PRE-HOLIDAY PARTIES HONOR HOUSE GUEST OF MRS MURRAY

Entertains At Canasta Party
Mrs. W. S. Boyter was hostess on Wednesday night at a canasta party in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Boyd of Reidsville and Washington, D. C., house guest of Mrs. W. C. Murray.

A color scheme of yellow and green was carried out in the flower arrangements used in the house and in the individual table decorations. Epergnettes filled with dainty arrangements of mums were attached to yellow candles that illumined the tables, where a frozen fruit salad course was served upon arrival of the guests.

During the canasta games that followed the serving, Mrs. M. V. Horton, Sr., compiled high score and was presented hostery. The honored guest, Miss Boyd, was remembered with stationery.

Hosts At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones were hosts at a barbecue and Brunswick stew dinner on Saturday evening, honoring Miss Boyd.

The dining table, from which the dinner was served buffet style, was centered with a lovely arrangement of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. W. C. Murray served the barbecue, Mrs. Arthur Joyner, Sr., served the Brunswick stew and Mrs. Will Joyner assisted with the salad course.

Chrysanthemums and yellow tapers were used on the individual tables

Miss Flanagan Elected To Honorary Society

Miss Ora Lee Flanagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Flanagan, student nurse at the Medical College of Virginia, in Richmond, was recently elected president of the Junior Class and has also been elected a member of the Alpha Sigma Chi, an honorary leadership society. The selection is merited by outstanding leadership qualities demonstrated in student activity participation.

The prime purpose of the organization is to provide a society with lofty ideals entirely above smallness, politics, and personal favoritism or enmity. The society consists of those who have held office among the student activities and feel a strong obligation, incurred by their preferences to promote principles of leadership and scholarship, endeavoring at the same time to render continuing service to the college. Alpha Sigma Chi originated at the Medical College of Virginia and has been in existence for 13 years.

Miss Flanagan, a charming young lady of outstanding ability was graduated from the Farmville High School and received two and a half years of pre-nursing courses at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina before entering the Medical College of Virginia. She will receive a B.S. degree upon completion of her study at the Medical College.

V.F.W. AUXILIARY MEETING

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Burnetts-Rouse Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held their regular meeting last Thursday at the club house, with Mrs. H. E. Humphrey and Mrs. Fessell Burnett as hostesses. Eleven members were present.

A letter was read by Mrs. Jack Tyson, president, from Olean Hospital thanking the members for comic books sent them. The Auxiliary decided to send more comic books to Olean in January. A letter from Willie Caldwell, Community Service chairman, urging the Auxiliary to continue their community service project, and stating that prizes will be given the auxiliary doing the most outstanding work during the year, was also read.

For their Christmas project, they are to send the following articles to the Caswell Training School: Two rubber dolls, three stamped scarves and five skeins of embroidery thread. Each member is to buy and wrap a gift to send to a child for Christmas. The hostesses served delicious refreshments.

NEW DEAL CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. WALSTON

New Deal club members and special guests, Mrs. Waver Holston, Mrs. C. H. Flanagan, Mrs. G. M. Holden and Mrs. R. O. Lang, Sr., were entertained by Mrs. L. E. Walston at her home on East Wilson street, on Wednesday afternoon.

House gardens, chrysanthemums and roses were used to decorate the home for the occasion.

Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, club member, and Mrs. Holston, guest, were given potted plants for scoring high in the several progressions.

After play the hostess served mince meat cake topped with whipped cream, salted nuts and coffee.

CHRISTIANS HAVE BARBECUE SUPPER AND SPECIAL MEETING

Members of the local Christian Church enjoyed a barbecue supper at the Church on Wednesday night. Around 80 members were in attendance.

At the special meeting that followed the supper, Arch Flanagan, assistant chairman of the church board, presided and presented the recommendation that the church adopt a long range building program that would include the building of a parsonage and an educational plant.

The recommendation was adopted and plans were made to begin, at once, on the first unit of the program, which is the building of a parsonage.

The finance committee reported that $6000 had been contributed and they were well pleased with the response to the program.

Thanksgiving

Gratitude most deeply felt is often the hardest to express. Along comes Thanksgiving Day giving us the welcome opportunity of expressing our genuine appreciation of your patronage and co-operation.

There's an old proverb which says: "On the path between the home of friends grass does not grow."

We want you to know how perfectly this expresses our feeling toward our customers, whom we like to consider as our friends. We hope the path between you and us will always be well-worn.

Let us express to you our sincere appreciation for past and future business; to tell you that it has been a pleasure to be of service to you; and that we look forward to continue our pleasant business relationship with you.

We wish you that your Thanksgiving be as pleasant as you have helped make ours.

Thankfully yours,
