DAGE 2

Mrs. E. R. Smith Entertains At Series Of Parties

Mrs. E. R. Smith was a gracious color note of pink was carried in the hostess at a series of bridge parties held on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of last week. The home of Mrs. Fred C. Moore where the Bight tables of bridge plays of Mrs. Fred C. Moore where the parties were held was beautifully decorated for the occasions with autumn colors being carried in the

TOD

AUTO

FIRE

VLIFE.

per Parm Deserve A subserve our same a server shows tillty policies over 60 different types insurance coverage? Balars you key or ov any insurance 8 will pay you to

Dixon Insurance Agency

Phone 3019

THE REAL PROPERTY OF THE REAL PROPERTY OF

tool and other and and and main and control. The solute too forest with emilies much be in-Reven for Weinselay at dising room of the house by the sun ients of fall fruit, red gladioli and yellow pompom chrysenthemams, and colorvery red connectors and per rose on Thursday. Diffus and others much were presed later during and playing maheon dovers. re Cast Bangan, 74, Shine to B a man a maran to Bina ann B. E. Math, Island of the Indy Filler and in Gaydon Like, low scourt of the al importal i

10 11 Scare witness of the second day ware: Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, high; Mrs. W. M. Willis, middle score; Mrs. Bigar Barrett, lucky tally, and Mrs. J. T. Windham, low.

Lovely Tea Honors Virs Maxton Graig

(The Lincoln County News) A highlight of Lincolnton scelety was the beautiful tes given by Mrs. Hubert Maxton Craig and her daugh-ter, Miss Nancy Craig on Friday afternoon, October 24, between the hours of four and aix o'clock intro-hours of four and six o'clock intro-ducing Mrs. Mastén Craig. The lovely and imposing home of the hosteness on the Gastonia High-way was magnificent throughout with gleaming silver and arrange-ments of gold and white flowers. Mrs. Charles Crowell welcomed the greats on arrival and Mrs. J. A. Burris introduced them to the re-calving line composed of Miss Nancy Graig, Mrs. Hubert Graig, Mrs. Max-ton Graig and her mother, Mrs. M. W. Rollins of Farmville.

Mrs. Charles Raper Jones and Mrs. J. Everette Henley received in the den and directed the guests to the music room where Miss Dorothy Ballinger rendered soft music during the calling hours. Mrs. W. E. Garrison directed callers to the register which was in charge of Mrs. W. G. Bandy.

Mrs. S. A. Wilson directed the guests to the dining room where Mrs. James De Wese of Charlotte and Mrs. Edgar Love, Jr., received.

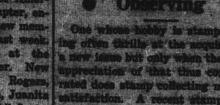

The banquet dining table was cov-ered with a handsome imported cut work cloth with a large silver bowl of white chrysanthemums, stock, and feverfew, making a beautiful centerpiece. Mrs. M. T. Leatherman pre-sided over the silver punch bowl, and Mrs. J. E. Kale, Sr., poured tea. Miss Elizabeth Love, Miss Barbara Love, Miss Ann James, Miss Mary Miller, Rhyne, Miss Fredda Thamson and Miss Judy Chandler served the dainty and artistic refreshments. Goodbyes were cordially said by Mrs. Harry L. Davis.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

and the second

All and the second Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jones of Ayo cently moved to Farmville to me ar ser ar a current Valetanburg A.H.A. Louve/Gravement

The Future Bomemakers of America, Wallstonburg School Chapter, and bertained in honor of dight new mem-bass, Wednesday night of last weeks A skatting party was held at the Wallstonburg Touth Center. New Jantos Bason, Anne-Walston Juantis Barrell, Evelue Norville, Sybil Jones, Desgy Dida and Bortense Gay. Others attending ware: Doris Diton Mary Prances Norville, Sybil Jones, Shirley Senson, Berty Jo Oraci er en selen en ser en selen e Se ser en selen en se

restone

anone-lighter and

A trace

A Gift That Will Always Be Rememberedi Tirestone 1. 一人的自水 Your Old Bike Will Cover The Down Payment Little os $2.00 a Week

rica's Greatest Line of Choose from Our Big Selection!

