Longer Shopping Schedule Observed

From now until Christmas, Farmville merchants will keep longer working hours for the convenience of Servicemen stationed in the States their customers who can't crowd who will be coming home or have alinto a short time all the work and shopping necessary to make the Yuletide season a success. On Thursday and Friday nights of this week, stores will remain open until 8 o'clock. On Saturday and Monday Cpl. Jack Turnage arrived this

The larger number of out-of-town shoppers here this week is an indi-cation that word is spreading far and wide that Farmville merchants have choice stocks of merchandise at rea-sonable prices. Although merchants each year advise their patrons to shop early, it seems to be a trait quite marked in this section that local folks put off their Christmas shop-ping to the last mirute. The same thing is true, apparently, this year-

Stores will be closed Tuesday and Wednesday for the holidays.

Post Office Open Saturday Afternoon

A stamp window is the Farmville postoffice will be upon Saturday afternoon until 5 o clock, according to an amountement by Postmaster Henry Johnson, who is keeping the office open for the convenience of the public. Ordinarily, the office closes at noon on Saturday.
