CLUB AND HOUSE GUI Mrs. W. A. Allen was d nesday Afternoon Bridge Club members and her house guest, Mrs. James R Lang of Douglas, Gs.
Chrysanthemums of brilliant hus were used in lovely arran

ment of roses and mums gracet the dining room table. The hostess served Black Bottom pie, mints, nuts, cheese straws and hot coffee.

Mrs. George Moore, Jr., club high scorer and Mrs. R. E. Pickett, guest high scorer, were presented hand painted trays. Mrs. J. Y. Mook, Jr., club regular, and Mrs. Lang. guest. club member and Mrs. Lang, guest, received wall planters in cup design

Mrs. Lang was also remembere

ENTERTAINS BRIDGETTES The Bridgettes and special guests, Mrs. Lyman Bass and Miss Elizabeth Davis, were entertained on Thursday evening of last week by Mrs. Gray Liles. Colorful arrangements of fall flowers were used in decorating the rooms of the Liles apartment on S.

Upon arrival the guests were served a sweet course which consisted of pineapple short cake and coffee.

A milk glass vase was given as club high score and was won by Mrs. Ed Davenport, Mrs. R. D. Rouse, Jr., was winner of the club low score prize, an ivy bowl. Miss Davis received the guest high score prize, novelty salt and pepper shakers.

MRS. W. B. JONES HOSTESS Mrs. Walter B. Jones was hostess on Friday afternoon to the Book and Bridge Club and additional guests, Mrs. H. N. Howard, Sr., Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Jr., Mrs. R. E. Pickett, Mrs. Charles Duke and Mrs. James R. Lang of Douglas, Ga., house guest of Mrs. W. A. Allen. The Jones home was attractively decorated for this occasion with arrangements of chrysanthemums, dahlias and roses. The hostess served sandwiches, ham biscuits, cookies, pickles and coffee before play and coca colas during the games. Mrs. R. T. Williams scored high for the afternoon. Floating prizes were retained by Mrs. T. S. Ryon, meets with Mrs. R. C. Cap.

cle and the Alda Grayson Circ of the Baptist Missionary Soci by will have a joint meeting son, Mrs. H. B. Humphrey and Mrs. Joe Batchelly as hostesses. 8:00 p.m.—Worker's Council of the Methodist Church meets at the church.

8:00 p.m.—Circle 2, of the Frankrice terian Missionary Society meets with Mrs. Cherry Basley.
8:00 p.m.—Circle 8, of the Presbyterian Missionary Society meets with Mrs. Emerson Smith at her terian Missionary S nome.

Puesday, 6

3:00 p.m.—Contract Club meets with Mrs. W. S. Royster. 7:00 p.m.—Rotary.

the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden. 8:00 p.m.—Nuevo Bridge club meets with Mrs. Critz Hillard.

Thursday, 8 RS. W. B. JONES HOSTESS TO BOOK AND BRIDGE CLUB

Baptist, meets with Mrs. Chester Outland.
3:30 p.m.—Intermediate G. A. Baptist, meets with Mrs. Leroy Bass.

7:30 p.m.-Masons. --7:45 p.m.-Bridgettes meets with Mrs. B. B. Turnage: 8:00 p.m.—V.F.W. Auxilia at the chibhouse with Mrs. H. B. Humphrey and Mrs. Per mette, joint hostesses.

Friday, 9. 3:00 p.m.—Book and Bridge Club meets with Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Jr. 8:00 p.m.-V.F.W. meets at the

8:00 p.m. - Night Bridge Club meets with Mrs. Curtis Flanagan

Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Duke, Mrs. A novel idea in prize winning was Lang was remembered with a gift. used by the hostess. Four prizes were used as center-pieces on each of the card tables when dessert was bridged Club and Mrs. Charles E. Fitzgerald was charming hostess to members of the four players at each table at the end of playing progressions. At the conclusion of games, club high secret home on East Wilson street, Friday evening. The home was made leantly ful for the meeting by use of arrangement of roses and chrysanther mums.

A dessert course consisting of lemon meringus pie and coffee was served upon arrival of guests and code colas and cheese straws were and Mrs. Jones selected candy.

Were used as center-pieces on each of the bride with the work of the bride work as bridge with a correct was been contained and the bride work as any constant of the bride work as any contained that the flower of the bride work as any contained that the flower and the work of the bride work as any contained that the flower of the bride work as any contained that the flower of the bride work as any contained that the flower of the bride work as any contained that the flower of the bride work as any contained that the flower of the bride work as any contained that the flower of the bride work as any contained that the flower of the bride of the bride of Emporia, and the working that the work of the triplett. The mother of the bride work as any crept does with a correct and to turn in their lone. Mission offerings before Sunday. She amounted that the flower of the bride work as any crept does with a correct of the working that the work of the triplett. The mother of the bride of Emporia, and II. It would be been the work of the triplett. The mother of the bride of Emporia, and II. It would be been the bride of Emporia, and II. It would be been to turn in their lone. The mother of the bride of Emporia and II. It would be been the bride of Emporia and II. It would be been the bride of Emporia and III. It would be been the bride of Emporia and III. It would be been the bride of Emporia and III. It would be been the bride of Emporia and III. It would be been

Calcall these

Church had an executive loavel most-ing at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bau-on, St., the president, on Monday light.

Subject to brids, wore a similar dress in gold.

The other attendants, cousins of the brids, Mrs. Edward Allen, Mrs. William O'Berry of Rosnoke Rapids, and Miss Carrie Pearson of Lawrenceville, wore identical gowns of hile grown lace and teffets. Their mits and ban-place by pastel nosegays of forget me-nots.

Roy Francis Chambliss, nephew of the bride, in a ministure full dress suit, brought the rings on a white satin sillow.

Dennis Ray Holloman of Durham, was his brother's best man. Kenry B. Chambliss of Cozet, Va., brother of the bride were ushers. Groomsmen were J. Reid Wzenn, cousin of the bride or Emporie, and her brother, Lee W. Chambliss of street, and street, attractive for the meeting.

Mrn. L. E. Waiston, program chair man, introduced Miss Wills Bary and Mrs. Hawwood Smith, who gave an enjoyable musical program. Later Mrs. Madaline Rountree played several lovely selections on her accordion.

The servingtable was beautifully decreated; giver candelbrae which bore spergnettes with yellow chrysanthemums and fern decorations and tunches of grapes in artistic assumements were the partial attractive for the meeting.

Mrn. L. E. Waiston, program chair man, introduced Miss Wills Bary and Mrs. Hawwood Smith, who gave an enjoyable musical program. Later Mrs. Madaline Rountree played several lovely selections on her accordion.

The servingtable was beautifully decreated; giver candelbrae which bore spergnettes with yellow chrysanthemums and fern decorations and tunches of grapes in artistic assumements were the partial attractive for the minimal program chair man, introduced Miss Wills Bary and Mrs. Hawwood Smith, who gave an enjoyable musical program Later Mrs. Madaline Rountree played several lovely selections on her accordion.

reception. A four timest reading cack and party putch in bridal colors were cryed to 85 guests.

erved to 85 quests.

For travel the bride wore a wine pabardine suit with black accessories, the wore the orchid from her prayer

The bride attended Madison College, Harrisonburg, vs., and receives the Bachelor of Arts degree from High Point College. She did greatuate work in accial studies at Iowa State University, Vermont State University, and College of William and Mary, Recently she was awarded the Master of Science degree from Alabama Polytechnic Institute. The groom attended Farmville High School.

The couple will make their home at 401 W. Church Street, Farmville, where the groom is employed. Mrs. Holloman is a member of the Walletonburg High School faculty.

AUNT AV BIENEDAY DINNE

P.T.A. ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Berry of Rosnoke Repids, and Miss Carrie Pearson of Lawrenceville, wore identical gowns of nile green lace and taffets. Their mits and bandeaus were of nile net. Each carried an arm bouquet of fall flowers.

The flower girl, Joy O'Berry, cousin of the bride, wore a colonial dress.

The flower girl, Joy O'Berry, cousin of the bride, wore a colonial dress.

Fall flowers, roses, dahlias, and o't yellow taffets. The hem of the hoop skirt ended in scaling, held in traction for the process.

tractive for the meeting.

Mrs. L. E. Walston, program challman, introduced Miss Wills Barpeand Mrs. Haywood Smith who gave an enjoyable musical program. Later Mrs. Madeline Rountree played several lovely selections on her according

10.812.41

7 985 999 04 648,577.60 43,777.28 09.313.25 44,651.72

7,631,197.12

25,000.00 354.801.92

Count deposits to the credit of the State of North Caro or any official thereof Assets pledged or assigned to secure Habilities and for

DODAY DAY TABLE

Proposition of the property of

M RCA Records 5.08

ey'es lifellie