Farmville citizens desiring to carry out the real meaning of Christmas and to experience the real joy that areas from doing so have an opportunity to do so by playing Santa Claus to one or more of 12 needy families in this community, for whom Christmas will be no more than fust another day unless the spirit of the Yuletide season is practiced.

Information concerning these families may be obtained from The Enterprise, telephone number 2981. It is hoped that there are more than enough Santa Clauses in Farmville to assume responsibility for these needy cases, all of whom have been investigated by welfare authorities and whose need for help is very real.

A description of the families follows:

Case No. 1-Woman and three chiltren, girl, 14 years old; and two boys.

Case No. 2—White woman and one child, a boy 10 years old. Case No. 3 — White man, invalid able to work, and one child, a gir
