

Steps Taken To Prohibit House-to-House Canvassing

Meeting Tuesday night in regular monthly session, the Board of Commissioners authorized Attorney John B. Lewis to draft ordinances prohibiting house-to-house canvasses by unlicensed firms or individuals...

About Farmville People

Mrs. and Mrs. James H. Smith visited Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. W. Leslie Smith at Duke Hospital on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Joney Taylor and son, Mike, visited relatives in Robersonville on Sunday.

Store Hours For Christmas Season Set By Directors

Directors of the Farmville Chamber of Commerce and Merchants Association, meeting Wednesday night in the office of Secretary Fred Moore, asked that local business firms be closed December 25 and 26 for Christmas holidays...

Town Wants Street Extension Paved

Attempts to persuade the State Highway and Public Works Commission to pave the western extension of Church street, leading from the Wilson highway by Farmville to the tobacco company to South Tarnage street, moved forward another notch Tuesday night when the Board of Commissioners adopted a resolution assuring State authorities the town would cooperate in obtaining the 60-foot right-of-way required.

Friends will regret to learn that Paschal Barrett, who sprained an ankle during basketball practice on Monday afternoon, is still confined to his home. Mrs. Louise D. Harris, Miss Elizabeth Parker, Miss Eliza Seago and Miss Mary Gaylord attended the "Ice Capades" in Raleigh on Tuesday night.

Local Priest's Father Dies In New York

Father Joachim Benson of Saint Elizabeth's Catholic Church received word of the death of his father, Robert Benson, on Wednesday, December 5. Father Benson left immediately to attend the funeral which will be held from Saint Vincent de Paul Church at Albany, New York, probably Friday morning.

Dr. Hobbs Speaks Here Thursday

Dr. A. J. Hobbs, district superintendent of the Rocky Mount district of the Methodist Church, will speak at the Farmville church Thursday night at 7:30. Dr. Hobbs will give a report on the Ecumenical Conference held in England in the fall. He was a delegate to the conference.

Professional Will Inaugurate White Christmas Gifts

A professional, emphasizing the celebration of the birth of Christ, will inaugurate the annual community White Christmas Gift Observance on Wednesday afternoon. The Professional will form at the school and will begin at 4:00, proceeding down Main Street to the Community Christmas Tree at the Christian Church, where a program of choral singing, scripture and band music will be given.

Local Patrolman Nabs Bootlegger In Highway Check

When Patrolman Bruce Jackson plays his hunches, they pay off. Returning from investigating an accident near Hallifax Community on Monday night, he noticed a pickup truck which was being driven in a suspicious manner. The truck had been parked on the shoulder of the highway with no lights and as Jackson approached it pulled onto the highway and drove off hurriedly.

Man, Shooting At Dog, Hits Child

Gail Purvis, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Purvis was seriously injured Sunday afternoon when she was hit by a bullet shot from a .22 rifle by Bill Oakley, who was trying to shoot a dog. The accident occurred at 529 N. Main street, where the Purvis family lives. Mr. Purvis is employed by Garner Furniture company.

At The Rotary Club

G. A. Bouse, secretary-treasurer of the Farmville Building and Loan Association for 29 years, was program leader at the Rotary meeting Tuesday evening. Mr. Bouse presented a comparative statement of the organization, showing the continuous growth and progress over a period of years, reporting that it now has assets above the half million mark.

At The Kiwanis Club

Bernis Turnage showed an interesting movie, which depicted and was entitled, "The Invention Of The Steel Flow." The president, Charles Edwards, presided and announced that Frank K. Allen would be inducted as lieutenant governor by the present lieutenant governor, Ed Bloom of Greenville at the December 17 meeting.

Opportunity Given To Play 'Santa Claus' For Needy

The County Welfare Department has investigated and sent to The Enterprise, a list of families in the community, who will go through the Christmas season without adequate clothing, food, and the joy of having Santa bring toys to the children; unless some generous-hearted person takes the privilege of furnishing these items.

Information concerning these families may be obtained from The Enterprise, by calling telephone number 293-1. A general description of the families follows: Opportunity No. 1—Woman and three children: one boy, age 7 and two girls, ages 12 and 8.

Dates Set To Judge Decorations In Local Stores And Homes

Show windows of local stores and business establishments will be judged Friday, December 14, for the cash awards offered by the Chamber of Commerce for the most attractive Christmas displays. Indoor and outdoor decorations in homes will be judged one week later, on December 22. Those entering the contest are asked to notify Secretary Fred Moore or President M. J. Joyner, Jr., so the judges can visit the homes on the night specified and decide the winners.

Legion Commanders Honored Tonight

Commander R. D. Rouse, Jr., of the Farmville American Legion anticipates a large attendance at the dinner, honoring past commanders of the local post, at the American Legion home on West Church street. Dr. W. C. Marshall of the E.C.C. faculty will be the guest speaker. The local post was organized in 1923. Two of the former commanders are deceased. They are C. A. Tyson and Dr. W. M. Willis. It is hoped that the others will be present tonight. The dinner begins at 7 o'clock.

Farmville Delegates Will Attend Farm Bureau Convention In Chicago

Two Pitt County delegates from Farmville will join the Tar Heel Delegation to the American Farm Bureau Federation's National Convention, which will be held at the Stevens Hotel in Chicago, December 9-13. The delegation will depart by train leaving from Durham and Winston-Salem, at 1:45, Saturday afternoon.

Family Dinner On Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Mark W. Joyner were host to relatives at a family dinner on Sunday. Relatives attending were Mrs. Laura McClees and Mrs. James H. McClees of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ward of Greenville, Mrs. Bob Joyner of Wilson, A. O. Roebuck, Mrs. J. M. Ward, Sr., Miss Carolyn Roebuck, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr and Miss Mary E. Carr.

Miss Christine Smith Painfully Hurt In Fall

Miss Christine Smith sustained a broken arm and suffered painful bruises about her face when she fell last Thursday at her home. Miss Smith stumbled over an obstacle in her yard, at what point she held in her hand hit her glasses and face as she fell, inflicting bruises and breaking the spectacles.

Fountain Doctor At Medical Convention

Dr. E. R. Beasley and Mrs. Beasley of Fountain are attending a convention of the Southern Medical Society this week at Cavalier Hotel, Virginia Beach.

Town Sells Small Tract

A narrow, 10-foot strip of land adjacent to the E. S. Scott home has been sold by the town to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ward. The bid of $125.00 was approved Tuesday.

Local Priest's Father Dies In New York

Father Joachim Benson of Saint Elizabeth's Catholic Church received word of the death of his father, Robert Benson, on Wednesday, December 5. Father Benson left immediately to attend the funeral which will be held from Saint Vincent de Paul Church at Albany, New York, probably Friday morning.

Dr. Hobbs Speaks Here Thursday

Dr. A. J. Hobbs, district superintendent of the Rocky Mount district of the Methodist Church, will speak at the Farmville church Thursday night at 7:30. Dr. Hobbs will give a report on the Ecumenical Conference held in England in the fall. He was a delegate to the conference.

Professional Will Inaugurate White Christmas Gifts

A professional, emphasizing the celebration of the birth of Christ, will inaugurate the annual community White Christmas Gift Observance on Wednesday afternoon. The Professional will form at the school and will begin at 4:00, proceeding down Main Street to the Community Christmas Tree at the Christian Church, where a program of choral singing, scripture and band music will be given.

Local Patrolman Nabs Bootlegger In Highway Check

When Patrolman Bruce Jackson plays his hunches, they pay off. Returning from investigating an accident near Hallifax Community on Monday night, he noticed a pickup truck which was being driven in a suspicious manner. The truck had been parked on the shoulder of the highway with no lights and as Jackson approached it pulled onto the highway and drove off hurriedly.

Man, Shooting At Dog, Hits Child

Gail Purvis, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Purvis was seriously injured Sunday afternoon when she was hit by a bullet shot from a .22 rifle by Bill Oakley, who was trying to shoot a dog. The accident occurred at 529 N. Main street, where the Purvis family lives. Mr. Purvis is employed by Garner Furniture company.

At The Rotary Club

G. A. Bouse, secretary-treasurer of the Farmville Building and Loan Association for 29 years, was program leader at the Rotary meeting Tuesday evening. Mr. Bouse presented a comparative statement of the organization, showing the continuous growth and progress over a period of years, reporting that it now has assets above the half million mark.

At The Kiwanis Club

Bernis Turnage showed an interesting movie, which depicted and was entitled, "The Invention Of The Steel Flow." The president, Charles Edwards, presided and announced that Frank K. Allen would be inducted as lieutenant governor by the present lieutenant governor, Ed Bloom of Greenville at the December 17 meeting.

Farmville Delegates Will Attend Farm Bureau Convention In Chicago

Two Pitt County delegates from Farmville will join the Tar Heel Delegation to the American Farm Bureau Federation's National Convention, which will be held at the Stevens Hotel in Chicago, December 9-13. The delegation will depart by train leaving from Durham and Winston-Salem, at 1:45, Saturday afternoon.

Family Dinner On Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Mark W. Joyner were host to relatives at a family dinner on Sunday. Relatives attending were Mrs. Laura McClees and Mrs. James H. McClees of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ward of Greenville, Mrs. Bob Joyner of Wilson, A. O. Roebuck, Mrs. J. M. Ward, Sr., Miss Carolyn Roebuck, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr and Miss Mary E. Carr.

Opportunity Given To Play 'Santa Claus' For Needy

The County Welfare Department has investigated and sent to The Enterprise, a list of families in the community, who will go through the Christmas season without adequate clothing, food, and the joy of having Santa bring toys to the children; unless some generous-hearted person takes the privilege of furnishing these items.

Information concerning these families may be obtained from The Enterprise, by calling telephone number 293-1. A general description of the families follows: Opportunity No. 1—Woman and three children: one boy, age 7 and two girls, ages 12 and 8.

Dates Set To Judge Decorations In Local Stores And Homes

Show windows of local stores and business establishments will be judged Friday, December 14, for the cash awards offered by the Chamber of Commerce for the most attractive Christmas displays. Indoor and outdoor decorations in homes will be judged one week later, on December 22. Those entering the contest are asked to notify Secretary Fred Moore or President M. J. Joyner, Jr., so the judges can visit the homes on the night specified and decide the winners.

Legion Commanders Honored Tonight

Commander R. D. Rouse, Jr., of the Farmville American Legion anticipates a large attendance at the dinner, honoring past commanders of the local post, at the American Legion home on West Church street. Dr. W. C. Marshall of the E.C.C. faculty will be the guest speaker. The local post was organized in 1923. Two of the former commanders are deceased. They are C. A. Tyson and Dr. W. M. Willis. It is hoped that the others will be present tonight. The dinner begins at 7 o'clock.

Farmville Delegates Will Attend Farm Bureau Convention In Chicago

Two Pitt County delegates from Farmville will join the Tar Heel Delegation to the American Farm Bureau Federation's National Convention, which will be held at the Stevens Hotel in Chicago, December 9-13. The delegation will depart by train leaving from Durham and Winston-Salem, at 1:45, Saturday afternoon.

Family Dinner On Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Mark W. Joyner were host to relatives at a family dinner on Sunday. Relatives attending were Mrs. Laura McClees and Mrs. James H. McClees of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ward of Greenville, Mrs. Bob Joyner of Wilson, A. O. Roebuck, Mrs. J. M. Ward, Sr., Miss Carolyn Roebuck, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr and Miss Mary E. Carr.

Miss Christine Smith Painfully Hurt In Fall

Miss Christine Smith sustained a broken arm and suffered painful bruises about her face when she fell last Thursday at her home. Miss Smith stumbled over an obstacle in her yard, at what point she held in her hand hit her glasses and face as she fell, inflicting bruises and breaking the spectacles.

Fountain Doctor At Medical Convention

Dr. E. R. Beasley and Mrs. Beasley of Fountain are attending a convention of the Southern Medical Society this week at Cavalier Hotel, Virginia Beach.

Town Sells Small Tract

A narrow, 10-foot strip of land adjacent to the E. S. Scott home has been sold by the town to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ward. The bid of $125.00 was approved Tuesday.

Local Priest's Father Dies In New York

Father Joachim Benson of Saint Elizabeth's Catholic Church received word of the death of his father, Robert Benson, on Wednesday, December 5. Father Benson left immediately to attend the funeral which will be held from Saint Vincent de Paul Church at Albany, New York, probably Friday morning.

Dr. Hobbs Speaks Here Thursday

Dr. A. J. Hobbs, district superintendent of the Rocky Mount district of the Methodist Church, will speak at the Farmville church Thursday night at 7:30. Dr. Hobbs will give a report on the Ecumenical Conference held in England in the fall. He was a delegate to the conference.

Professional Will Inaugurate White Christmas Gifts

A professional, emphasizing the celebration of the birth of Christ, will inaugurate the annual community White Christmas Gift Observance on Wednesday afternoon. The Professional will form at the school and will begin at 4:00, proceeding down Main Street to the Community Christmas Tree at the Christian Church, where a program of choral singing, scripture and band music will be given.

Local Patrolman Nabs Bootlegger In Highway Check

When Patrolman Bruce Jackson plays his hunches, they pay off. Returning from investigating an accident near Hallifax Community on Monday night, he noticed a pickup truck which was being driven in a suspicious manner. The truck had been parked on the shoulder of the highway with no lights and as Jackson approached it pulled onto the highway and drove off hurriedly.

Man, Shooting At Dog, Hits Child

Gail Purvis, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Purvis was seriously injured Sunday afternoon when she was hit by a bullet shot from a .22 rifle by Bill Oakley, who was trying to shoot a dog. The accident occurred at 529 N. Main street, where the Purvis family lives. Mr. Purvis is employed by Garner Furniture company.

At The Rotary Club

G. A. Bouse, secretary-treasurer of the Farmville Building and Loan Association for 29 years, was program leader at the Rotary meeting Tuesday evening. Mr. Bouse presented a comparative statement of the organization, showing the continuous growth and progress over a period of years, reporting that it now has assets above the half million mark.

At The Kiwanis Club

Bernis Turnage showed an interesting movie, which depicted and was entitled, "The Invention Of The Steel Flow." The president, Charles Edwards, presided and announced that Frank K. Allen would be inducted as lieutenant governor by the present lieutenant governor, Ed Bloom of Greenville at the December 17 meeting.

Farmville Delegates Will Attend Farm Bureau Convention In Chicago

Two Pitt County delegates from Farmville will join the Tar Heel Delegation to the American Farm Bureau Federation's National Convention, which will be held at the Stevens Hotel in Chicago, December 9-13. The delegation will depart by train leaving from Durham and Winston-Salem, at 1:45, Saturday afternoon.

Family Dinner On Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Mark W. Joyner were host to relatives at a family dinner on Sunday. Relatives attending were Mrs. Laura McClees and Mrs. James H. McClees of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ward of Greenville, Mrs. Bob Joyner of Wilson, A. O. Roebuck, Mrs. J. M. Ward, Sr., Miss Carolyn Roebuck, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr and Miss Mary E. Carr.