Church Women Have Monthly Meetings

Methodist Women's Society Of Christian Service

Mrs. E. N. Howard gave the devotions at the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Monday afternoon of last week at the Church. She read the Christmas story from the scriptures and spoke briefly on the inclination of people to forget the sacredness of the season and put too much emphasis on the unimportant. Following the devotions, the group sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

Mrs. J. L. Morgan presented, in an inspiring manner, famous women of the Bible and Church. She spoke of Lydia, seller of purple, who after becoming a convert, did so much for the Christians; of Priscilla and Aquilla, who aided Paul; of Linda

Rankin, missionary to the Protestant Church of Mexico; of Narcissa Whitman, West Coast worker among Indians; of Elizabeth Russell, missionary to Japan, and Dr. Elmore Chestnut, a doctor who made an outstanding record in China.

Mrs. Lynn Eason, president, presided and heard reports from the circles of the society. Circle 5 reported that a box had been sent to Korea and Circle 6 reported that their members were delivering the Upper Rooms.

Christian Women's Fellowship

The Christian Women's Fellowship held its annual Christmas meeting and program at the church, Monday afternoon at the church. The meeting was held in the social hall of the building which had been beautifully decorated in the Christmas motif. The central theme of the decorations was the spot-lighted Nativity scene and the background music of Christmas hymns. Holly, red candles and greenery were used to beautify in other parts of the hall.

Mrs. Hubert Dixon, program chairman, read the Christmas story as recorded in the gospel of Luke and spoke on the timely topic, "Let Us Deserve The Carols." Christmas customs in other lands were enacted by several ladies who, dressed in native costumes, were hostesses from other lands. Taking part in the playlet were: Mrs. Thad Cox, representing the Philippines; Mrs. R. V. Floss, Japan; Mrs. Morris Greene, Mexico; Mrs. H. D. Moye, India and Mrs. Clarence Moye, England.

The meeting was closed with the Fellowship Benediction.

The ladies of Group 4 were hostesses at the social hour that followed the meeting, and served dark orange cake topped with whipped cream, mints and nuts with coffee.

Baptist Woman's Missionary Union

Mrs. Dalton Corbett, president, opened the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union meeting, Monday afternoon with the Watchword, followed by group singing of the hymn, "Come All Ye Faithful." Mrs. J. W. Miller read for the devotions, Isaiah 41:17-20.

Mrs. J. C. Parker was program chairman of the meeting and was assisted by Mrs. Foy Styers and Mrs. Chester Outland who took parts in the playlet, "The Land Where Jesus Walked."

Mrs. George W. Davis was appointed chairman of the Christmas Decorating Committee. Serving with Mrs. Davis will be Mrs. B. M. Lewis, Mrs. B. B. Turnage, Mrs. W. R. Burke and Mrs. E. C. Holmes.

Mrs. L. W. Andrews, chairman of George Truett Circle, retained the attendance pin.

Following the meeting, the hostesses, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. H. B. Humphrey, Mrs. Harry May, Mrs. Dalton Corbett and Mrs. Herbert Moore, served fruit cake topped with whipped cream and cherry with coffee.
