders Lose To La Grange In Hard-Fought Game

The Farmville high school football team lost to LaGrange last Friday night on the local gridiron by the heart-breaking score of 19-18.

Halfback Joe Smith sparked the Farmville offense, scoring all three touchdowns, the last one coming with only 3½ minutes of play, on a beautiful 30 yard run off tackle. Failure to convert their extra points cost the Red Devils the victory.

Smith, the scamping halfback, scored his first touchdown in the first quarter on a beautiful play. Quarterback Charlie Fitzgerald passed to Roy Vick on the 50, and he lateraled to Smith, who ran 55 yards for the score.

La Grange also tallied in the initial period, knotting the count at 6-6.

In the second period Smith again put Farmville in the lead when he ran 20 yards for the score. LaGrange climaxed a 60-yard drive with a touchdown and then converted the all-important extra point, which gave them a 13-12 lead at half-time.

LaGrange scored in the third period.

Both teams displayed beautiful, break away running power, and kept their attacks on the ground. Fullback Bill Oakley showed consistency in picking up yardage for Farmville, along with Halfback Sigby Dilda who got away on several long runs. Roy Vick and Tackles Roy Flora and Bobby Fullford were the standouts on defense for Farmville. Center Paschal Barrett, also, turned in a good line-backing game for the Red Devils.

Cox Is New President Ministerial Association

At a reorganizational meeting of the Farmville Ministerial association Wednesday morning in the Baptist church, Rev. Z. B. T. Cox of the Christian church was named president and Rev. H. L. Davis of the Methodist church, secretary-treasurer.

Plans were made for Thanksgiving and Christmas services.

At The Rotary Club

Rev. H. L. Davis, pastor of the Farmville Methodist church, was guest speaker at the Rotary club on Tuesday night. Rev. Davis, who was introduced by Eli Joyner, chose as his topic for discussion, "Hope of the Early Church." Said Rev. Davis, "although we may find ourselves living in a world plagued by turmoil, upheaval and strife, conditions are really no different from what they were in years gone by. Christ came in a world of trouble at a time when the Hebrew people were looking for help. The kingdom Jesus came to set up was designed to begin in the hearts of the individual. The same hope, the same plan offered and not accepted 2,000 years ago still applies to us today, and is the only hope of the world at the present time."

The club agreed to participate in the district project to bring a Japanese exchange student into the state.

Eleven members were absent and those present were urged to get in touch with the absentees in an effort to have them make up the meeting.

Edwin Coates received the attendance prize and Charlie Raspberry the fellowship prize.

Club president, Walter Jones, presided.

About Farmville People

Mrs. J. A. Gregory spent the week end near Dunn with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Godwin. Mr. Godwin has been critically ill for some time. Mrs. Godwin injured three ribs in a fall Saturday.

Mrs. L. L. Leary and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Leary and children of Morehead City spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Joyner.

Mrs. Ben Royal and Mrs. John Lashley of Morehead City spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner.

Mrs. Ethel Thornton continues to improve from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Eason of Lizzie and Mrs. Alton Clapp of Greenville were guests of Eddie Clark in Lumberton last Thursday night after they attended a Shrine ceremony in Fairmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Fuquay, M. V. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Fiser and children spent the week end at Greenco camp on the Pamlico river.

Mrs. W. Alex Allen left yesterday by plane for New Orleans, La., where she will join Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Clark and Mrs. Winfred Clark Lang of Douglas, Ga., and attend the homecoming football game between Pulaski and Virginia on Saturday. Mrs. Allen will return home Sunday.

Mrs. Horace Allen of Jacksonville spent last week with Mrs. J. W. Miller. She also visited other friends and relatives while here.

Mrs. J. B. Koon of Portsmouth, Va., returned home Saturday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Johnnie Allen.

Guy Rhodes and Atwood Hemy of Greenville and Mrs. W. G. Allen, Sr., spent the week end in Charlotte with Mrs. W. D. Rhodes and Mrs. H. O. Hudson. Mrs. Rhodes returned with them for a visit to her son, Mr. Rhodes, and daughter, Mrs. Allen.

John Barrett of Greensboro, who works with the State Highway commission, spent the week end here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dail and children of Winterville were guests of Mrs. Dail's grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Forbes, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Barrow and Mrs. and Mrs. James H. Smith attended the Duke-Wake Forest football game in Durham Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Candler and Mrs. Jimmy Darden attended the Carolina-Maryland football game in Chapel Hill on Saturday.

Mrs. John Tyer of Charlotte, who is visiting in Falkland, visited her aunt, Mrs. Ethel Thornton, and Mrs. M. E. Pollard last week.

Miss Elizabeth Davis, Mrs. F. H. Davis, Sr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones spent the week end in Athens, Ga., then riding to the Red Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Erwin entered a Richmond hospital Friday and underwent an operation Monday. Mr. Erwin accompanied her.

Mrs. Sam W. Erwin continues seriously ill at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis and Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Newborn attended the Maryland-Carolina football game in Chapel Hill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ogleby and son, Dean, attended the Carolina-Maryland game Saturday.

Friends of Mrs. Juanita Redick Circle of 1820 E. Mount st., Springfield, Ohio, formerly of Walstonburg, will be glad to know that she is satisfactorily recovering from a recent minor operation.

Mrs. Dick Hart and son, Dicky, of Snow Hill, Miss Elizabeth Moore and Mrs. Lucille B. Quinn and son, David, attended the Maryland-Carolina football game in Chapel Hill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood E. Jones of Mingo spent last week end with Mr. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Roebuck of Hamilton and Mrs. Ruel Tyre of Falkland visited Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jones last Sunday.

Mrs. C. L. Jones has returned from a visit to her son, C. L. Jones, Jr., in Hopewell, Va.

Julie Reid Jones left Wednesday to spend a few days in Rocky Mount with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Webb spent Sunday in Raleigh with Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Griffin of Macfields visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bawson and son, Donald, a student at Davidson, attended the State-Davidson game in Raleigh Saturday night and spent the week end with Mr. Bawson's mother, Mrs. A. A. Bawson, at Elberton.

Mrs. C. W. Blackwood and son, Carl, and Wilbur Rollins attended the Carolina-Maryland game Saturday in Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Dale Martin and daughter have returned to their home in Indiana after visiting Mrs. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David May of Lizzie, and other relatives in this state.

Miss Eva Holmes and Mrs. B. H. Parker and children of Walstonburg, Salem and Mr. and Mrs. David Jones and son, Wayne, of Walstonburg, attended the week end with Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Parker.

Plaque Will Be Dedicated To Late Christian Pastor

In memory of the late Rev. Cleophas Bowen Mashburn, who faithfully served the Farmville Christian church for 20 years before his death on November 28, 1946, a plaque will be dedicated at the church Sunday, November 26, at the 11 o'clock service.

Dr. H. S. Riley of Black Mountain, executive secretary of Southeastern Assembly, Inc., and pastor of the Black Mountain church, will deliver the sermon. Dr. Riley was president of Atlantic Christian college in Wilson at the time Mr. Mashburn was a member of the school's board of trustees.

Miss Barbara Shythe of Silver Spring, Md., granddaughter of the late minister, will sing "The Holy City." She is a member of the choir and soloist at Colonial Heights Christian church in Washington, D. C.

Rev. C. C. Ware of Wilson, state secretary of the North Carolina Christian Missionary society and a close friend of the late Mr. Mashburn, will give the challenge to the church, George and Jeanie Farr of Asheville, grandchildren of Mr. Mashburn, will unveil the plaque, erected by the church membership.

Rev. Z. B. T. Cox, present pastor, who succeeded Mr. Mashburn after his retirement in the spring of 1946, will have charge of the service.

Historical Society Will Be Formed In County

Those interested in the organization of a Pitt County Historical Association are invited to meet tonight (Friday) at 7:30 in Sheppard Memorial library, Greenville.

Purpose of the organization will be to collect and preserve history of the county.

Varsity Football Team Ends Season Tonight

Coach Elbert Meye's Farmville high school football team will close the 1950 season tonight by meeting the South Edgecombe griders in the local stadium at 8 o'clock. The Red Devils will be seeking their first win of the season. The team showed more spirit and fight in the game Friday night with La Grange than at any previous time this year.

The band will be on hand to enliven the occasion. There will be drills and exhibitions at half-time.

ATTEND YOUTH RALLY

Herschel Tyson and Miss Trilby Smith of Bell Arthur Christian church and Miss Edna Boone, rural worker for the Walstonburg group of Methodist churches, attended the Christian Youth rally of Eastern Carolina at Christ Episcopal church in Raleigh on Sunday. The rally was sponsored by the recently formed Christian Youth Council of N. C., which is affiliated with the United Christian Youth movement.

NEGRO SCHOOL GRID TEAM WINS HOMECOMING GAME

The Farmville Negro high school football team celebrated homecoming by defeating Winton, 24-21, in a very exciting game. It was the first win of the season for the team.

On Thursday afternoon of this week, the locals play La Grange and again on next Wednesday the two teams play at La Grange.

At The Kiwanis Club

Rev. H. L. Davis, in charge of the program at the Kiwanis Monday night, called on a fellow-minister, Rev. E. S. Coates of the Presbyterian church, who delivered an excellent, thought-provoking talk on the Golden Rule. He held it up as the one rule which would bring peace and happiness into the world.

John Council Parker, a former president of the club, was welcomed as a guest. John is now a member of the Laurinburg club.

WESLEYAN GUILD HOLDS PRAYER SERVICE MONDAY

Several chapters of "Meditations and Plans for the Quiet Hour" were reviewed Monday night by members of the Wesleyan service guild of the Methodist church. Miss Lula Hardy was hostess in the home of Mrs. Louise Harris with Mrs. G. M. Holden presiding.

Mrs. B. R. Fields discussed the observance of the quiet hour. Mrs. Holden reviewed a portion of the study. Mrs. C. H. Flanagan, secretary, based her thoughts on the chapter, "Looking unto Jesus"—who is set down at the right hand of God.

During the business hour the guild planned to place flowers in the church for the community Thanksgiving service. The group will also provide $5 for a child at the Methodist orphanage.

During the social hour the hostess served hot coffee, cookies, sandwiches, cheese straws and pickles.

EDGAR DUKE IS NEW THEATRE MANAGER

Edgar Curtis Duke of Union, S. C., arrived Friday to become manager of the Paramount theater, succeeding Keith Nickalson, who has been transferred to Salisbury.

His family will join him here as soon as a house is available.

Mr. Duke has been in the theatre business most of his life. Before coming affiliated with the Paramount Theatre nine months ago, he worked for Consolidated Theaters, and Levis Theaters, both of which are now defunct.

The Duke has two children, a daughter, 6, and Carl, 4, and is the former Billie Duke.

Mrs. Duke is a member of the Elberton Elks club.

Mrs. Duke and her children attended the Duke-Wake Forest football game in Durham Saturday.

Mrs. Duke and her children attended the Carolina-Maryland football game in Chapel Hill on Saturday.

Mrs. Duke and her children attended the Duke-Wake Forest football game in Durham Saturday.

Methodist Ladies From 5 Counties At Meeting Here

The semi-annual meeting of the Quinn-County zone, Woman's Society of Christian service, was held Wednesday, Nov. 8, in the Farmville Methodist church. Mrs. J. Roy Wilkerson of the Buckhorn church near Kenly, zone leader, opened with a meditation.

Mrs. Robert Lane of the Lebanon society responded to the welcome given by Mrs. E. R. Fields of Farmville.

Mrs. F. T. Banks of Evansdale, secretary, called the roll for reports of individual societies. Mrs. Ed Nash Warren spoke for the local group.

Accompanied at the piano by Mrs. M. V. Jones, Mrs. Bernice Turnage sang "How Beautiful upon the Mountains," by Harker.

Mrs. H. N. Howard, vice president of the Farmville society, presented baby life membership certificates to Margaret Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Roderick Harris, Jimmie Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Harris, Whit Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Parker, and Rusty Liles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Liles. It was announced that a membership has also been given for Cordelia Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis, Jr. The Stantonburg society also announced several special memberships.

The presentation of promotional work was made by Mrs. D. L. Wheeler of Roanoke Rapids, who is a district officer. Mrs. T. M. Maxwell of Rocky Mount, district secretary of children's work, gave suggestions for additional session studies for children.

Rev. Robert W. Bradshaw of Wilson addressed the group on "Our Youth — Mutual Needs and Mutual Benefits."

At noon a Brunswick stew luncheon was served in the recreation room of the church.

The afternoon session centered around the theme, "Come, Farry and Go." Rev. H. L. Davis, pastor of the local church, led the worship service. The World Federation of Methodist women was presented by the Stantonburg society in the form of a skit.

Miss Edna Boone, rural worker for the Walstonburg charge, was recognized and spoke briefly.

The report of the courtesy committee was given by Mrs. Ed Taylor.

Rev. Davis pronounced the benediction.

The Quinn-County zone includes societies at Buckhorn, Elm City, Evansdale, Farmville, Horne, Kenly, Lebanon, Lucama, Sandy Cross, Stantonburg, Wilson and Winstead. These churches are located in five counties and it is because of this that the zone has its unique name.

Around one hundred delegates, special visitors and local members were present.

Mary Felt Harris

Annual Tyson-May Reunion Will Be Held Nov. 24

Members of the Tyson and May families will assemble for their yearly reunion Friday, November 24, at 10:30 a. m. at the home of the Major Benjamin May chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

The program will take the form of a quiz show on hobbies, with each contestant receiving an award. Those who desire may bring samples of their hobbies.

Miss Edna Boone, rural worker for the Walstonburg group of Methodist churches, will direct group singing. Miss Tabitha DeVincent, secretary, will read a list of the births and marriages and will recognize those who have not attended before. A short musical program will conclude the evening.

Time will be given families to present their own family reunions.

The Duke has two children, a daughter, 6, and Carl, 4, and is the former Billie Duke.

Mrs. Duke is a member of the Elberton Elks club.

Mrs. Duke and her children attended the Duke-Wake Forest football game in Durham Saturday.