SELL... IN FARMVILLE

Higher Prices Prevail On Local Market

Ormondsville and Farmville Playing Championship

The play-off for the championsail of the Bright Belt League continue as this paper is being published with Farmvine and Urmonusvine patting it out for top place. Ormondsville won the first two games of the final series. Farmville, making a strong come-back, captured the next three contests. The sixth game was played last night-and the final game, it required, will be played tonight (Friday) at 8 o'clock in the Farmville stadium.

The games have been unusually close, well-played, and exciting. Large crowds have been attending.

STUDENTS LEAVE FOR COLLEGE NEXT WEEK

Seven spring graduates of Farmville high school will be members of the freshman class at East Carolina college when the fall session opens Monday. They include Misses Carole Pippin, Nancy Lu Moore, Gayle Flanagan, Edna Earle Hedgepeth and Rae Hathaway, all of whom will live on the campus, and Mrs. Jarvis Tripp, Jr., of Route 2, Greenville and Everette Roebuck.

Another member of the class, Miss Ann Bynum, began her studies at East Garolina in June. She resumes her studies Monday.

Misses Mary Frances Allen, Seleta Tucker and Janet Stansill, juniors, and Pat Corbett, Jean Flora and Dot Lucas, sophomores, will return to the Greenville college Wednesday. Miss Jean Bynum, a sophmore, who is a freshman counsellor, will leave Monday.

Miss Ruth Moore, who attended the . Shennandoah Conservatory of Music. Dayton. Va., for two years, is transferring to East Carolina. She will live in Greenville with her sister, Mrs. Dail Laughinghouse, Jr.

Miss Dot Hathaway will leave Richard A. Joyner was the first Farmville man to hold the presidency of the organization. He served several years ago here. she will take an X-ray technician's course at Bowman-Gray. She attended W.C.U.N.C. last year.

EAGLES-SMITH

FAMILY REUNION

The Eagles-Smith family held its third annual reunion Wednesday afternoon, August 15, at the Farmville Municipal park. Upon arrival, refreshing grape punch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Eagles, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Eagles. -

W. Conner_Eagles, the president, extended a hearty welcome to all present. The business session was opened with a prayer by F. L. Eagles. W. W. Eagles, chairman of the program, then called upon Mrs. Ivy Smith to pay tribute in memory of those who had died since last

Larry P. Eagles then welcomed all those who had entered the Eagles-Smith family either by birth or

Mrs. E. Y. Lovelace, who preover the register, was asked to write a message to those members unable to attend on account of illness.

Group pictures were made.
S. S. Eagles, refreshment chairman, reported that dinner was served to around 175 people by Parker's of Wilson.

Three years ago Mrs. M. E. Yelverton of Fountain and Mrs. Eric Copeland of Durham conceived the idea for annual reunions of the relatives of the late Bethiah and Theo-

Many out of state / member

WILSON SUB-DISTRICT INSTALLS OFFICER

New officers of the Wilson sul ct organisation of the Metho Youth fellowship were installed

At The Rotary Club

We should be thankful and appr ion Service at the Rotary Club Tue

Of the eight classifications of soil. rated as to their capability to produce, Pitt County has the first th and we should resolve to pass it on in better shape than which it was found.

Eagles supported his talk with large photos taken in and around Pitt County showing the effects of soil erosion and certain corrective methods employed. With reference to drainage, he pointed out that some thing like one million feet of tile had already been installed in Pitt County but estimated a need for an adtional twelve million feet to do the job. Ravage by fire was not overlooked, and forest fire prevention was stressed./ Eagles was introd by Roland Lang, program chairman for the evening.

Bobby Rouse and John Lewis were named to head teams, composed of the Rotary members, for an attendance contest during the four Sentember meetings.

Five members were Walter Jones was awarded the attendance prize.

Dr. Paul Jones, Jr., was a guest of his father, Paul Jones, and Herbert Acton was a visitarian from the Danville, Kentucky Club.

John Lewis will be in the program next week. Club President Jesse Moye pre

as president of the North Carolina

Firemen's Association gives Farm-only town of less than 10,000 to tirement as clerk and treasurer of of a fire.

ed as secretary of the Eastern North divisions in the state, he stepped into the vice presidency of the asso-

As an elective officer of the orgram and has jurisdiction over the fire college and drill school operated for the benefit of fire-fighters from all parts of the state. The fire college, a four-day affair held annually.

is considered one of the best in the nation and states bordering North Carolina are patterning their set-ups after the one in Tar Heelia. Certificates are awarded at the end of each of the first three years, and at the end of the fourth diplomas are pre-

the state association and has playe tion. In the year to a role in securing recent le

The interest of the Farmy in fire prevention and fir-tion has spread into other ( continuous protection by state leaders cott appointed him as atate-wide safety commethods of curbins ciation two years ago.

on the executive comm

ganization, he has held mer

controls the Firemen's Insur

Curtis Flanagan's Election As Fire

Group Head Signal Honor For Town

The election of Curtis Flanagan in recent years, and much remains to ville the distinct honor of being the at Bethel. Citizens in that surround furnish two presidents of the asso- is kept in and maintained by the other town in the state under 10,000 months the truck has been in service dency of the organization. He serv-ed several years ago, before his re-ties which are merciless at the hands to the position at the annual convention last week at Carolina Beach.

The Farmville man steps into the president's chair well quelling.

resident's chair well qualified for ville, known as one of the most

the position, and is well known to safety-conscious towns in the state, firemen all over the state. He serv-

Carolina Association for four years eral members of his department and as president two. From these more capable of holding down the ciation, and Chapei Hill is the only town of Bethel. In the hine

bout Farmville People

Miss Margie Beaman

spend the week end here. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Finch of Sou m Pines spent the week end with urned Tuesday after spendim metime with Mr. and Mrs. J. H Smith. The Smiths and their guest spent the week end at Atlantic

Mrs. Paul Kimbrough of Cyn-thians, Ky, and Mrs. Russell Moore of Kentucky, arrived Tuesday to stay with their husbands, who are on the obacco market. Mr. and Mrs. W. Leslie Smith spent several days last week at Atlantic Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Latham and Mrs. C. A. Tyson spent the week end in Plymouth with Mr. and Mrs. A. R.

Latham. Mrs. Jack Rogers of Mullins, S. C. spent last week with Mr. Rogers, be done. As an example, he cites the work which has been done recently ing area purchased a truck and it men and he adds that there are sep-more capable of holding down the position than he is. One is inclined to believe, however, that Farmville's position is due to the work of such mer as Mr. Flanagan, and Fire Chief Haywood Smith, who, as much as direct financial benefit from these men is shown in present fire insur-ance rating. By virtue of its low losses and the availability of ade quate equipment, Farmville has an insurance rating one step higher than is normally given. Several costly fires have been avoided by the department in recent years—fin

Mr. Flanagan takes his fire fight ing and fire prevention work seriously—and for that Farmville proper, owners can be thankful. For a stance, he has diagrams, drawn himself, of the floor plan of most of the floor plan of most of the floor plan of most of the floor plan of the flo the various exits and ways of getting at a fire that might develop. He also treks up and down alleys at night in company with Chief Smith, looking for signs of flames.

As a member of the town board, a monthly looking to be a sign of the town board, a monthly looking to the town board, and the sign of the sign of the town board, and the sign of the sign of the town board, and the sign of the town board, and the sign of the sign of

tion he held several years, Mr district.

Mrs. O. E. Hedrick of Ric

Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Davis daughter, Jean, have returned from their vacation which they spent at Robbins, Morehead City and other

Mrs. S. E. Albritton, who teache in the Manry school, will move to Snow Hill Saturday from Lizzie. She returned last week from Carolina Beach and is the guest of her bro-

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Davis, wh at the University of North Carolina arrived Tuesday for a visit to Rev.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis o Atlanta, Ga., were guests several days last week of Mrs. Lang Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Dixon and son, Robert, attended a presentation of "The Common Glory" at Williamsburg, Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Powell and so of Hampton, Va., visited Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Greene, Monday. Mrs. Powell is Mr. Greene's sister. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warren and Mrs. J. E. Warren of Speed visited relatives here Sunday. Mrs. James Yates of Dunn; Mr.

and Mrs. Carl Greene and family of Gainesville, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Greene and Charles Greene spent Friday at Atlantic Beach. Mrs. Edgar Barrett, Paschall Barrett and Miss Tabitha DeVisconti attended a meeting of county colored teachers in Greenville, Monday, at which Mrs. Barrett explained schoo insurance, Mrs. Barrett and Miss De-Visconti attended a meeting for white principals Thursday night. Seaman and Mrs. Bill Erwin of Baltimore, Md. are spending the

Mrs. John J. Erwin is a patient at Pitt Memorial hospital, Greenville.
Robert Rollins and John Russell Joyner, who have been attending summer school at the University of orth Carolina, arrived Tuesday to spend three weeks at their ho Mrs. W. A. Allen and children re turned Monday from Morehead City where they spent the summer. Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Pierce and children of St. Augustine, Fla., returned to their home Wednesday after visitand Mrs. Pearl Johnston a few days. Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Carr and

J. O. Pollard and Robert Pollard are ding two weeks at Virginia

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin and son, Andy, spent tast week at Myrtle Beach, S. C., with Mr. Martin's

Mrs. G. M. Holden and Miss Tabia DeVisconti visited Mrs. J. B.

Mrs. Frank M. Adams and children, Clint and Harriette, of Nor-fork, Va., arrived last week to visit Mrs. W. C. Murray, Mrs. Adams' mother. They will be here until Sentember 8

Mrs. Irvin Morgan and children returned Monday from Morehead City where they spent six weeks at their cottage.
Misses Jane Joyner and Ann Pol-

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell Morgan an children, Bill, Margaret and Mildred Morgan and Mrs. Bill Moore, spent Sunday in Portsmouth, Va., with Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Lane.

Mrs. J. W. Harrell of Raleigh an

The Farmville Riwanis chab ob-trved Family Night at the munied Mrs. C. E. Modlin Sunday after nomics in Virginia, is spending this week with her hysband, S. L. Loving, who works for Farmville Leaf delightful affair, and promises to become a feature of the Kiwanis

On Monday night of last week Mr. and Mrs. A. R. LaMagter and daughter, Ann, of Newcastle, Ky., Mrs. L. E. Jones. Mr. LaMaste in a long time. Tally, who served i Rev. W. D. Morton has been visitng relatives in Staunton and Lynchburg, Va., and Hendersonville.

spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. FARMVILLE HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

> Sam D. Bundy, principal of the Farmville High School, announced that the Farmville High School foot-ball schedule is now complete for the 1051 season. Practice began on Wednesday, August 22, under the direction of Elbert Moye, coach, and Charles T. Tucker, assistant coach. The 1951 edition of the Farmville Red Devils will be light and inexperienced for the most part, but is expected to give a good account of itself in the nine game shedule which is as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis and Sons, Cedric and Gerald, have return-sons, Cedric and Gerald, have return-thereford at Hertford at Hertford 28: Friday, September 14: Norlins at Farmville (night game)

Miss Mamie Davis is on an exended visit to her niece, Mrs. Robert Friday. October 5: Morehead City at Morehea

Friday, October 12: Clayton of Portsmouth, Va., spent a few days last week with Mrs. J. E. Bynum, Mrs. Alice H. Kilpatrick, Ayden at Farmville (night) Friday, October 26: Friday, November 2:

end in Pinetops with Miss Edna Stokes, who returned with her for a few days stay,

-Miss Louise Lovic of Raleigh and Durham spent the week end with her uncle, Bennie Wooten, and with Miss Mattie Dall. S. Set. and Mrs. W. H. Crocker

Miss Polly E. Bundy of Wilson

fifth grade in the Maury school yes!

Mrs. Eva Ragiand has returned to Danville, Va., after a visit to Mr.

and Mrs. Howard Ragland

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tanner

and with Mrs. R. E. Grimes

Robersonville. Mrs. Grimes return-

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Holmes and children spent the week end in Wen-ed with her for an extended visit.

Monkton, Md., visited Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. W. T. Smith began

Perry Bundy.

daughter, Beth.

Edgar Case, Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Case spent

Cockrell, in Columbia, S. C.

who has been visiting her day

Mrs. E. G. Aycock and Miss Lou terday.

and daughter, Kay, of Camp Lejeur will spend the week end with Be Mr. and Mrs. George W. Windhar and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Windhamfamily were dinner guests Sunds Jr., in Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sutton a ildren, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brock spent Sunday at Atlantic Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jones and children spent the week end in La-Crosse, Va., with relatives. Mr. Jones, local manager of Rose's, is spending the week at Ocean View, Va., resetting the Rose's store for a formal opening Friday.

Mrs. B. S. Smith is a patient at Tucker's hospital, Richmond, Vs. Mrs. George E. Peters and children, Jane, Carol and George. bus. Ohio, will arrive next Friday for a visit to Mrs. Peters' sister, Mrs. Elmer R. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. David Parker son of Wadesboro spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parker. Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Melton and children of Fayetteville visited rela-tives Monday afternoon. Mrs. J. M. Melton returned with them after a risit to her son, A. J. Melton. W. R. Lynch of Erwin was the guest of Miss Tabitha DeVisconti

rs. Claude Johnson and Miss Caro ippin spent Sunday at Carolin

At The Kiwanis Club

As Better Quality Tobacco Offered

Mayor J. O. Tally of Fayetteville, a candidate for governor of the Ki-wanis district, talked to the club on "Examining Ourselves." It was one of the finest talks the club has heard the Navy during World War II, is formerly an instructor of the Wake

FOR SEASON COMPLETED

Friday, September 28: Snow Hill at Farmville (night)

S. Edvecombe at Farmville (night)

Friday, Nov(ember 9: LaGrange at LaGrange

METHODIST SERMON

Rev. H. L. Davis has returned from his vacation. He will speak Sunday morning at the Methodist hurth on "Laborers, with the Lord."

MEDITERRANEAN CRITISE

Ensign Donald Walston will leave waters. He plans to spend the w end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walston

TEACHES IN WILMINGTON

Joe Latham will leave Sunday for Wilmington where he will teach science in the Sunset Park Junior High School. Es is a graduate of Wake Forest college and did addi-tional work at East Carolina college.

PFC. DUPREE RETURNS.

cave this morning for Randolph Air

That better grades of tol ow being offered for sale in Farmville's seven warehouses in reflecte in the report of Supervisor Fred C. dicts that prices will rise higher as the quality becomes better. Sales so far have been light but his is attributed to the fact that the curing season lasted until after the market opened and growers have been so busy with harvesting that no time was left tfor grading and getting the tobacco ready for sale.

Monday will be observed as a holiday. From now on, however, sales on the local floors will be heavy. 220 pounds, for an average of $49.70. The total paid for this tobacco was $1,000,448.00.

> WELFARE DEPT. NOTES by K. T. Futrell, Supt.

Mrs. Sara Proctor, who has been ase worker assistant on the Pitt County Welfare Department staff, is taking a leave of absence beginning September 18, 1951, and running through March, 1952, to attend school at Chapel Hill, N. C.
Paul Hodul of Elizabeth City, replaces Mrs. Sara Proctor, as orker assistant. Mr. Hodul is a graduate of State College, where he majored in Social Sciences and comes to the Department with a good background.

The regular meeting of the Wel-The regular meeting of the Wel-fare Board was held on August 23. The following changes were made in the Public Assistance programs. For Old Age Assistance: 12 cases were approved and 1 was rejected. 37 cases were revised. 27 cases closed, 8 of whom died. The presence of the Lien Law passed by the last Legislature was the cause for closing this meeting, was concerned with and had lengthy discussion in regard to several administrative mati Legislation, affecting Welfare Departments, passed by the last General Assembly.

MARVIN HORTON PASSES STATE BAR

Marvin Horton, Jr., who pas the state bar examination early this month, left Sunday for Fort Jackson. arolina in July.

He is the son of Mrs. Marvin Hor

ROBERT DIXON GETS MASTER'S DEGREE AT UNC

on and the late Mr. Horton.

vision Tuesday at the University of North Carolina. He will report to Fayetteville

Saturday to begin work as a general supervisor in the Cumberland county schools. For the past two years he did similar work in the Harnett county schools.

RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Paylor d daughters have returned from a

SERVICEMEN AT HOME

Pvt. Sam J. Tyson of Camp St wart, Ga., will return Wednesday his base after spending a furlous th his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos

Pyt. Curtis Beaman returned to camp Stewart: Wednesday, after a day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Besman, Sr. Cpl. Robert N. Davden of Re

RETURNS TO WILSO