Independent in all Things.

Terms $2.00 Per Year.

VOL. V.

NEW BERNE, N. C., APRIL 6, 1882.

NO. 1.

The Golden Sunset.

BY H. W. LONGFELLOW. The golden sun its mirror spreads, Reflects the golden sky, And but a narrow strip between, Of land and shadow lies.

Fashions and Physiology.

BY J. MILNER FOTHERGILL, M. D. Fashions and physiology are not linked together from their association but because of their divorce.

Too Much Credit—Too Little Paying.

(Monroe Advertiser.) I read in your issue the following brief paragraph: "There is more religion in paying one hundred cents in the dollar a man owns, including his subscription for a full year in advance to his home paper, than in some of the most eloquent prayers ever offered."

MY HERO.

I had but one hero in my childhood, and that was a brother whom I had never seen.

Taxes.

The government raises $400,000,000 annually. There are 10,000,000 families in the United States.

EDUCATION.

Superintendent Scarborough has returned from attending the meeting of the National Educational Convention at Washington.

Jokes Upon Lawyers.

From the earliest times the lawyers have "had to take it," as the boys say. Everybody who has a spark of wit delights to exercise it upon the members of this profession.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, April 4.—The Democrats will have 5,000 majority on the city ticket in yesterday's election.

FLORIDA.

JACKSONVILLE, April 4.—The municipal election here yesterday resulted in the defeat of the Democratic Conservative ticket by a larger majority than ever before.

Rest.

My feet are weary and my hands are tired. My coat is heavy and my boots are tight. And with desire have I long desired, Rest—only Rest.

FOREIGN.

ST. LOUIS, April 4.—A St. Joseph special says Charles and Robert Ford, who at one time belonged to the James gang and were engaged in the Watson and Blair robberies, have been seen in St. Joseph for a week for the purpose of arresting James James, but being afraid to make the attempt they fled down at Thibault and Lafayette streets, where they were taken in a chase by the police.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, April 4.—The Morning Post states that the Board of Trade has notified the Channel Tunnel Company to proceed with their scheme for a tunnel between Dover and Calais.
