MISS DAVID-GUEST SPEAKS AT HENRY WATSON MEETING

Miss Marie Davis was guest speaker at the Henry Watson meeting Tuesday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden.

Miss Davis, who was presented by the program chairman, Mrs. John T. Thomas, presented a two-part program. The first part of her program dealt with the economic, industrial and educational development of North Carolina. She made the following statement, "North Carolina now holds first place in the South. Just recently the state has advanced from a predominantly agricultural economy to a sound balance between industry and agriculture." She stressed the fact that North Carolina leads the Nation in the production of textiles, tobacco and wooden furniture, and has made outstanding advancement in paved roads and rural electrification projects. She cited the new health centers now being constructed at the University of North Carolina.

The second part of Miss Davis' program was a history of education in Pitt County.

The Holden home was beautifully decorated for the meeting with roses and chrysanthemums. Mrs. H. D. Johnson, president, presided.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served a frozen fruit salad, with coffee, sandwiches, crackers and pickles. Later she served cheese straws, sand tarts, cookies and homemade candies from a hostess tray.

Guests other than the members were Miss Davis, Mrs. H. L. Davis and Miss Elizabeth Boyd of Washington D. C. and Bettelville, house guest of Mrs. W. C. Murray.

BOOK AND BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MRS. JOYNER

Members of the Book and Bridge club and other guests, Mrs. B. S. Smith, Jr. and Mrs. E. T. Monk, were entertained by Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Jr. on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Joyner used modernistic arrangements of shrubs and fruits and arrangements of chrysanthemums and berries in decorating for the occasion.

Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Jr. compiled high score for the afternoon and was presented a lovely basket filled with fruits and other goodies, and decorated with fall leaves in bright colors.

The hostess served sandwiches, date bars, pickles, salted nuts and coca colas.
