HARVEST MOTIF CARRIED OUT IN DANCE CLUB DECORATIONS

Hosts to the Dance Club on Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pettaway, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis, carried out effectively a harvest decoration idea as a setting for the entertainment.

Individual tables were decorated with candles in holders that were encircled with bright colored leaves and acorns. The refreshment table had a center arrangement of a large pumpkin with leaves and acorns banking it and the orange candles in crystal holders. Leaves were also used on the skirt of the table. A vase of gladioli and chrysanthemums in fan shape arrangement was used on the piano. Frezcantha berries were used in the lounge and the ballroom.

Hors d'oeuvres of assorted pickles, olives, cheese and sausage were served from pickets that were stuck in the pumpkin. Shrimp and tomato sauce, pastry puffs filled with cream cheese, doughnuts, ritz and tomato juice were served. Pretzels were served on the individual tables.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Casper and Mrs. Charles Duke.

FOLLIES IN GREENVILLE

The Greenville Service League will present the "Follies of '71" at the Austin Auditorium, East Carolina College, November 30 and 31. This is a Craghill production using local talent in this area and lavish New York costumes furnished by the company.

The follies is being given for the benefit of the Laughinghouse Hospital fund, which provides bed space for those worthy people who cannot afford hospitalization. Mrs. J. H. Thomas, the Service League president, urges that everyone support this project so that the League will not have to turn down any of the many calls.

As a special feature the Alcomett Hotel is given a free trip to Florida, to stay at one of their resort hotels, the Holiday Hotel at Fort Lauderdale. This free trip was offered to the winner in order for them to receive publicity in this vicinity.

The winner will be the one with the lucky ticket, which will be drawn Wednesday night. The winner will not have to be present at the drawing. The stub, however, will have to be deposited in the box with name and address in full.

Mrs. Thomas says, "Come enjoy our show, help charity and you could be the lucky winner."

Tickets are on sale at the Western Auto Store for $1.50 including tax.

REV. COX SPEAKS TO WALSTONBURG P.T.A.

"Worry detracts from personality and mars one's efficiency," stated Rev. Z. B. Cox in a forceful speech to the Walstonburg Parent-Teacher Association last Thursday night.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Henry G. Surrh. Mrs. Ben Gay of the faculty conducted the devotion, reading the 131st Psalm. The minutes were read by Mrs. A. J. Craft, secretary, and approved by the association. Mrs. Shirley's eleventh grade won the attendance prize in the roll call of parents. Mr. Surrh reported that a total of $381.00 was netted from the Halloween Party on October 28.

Mrs. Henrietta Williamson, program chairman, introduced Rev. Cox, pastor of the Farmville Christian Church, who spoke effectively on the subject, "Worry." His unique remarks about the futility of worry were very interesting. He emphasized that before anything can be done about worrying you have to find what causes worry. "A great many people worry for no other reason than they try to attend to other people's affairs," stated Rev. Cox. He explained that one of the greatest blessings to the mind of man is a job well done. His impressive remarks were summarized with the following points: (1) Attend strictly to your own business, (2) Do every job well.

Poetic Pointers
Terrific Toes, the talented too.
Holds nightly serenades.
Between deluges of old shoes
This tune you can't evade.
"For All Leading Cosmetics
See CITY DRUG!"
City Drug Co.

(3) Take time to CARE straight, and
(4) Do not try to control attitude beyond your reach. The audience was amused by Rev. Cox's splendid talk and deep appreciation was expressed to him for his valuable message.

The next monthly meeting is scheduled for Thursday, December 6, at 7:30 p.m.

STOP!

DON'T SCRUB THAT FLOOR!

Tests have proven that it's actually harmful to scrub wood floors. And water is bad for wood. What to do instead? Use PREEN—it cleans scientifically, safely, waxes and protects your floors in one operation. PREEN leaves your floors gleaming and spotless. PREEN gives them a long-lasting lustre. No other cleaner is needed, no other wax. So don't waste time scrubbing. You'll only spoil your floors. Use PREEN instead. PREEN—the scientific way to leveler floors—saves time and energy.
