CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP MEETING

The Christian Women's Fellowship met on Monday afternoon with Mrs. Clarence Moys, vice-president, presiding.

The meeting was opened by singing the Fellowship song "Lo, Here is Fellowship" and the Lord's Prayer was repeated as the invocation.

Announcement was made of a mission study to be held on November 15 under the auspices of the Farmville Council of Church women with time and place to be announced. The group was also reminded of the mission study to be held in the Christian Church on November 20.

Mrs. Hubert Dixon, program leader, gave the introduction to the program "Church to Speed His Work." In her opening remarks she said that although we sometimes feel that God is able to accomplish anything - he wants without any help from us, we must realize that just as each part of the body is essential to its function so each one of us is necessary to bring about God's Kingdom on earth. Mrs. L. E. Turnage gave a preview of a new church in Lake City, Wash.; Mrs. Charlie Letchworth gave a review of the work at Dale Hollow and Mrs. Dixon made some remarks about the work being done among migrant workers.

Mrs. A. C. Turnage gave a very inspiring devotion.

Circle 1, Presbyterian Women of the Church

Circle 1 of the Presbyterian Women of the Church met Monday afternoon in the parlor of the church with Mrs. W. H. Moore, Jr., as hostess.

Mrs. E. S. Coates presided in the absence of Mrs. Gary Bergeron, the chairman, and opened the meeting by leading the group in prayer.

Mrs. Edward May gave a devotional based on the Seventh Commandment, which was followed by group discussion.

The program for the month, "Assemblies Special Causes," was presented by Mrs. J. M. Mewborn.

Mrs. Moore announced that a mission study would be held on November 15, and urged members to attend.

Refreshments of homemade coconut cake and coffee were served by the hostess prior to the meeting.

ATTEND MEETING

Supt. B. L. Davis, Henry Beeker, principal of the Snow Hill School; Dallas Whitford, principal of the Maury School; Jack Harrell and Robert Exam, committee members of the Snow Hill School, attended the fourteenth annual meeting of the State School Board Association in Chapel Hill on Tuesday, November 6. The highlight of the meeting was an informative and interesting address by Dr. Andy Holt, executive assistant to the President of the University of Tennessee.

HOLINESS HOMECOMING SERVICE SUNDAY, NOV. 11

The Pentecostal Holiness Church will observe Homecoming on Sunday with special services in the morning and afternoon.

Mayor Walter B. Jones will make the address of welcome and former pastors will be recognized at the afternoon program.
