

We call attention to the fact that we have been publishing the Journal for over thirty years, and that we have always been published on the 18th of May, and that we have always been published on the 18th of May, and that we have always been published on the 18th of May.

Kinston Items.

Eggs 13 cents a dozen.
Corn 90 cents per bushel.
Meal 80 cents per bushel.
Garden peas 25 cents a peck.
N. C. Hams 10 cents a pound.
Shoulders and Sides 14 cents.
Frying chickens 70 cents a pair.
Spring chickens 80 cents a pair.
Pine potatoes (new) 40 cents a peck.
Pines were cheerful and pleasant all day Sunday last.

West & Bond supply our market with some of the best quality of quarters.
No memorial celebration here this 10th of May. Patriotic fires are being burned.

Wm. L. Kennedy's strawberries, like General Hancock's "papers"—at 10 cents per quart.
Wm. B. Later, reported dangerously ill a few days ago, is now improving slowly.

Farmers are rejoicing over the good prospects of abundant crops of cotton, corn and wheat.

Mrs. Annie J. Pope, ex-Biddle, and her daughter, are visiting their relatives in Kinston.

The truck-chicken hawk, J. F. Stroud, and held in 55 cents a piece.

"The hell is the house of the thief," as young Gyroson Sutton said last week when he was caught for larceny.

The sale of the personal property of the late Gen. John Lee, took place to-day. The property sold very well.

The Duplin county Abolition, Mr. Maxwell, with his long, unburnt curls, was the street excitement last Friday.

Wm. C. Fields, Esq., is said to be the best miller in the county. He proposes to give the "Colman" lesson in the art of mill-making.

Carl E. B. Page, of Jones, was here last Wednesday, "making his figures" for the Republican Congressional honors in the South district.

The Register of Deeds issued one marriage license (col.) and registered 10 divorces, including the bonds and three land mortgages last week.

The corpse of the Mayor and Justices of the Peace are being attended at present. Humanity being otherwise well employed the Devil has but little for it to do.

The annual Commencement exercises of Kinston College will take place on the 18th of June next. Hon. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, delivers the annual address.

Hymantville is the name of a new town laid out and established by commissioners, H. H. Cummings, Zeb Reuben and Johnnie Parrott, near the county bridge below Kinston.

The colored societies and Sunday school children from New Berne, with some colored bands and brass bands, marched and paraded Kinston last Thursday.

Nathan Staley has bought the right of making and selling the Cox Cotton Planter—the best made for all the Southern States and North Carolina. "There's millions in it."

The times of chopping and picking out cotton are the halcyon days of the farm hand. He is in the master of the season and will have cash for his labor.

Hon. J. C. Scarborough, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is here to-day—Friday—looking after the interests of the public schools and the property of the State Board of Education.

Captain Wm. V. Carravay has appointed a staff for the late Governor for Congressmen at large. (If Greene county were entitled to the nomination, D. R. Walker ought to have it.—JOURNAL.)

Rev. Daniel Harding, of St. Mary's Church, Kinston, and Rev. Wm. C. Whitfield, delegate from the parish of the "Holy Innocents," left Monday to attend the Episcopal Convention at Raleigh.

Thomas Williams, formerly of this county, and now of Texas, and more recently of Baltimore, has taken the shape of J. B. Webb & Sons, on Queen street, and will continue their line of business.

Wm. Collins, F. C. Lopez, J. W. Glasgow, J. Q. Jackson and John R. Phillips have bought of J. Q. Johnston a lot near the Rail Road Depot which they intend to use as a site for a new building to be used as a park or place of public resort and amusement.

Joseph Kinsey's three months' term of the Kinston-Kennett township jail has just expired. He and his assistants have greatly raised the character and infused new life in the public schools of this township. He proposes to continue the school two weeks longer, his patrons paying him. Mr. Kinsey is a thorough and successful teacher.

New Berne Items.

New Irish potatoes are retailing at six cents per peck.
Eggs retail from the stands at 12 cents. Eleven cents is the price paid by wholesale.
Right Reverend Bishop Northrop will preach in St. Paul's Catholic Church in this city next Sunday.
We have received from Mr. Alex. Miller an extra fine strawberry, raised by Mr. Daniel Lape. It would have weighed at least an ounce.
The Trent brought in on Sunday morning a load of very fine lumber from J. C. Whitty's saw mill at Polkville. It is said that Mr. Whitty has an order for 300,000 feet from a firm in Philadelphia.

The Midland Co. will soon begin distributing steel rails for the purpose of laying three miles of track just above here. The old track will be removed. The new track will be used in patching the road where it needs it, and for side tracks.

Complaints are made by citizens from the Midland Railroad does not give sufficient notice in nearing the public road near the city. The whistle is said to be sounded only when very near the crossing, and travelers are often in danger of being run over.

Rev. S. H. Isler will preach at Seminary Church on the second Sunday in May, in the morning and at Polkville at night; at Richlands, Onslow county, on third Sunday in May, and at Brice's Creek Church on Sunday in May and will organize a Presbyterian Church at Brice's Creek Church, if the way is clear.

Cotton boomed a little at the Exchange yesterday. We note that the Exchange of these twenty-seven hours, brought down by the Continenta from Cyprus Creek, Jones county—fifteen for Mr. Isaac Brock and twelve for Mr. C. Gooding. They are both excellent farmers—make their own meal and bread—and their cotton classed middling, bringing 11 cents.

The Guildings.
Judge Seymour has rendered his decision in Goldbringa case, awarding the 100 acres in cotton, and worth $25,000 salvage.

Big Fish Catch.
Mr. G. J. received a telegram last evening from Beaufort informing him that his seines had caught during the day 6,000 blue fish and five barrels of mackerel.

First Shipment of Beans.
Mr. Carhart shipped by the New Berne, on Friday, two boxes of beans, the first of the season. They were raised by Mr. John Hanf, and sold to Mr. Carhart for four dollars per box.

First Shipment of Irish Potatoes.
The steamer New Berne carried out five barrels of Irish potatoes on Tuesday, the first shipment of the season. The potatoes were raised in every acre of a bale per acre is expected.

Lenoir Horse Stock.
Mr. E. Bryant is in the city with two Lenoire horses on his way, per Old Dominion line, to the Western race courses. He carries Maud McDonald, Joe Lassiter's celebrated trotter, Ruric and another named Greyhound. He has a fancy time with the Western Hoosiers. Maybe the Western boys will show him a thing or two in the business.

Good Trucking.
Alex Saunders, who, far from the Mill place near the city, has sold from four acres in garden peas this season 400 boxes, which he sells per net him a little over two dollars per box. The land will now be planted in cotton and a bale per acre is expected.

Weather keeps cool yet. Cotton looking bad on account of it.

Mr. Sol. Gornto is ahead in the turp. business. He has about 8 sets boxes in operation this season; also a fine farm in cultivation.

E. W. Foville has about 125 head of fine sheep of the Cotswold breed. A. F. Farnell has also a fine lot of sheep, some of which are the same breed.

A grand picnic will come off at R. G. Ward & D. L. Russell's on the south side of Bear Creek and Brown's creek, in a few days, and I will give you particulars next time. It will take place on the banks near what is known as Brown's field.

Mr. J. O. Frazzle is building a new house at his place, Pine Grove, and tearing up things generally. He says he has caught the last fox but two in his neighborhood and has concluded to get them as long as he can. He says he wants to break up the seed of "foxes" entirely.

Everything going on fine; has been very dry, but a refreshing rain fell last night and crops look nice and flourish. A. T. Farnell, Sr., says he will lead in cotton and corn here; and his son, A. T. Farnell, Jr., have good land, and are good farmers which is half the battle in making the state.

Mr. Livins Hancock is putting up a steam saw mill at the landing of Capt. Gornto on French's Creek, the mill will be ready for sawing in two weeks. We bespeak for Mr. Hancock a handsome profit in his enterprise, as he has a good neighborhood stands in great need of lumber at all times, and can get it only by sending to Wilmington at such times as they have a vessel to bring it. This is the first thing of the kind that has been here since the war.

Mr. Gornto has plenty of timber, and soon we shall hear the lumber of his steam saw and the hum of the saw right in our midst.

A grand picnic and banks party at Swanboro, and Brown Sound both same day, 6th May. At the former place there were some 200 people from all parts of the county. Had a splendid time and I guess there were some bargains made between the young folks.

Lock out for a half dozen villages and about as many weeks. Two vessel loads besides boats etc. went from Swanboro, Capt. W. Dennis and Capt. Robinson took the party about 125 persons; they spent the day in pleasant enjoyment. The party at Brown Sound was not so large but they enjoyed themselves equally.

Mr. George Allen sends us the following: Mr. A. Carr, of Aurora, Beaufort County, N. C., writes that he produced last year from sixty-two acres seventy-five bales of cotton weighing 33,847 pounds or five hundred and seventy-eight pounds per acre. The crop was made without the expenditure of one dollar for fertilizers, and it shows the valuable character of the lands in Eastern North Carolina. Such an average of fifty bales per acre, though plenty of the same kind can be purchased at one-tenth of that price.—N. C. Farmer.

Parulco Superior Court next week. Our agent, Mr. C. C. Taylor will attend and solicit subscriptions. We have 108 subscribers in Pamlico, and with the improvements made in the JOURNAL since its removal to New Berne, and its sale in a more liberal market, we confidently expect to double our list here before the fall.

New Berne Items.

New Irish potatoes are retailing at six cents per peck.
Eggs retail from the stands at 12 cents. Eleven cents is the price paid by wholesale.
Right Reverend Bishop Northrop will preach in St. Paul's Catholic Church in this city next Sunday.
We have received from Mr. Alex. Miller an extra fine strawberry, raised by Mr. Daniel Lape. It would have weighed at least an ounce.
The Trent brought in on Sunday morning a load of very fine lumber from J. C. Whitty's saw mill at Polkville. It is said that Mr. Whitty has an order for 300,000 feet from a firm in Philadelphia.

The Midland Co. will soon begin distributing steel rails for the purpose of laying three miles of track just above here. The old track will be removed. The new track will be used in patching the road where it needs it, and for side tracks.

Complaints are made by citizens from the Midland Railroad does not give sufficient notice in nearing the public road near the city. The whistle is said to be sounded only when very near the crossing, and travelers are often in danger of being run over.

Rev. S. H. Isler will preach at Seminary Church on the second Sunday in May, in the morning and at Polkville at night; at Richlands, Onslow county, on third Sunday in May, and at Brice's Creek Church on Sunday in May and will organize a Presbyterian Church at Brice's Creek Church, if the way is clear.

Cotton boomed a little at the Exchange yesterday. We note that the Exchange of these twenty-seven hours, brought down by the Continenta from Cyprus Creek, Jones county—fifteen for Mr. Isaac Brock and twelve for Mr. C. Gooding. They are both excellent farmers—make their own meal and bread—and their cotton classed middling, bringing 11 cents.

The Guildings.
Judge Seymour has rendered his decision in Goldbringa case, awarding the 100 acres in cotton, and worth $25,000 salvage.

Big Fish Catch.
Mr. G. J. received a telegram last evening from Beaufort informing him that his seines had caught during the day 6,000 blue fish and five barrels of mackerel.

First Shipment of Beans.
Mr. Carhart shipped by the New Berne, on Friday, two boxes of beans, the first of the season. They were raised by Mr. John Hanf, and sold to Mr. Carhart for four dollars per box.

First Shipment of Irish Potatoes.
The steamer New Berne carried out five barrels of Irish potatoes on Tuesday, the first shipment of the season. The potatoes were raised in every acre of a bale per acre is expected.

Lenoir Horse Stock.
Mr. E. Bryant is in the city with two Lenoire horses on his way, per Old Dominion line, to the Western race courses. He carries Maud McDonald, Joe Lassiter's celebrated trotter, Ruric and another named Greyhound. He has a fancy time with the Western Hoosiers. Maybe the Western boys will show him a thing or two in the business.

Good Trucking.
Alex Saunders, who, far from the Mill place near the city, has sold from four acres in garden peas this season 400 boxes, which he sells per net him a little over two dollars per box. The land will now be planted in cotton and a bale per acre is expected.

Weather keeps cool yet. Cotton looking bad on account of it.

Mr. Sol. Gornto is ahead in the turp. business. He has about 8 sets boxes in operation this season; also a fine farm in cultivation.

E. W. Foville has about 125 head of fine sheep of the Cotswold breed. A. F. Farnell has also a fine lot of sheep, some of which are the same breed.

A grand picnic will come off at R. G. Ward & D. L. Russell's on the south side of Bear Creek and Brown's creek, in a few days, and I will give you particulars next time. It will take place on the banks near what is known as Brown's field.

Mr. J. O. Frazzle is building a new house at his place, Pine Grove, and tearing up things generally. He says he has caught the last fox but two in his neighborhood and has concluded to get them as long as he can. He says he wants to break up the seed of "foxes" entirely.

Everything going on fine; has been very dry, but a refreshing rain fell last night and crops look nice and flourish. A. T. Farnell, Sr., says he will lead in cotton and corn here; and his son, A. T. Farnell, Jr., have good land, and are good farmers which is half the battle in making the state.

Mr. Livins Hancock is putting up a steam saw mill at the landing of Capt. Gornto on French's Creek, the mill will be ready for sawing in two weeks. We bespeak for Mr. Hancock a handsome profit in his enterprise, as he has a good neighborhood stands in great need of lumber at all times, and can get it only by sending to Wilmington at such times as they have a vessel to bring it. This is the first thing of the kind that has been here since the war.

Mr. Gornto has plenty of timber, and soon we shall hear the lumber of his steam saw and the hum of the saw right in our midst.

A grand picnic and banks party at Swanboro, and Brown Sound both same day, 6th May. At the former place there were some 200 people from all parts of the county. Had a splendid time and I guess there were some bargains made between the young folks.

Lock out for a half dozen villages and about as many weeks. Two vessel loads besides boats etc. went from Swanboro, Capt. W. Dennis and Capt. Robinson took the party about 125 persons; they spent the day in pleasant enjoyment. The party at Brown Sound was not so large but they enjoyed themselves equally.

Mr. George Allen sends us the following: Mr. A. Carr, of Aurora, Beaufort County, N. C., writes that he produced last year from sixty-two acres seventy-five bales of cotton weighing 33,847 pounds or five hundred and seventy-eight pounds per acre. The crop was made without the expenditure of one dollar for fertilizers, and it shows the valuable character of the lands in Eastern North Carolina. Such an average of fifty bales per acre, though plenty of the same kind can be purchased at one-tenth of that price.—N. C. Farmer.

Parulco Superior Court next week. Our agent, Mr. C. C. Taylor will attend and solicit subscriptions. We have 108 subscribers in Pamlico, and with the improvements made in the JOURNAL since its removal to New Berne, and its sale in a more liberal market, we confidently expect to double our list here before the fall.

Morehead City Items.

Morehead City Items.
Gen. Ransom is having some large scows built for the purpose of transporting stone to the North Carolina capital.
Our Mayor, Mr. J. J. Royal, arrived from some city yesterday, where he had spent the Spring in the buying and shipping of fish.
There were twenty-five barrels of mackerel shipped from here yesterday to Northern markets, looking for northern capital.

There are a series of meetings going on in the City Church here, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Puckett, who has been assisted by the Rev. Mr. Watkins of the Straits precinct, and the Rev. Mr. Utley, who has been here for some time. These meetings are for the purpose of holding the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion the 10th of June was appointed the time for holding the township meetings to send delegates, and for the purpose of holding the County Executive Committee, and the 15th of June the time for holding the County Convention at the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion it was resolved that if the chairman ascertains that there is no Township Executive Committee then he may appoint such a committee for the purpose of perfecting the plan of organization.

On motion the city papers are requested to publish the plan of the party organization.
M. D. W. STEVENSON, Chairman.
E. H. MEADOWS, Secretary pro tem.

Nag's Head.
In talking with Captain Southgate of the steamer New Berne, we learn that it is the intention of his company, after their next excursion, which will be very low for New Berne to Nag's Head, and the trip on his new steamer will be very delightful.

Will brother Creecy tell us something about Nag's Head? While we never expect to go back on Beaufort and Morehead City, yet if Nag's Head is very nice, and excursion rates are made there right, it would not be amiss for the JOURNAL readers to know all about it and to occasionally see something new in the country.

Dr. Slover's School.
The school opened on Tuesday last, under the supervision of Dr. George Slover. The Doctor preserves in the school room the same modest and gentlemanly demeanor that ever characterized him at every age, and which shines in every action of everyday life. The boys under his charge are in no fear of a tyrant, and yet keep their rate order, and stick to their studies.

Personal.
Rev. W. Shields returned from the Episcopal Convention yesterday.
Mr. A. J. Loftin, of Kinston was in the city on Tuesday on legal business.
Hon. C. C. Clark left for Washington City yesterday and will extend his trip to Boston.

Mr. Geo. Allen, wife and daughter, sailed on steamer New Berne yesterday for New York to spend a month.
Mr. H. Hall of New York, who is in the city today, has an extensive business in general merchandise and buying cotton.

R. W. King Esq., of Kinston, came down here on the morning of Tuesday for the nomination for Congress nor anything else.
Mr. R. H. Rountree of New York was in the city on Tuesday. He says he will be in the city at the end of the month. He changed the name to New Berne Journal. Can't accommodate him, and he must make out with the paper under its present name.

Mr. E. E. Erum from near Swift Creek was in the city Saturday, making preparation for a log-rolling; said preparations consisting of four gallons of "tanglefoot."
We are pleased to meet Mr. A. Mitchell of Kinston yesterday. He says he bluffed New Berne—trying to get up a bet on Joe Lassiter's horses.

The largest sheep owner of Craven County, was at the city yesterday. He says he will get rid of his sheep on account of the trouble he has with dogs, buzzards and owls. Would not a gentleman sell his sheep to a dog catcher?

Mr. Frank Myers, one of the largest cotton buyers of the city left yesterday on the New Berne for Norfolk. He will return for the fall cotton trade.

Capt. E. R. Page of Trenton is in the city. He was in the city yesterday. He is a democrat aspirant for nomination for Senator from Jones is legion. That every man who has recently bought a Chinaberry or a new horse certainly has his fever.

Mr. Matt Manly left for Raleigh yesterday evening. He goes to attend the funeral of Mayor Manly which is to be held to-day.

P. M. Pezarsell Esq. of Trenton took the train yesterday for Warsaw. He is going up to attend court at Kenansville next week.

Dr. J. C. Carteret, now in the city. He was in the city yesterday. He reports that the road in his section not increased but better maintained than usual.

Miss Jeanie Davis left for her home in Baltimore yesterday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jas. E. Nash of this city, whose many friends wish her a pleasant trip.

Capt. S. H. Gray and Mr. T. A. Green left on the steamer Defiance on Thursday night for Baltimore, to make arrangements about purchasing the steamer for the New Berne and Pamlico Transportation Company.

Messrs. H. R. Bryan and Clement Manly went up to Goldboro yesterday evening to argue a case of injunction before Judge Gilmer which ex-sheriff Worley is plaintiff and the Commission-ers are defendants.

Morehead City Items.
Our Mayor, Mr. J. J. Royal, arrived from some city yesterday, where he had spent the Spring in the buying and shipping of fish.

There are a series of meetings going on in the City Church here, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Puckett, who has been assisted by the Rev. Mr. Watkins of the Straits precinct, and the Rev. Mr. Utley, who has been here for some time. These meetings are for the purpose of holding the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion the 10th of June was appointed the time for holding the township meetings to send delegates, and for the purpose of holding the County Executive Committee, and the 15th of June the time for holding the County Convention at the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion it was resolved that if the chairman ascertains that there is no Township Executive Committee then he may appoint such a committee for the purpose of perfecting the plan of organization.

On motion the city papers are requested to publish the plan of the party organization.
M. D. W. STEVENSON, Chairman.
E. H. MEADOWS, Secretary pro tem.

Nag's Head.
In talking with Captain Southgate of the steamer New Berne, we learn that it is the intention of his company, after their next excursion, which will be very low for New Berne to Nag's Head, and the trip on his new steamer will be very delightful.

Will brother Creecy tell us something about Nag's Head? While we never expect to go back on Beaufort and Morehead City, yet if Nag's Head is very nice, and excursion rates are made there right, it would not be amiss for the JOURNAL readers to know all about it and to occasionally see something new in the country.

Morehead City Items.

Morehead City Items.
Gen. Ransom is having some large scows built for the purpose of transporting stone to the North Carolina capital.
Our Mayor, Mr. J. J. Royal, arrived from some city yesterday, where he had spent the Spring in the buying and shipping of fish.
There were twenty-five barrels of mackerel shipped from here yesterday to Northern markets, looking for northern capital.

There are a series of meetings going on in the City Church here, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Puckett, who has been assisted by the Rev. Mr. Watkins of the Straits precinct, and the Rev. Mr. Utley, who has been here for some time. These meetings are for the purpose of holding the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion the 10th of June was appointed the time for holding the township meetings to send delegates, and for the purpose of holding the County Executive Committee, and the 15th of June the time for holding the County Convention at the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion it was resolved that if the chairman ascertains that there is no Township Executive Committee then he may appoint such a committee for the purpose of perfecting the plan of organization.

On motion the city papers are requested to publish the plan of the party organization.
M. D. W. STEVENSON, Chairman.
E. H. MEADOWS, Secretary pro tem.

Nag's Head.
In talking with Captain Southgate of the steamer New Berne, we learn that it is the intention of his company, after their next excursion, which will be very low for New Berne to Nag's Head, and the trip on his new steamer will be very delightful.

Will brother Creecy tell us something about Nag's Head? While we never expect to go back on Beaufort and Morehead City, yet if Nag's Head is very nice, and excursion rates are made there right, it would not be amiss for the JOURNAL readers to know all about it and to occasionally see something new in the country.

Dr. Slover's School.
The school opened on Tuesday last, under the supervision of Dr. George Slover. The Doctor preserves in the school room the same modest and gentlemanly demeanor that ever characterized him at every age, and which shines in every action of everyday life. The boys under his charge are in no fear of a tyrant, and yet keep their rate order, and stick to their studies.

Personal.
Rev. W. Shields returned from the Episcopal Convention yesterday.
Mr. A. J. Loftin, of Kinston was in the city on Tuesday on legal business.
Hon. C. C. Clark left for Washington City yesterday and will extend his trip to Boston.

Mr. Geo. Allen, wife and daughter, sailed on steamer New Berne yesterday for New York to spend a month.
Mr. H. Hall of New York, who is in the city today, has an extensive business in general merchandise and buying cotton.

R. W. King Esq., of Kinston, came down here on the morning of Tuesday for the nomination for Congress nor anything else.
Mr. R. H. Rountree of New York was in the city on Tuesday. He says he will be in the city at the end of the month. He changed the name to New Berne Journal. Can't accommodate him, and he must make out with the paper under its present name.

Mr. E. E. Erum from near Swift Creek was in the city Saturday, making preparation for a log-rolling; said preparations consisting of four gallons of "tanglefoot."
We are pleased to meet Mr. A. Mitchell of Kinston yesterday. He says he bluffed New Berne—trying to get up a bet on Joe Lassiter's horses.

The largest sheep owner of Craven County, was at the city yesterday. He says he will get rid of his sheep on account of the trouble he has with dogs, buzzards and owls. Would not a gentleman sell his sheep to a dog catcher?

Mr. Frank Myers, one of the largest cotton buyers of the city left yesterday on the New Berne for Norfolk. He will return for the fall cotton trade.

Capt. E. R. Page of Trenton is in the city. He was in the city yesterday. He is a democrat aspirant for nomination for Senator from Jones is legion. That every man who has recently bought a Chinaberry or a new horse certainly has his fever.

Mr. Matt Manly left for Raleigh yesterday evening. He goes to attend the funeral of Mayor Manly which is to be held to-day.

P. M. Pezarsell Esq. of Trenton took the train yesterday for Warsaw. He is going up to attend court at Kenansville next week.

Dr. J. C. Carteret, now in the city. He was in the city yesterday. He reports that the road in his section not increased but better maintained than usual.

Miss Jeanie Davis left for her home in Baltimore yesterday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jas. E. Nash of this city, whose many friends wish her a pleasant trip.

Capt. S. H. Gray and Mr. T. A. Green left on the steamer Defiance on Thursday night for Baltimore, to make arrangements about purchasing the steamer for the New Berne and Pamlico Transportation Company.

Messrs. H. R. Bryan and Clement Manly went up to Goldboro yesterday evening to argue a case of injunction before Judge Gilmer which ex-sheriff Worley is plaintiff and the Commission-ers are defendants.

Morehead City Items.
Our Mayor, Mr. J. J. Royal, arrived from some city yesterday, where he had spent the Spring in the buying and shipping of fish.

There are a series of meetings going on in the City Church here, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Puckett, who has been assisted by the Rev. Mr. Watkins of the Straits precinct, and the Rev. Mr. Utley, who has been here for some time. These meetings are for the purpose of holding the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion the 10th of June was appointed the time for holding the township meetings to send delegates, and for the purpose of holding the County Executive Committee, and the 15th of June the time for holding the County Convention at the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion it was resolved that if the chairman ascertains that there is no Township Executive Committee then he may appoint such a committee for the purpose of perfecting the plan of organization.

On motion the city papers are requested to publish the plan of the party organization.
M. D. W. STEVENSON, Chairman.
E. H. MEADOWS, Secretary pro tem.

Nag's Head.
In talking with Captain Southgate of the steamer New Berne, we learn that it is the intention of his company, after their next excursion, which will be very low for New Berne to Nag's Head, and the trip on his new steamer will be very delightful.

Will brother Creecy tell us something about Nag's Head? While we never expect to go back on Beaufort and Morehead City, yet if Nag's Head is very nice, and excursion rates are made there right, it would not be amiss for the JOURNAL readers to know all about it and to occasionally see something new in the country.

Morehead City Items.

Morehead City Items.
Gen. Ransom is having some large scows built for the purpose of transporting stone to the North Carolina capital.
Our Mayor, Mr. J. J. Royal, arrived from some city yesterday, where he had spent the Spring in the buying and shipping of fish.
There were twenty-five barrels of mackerel shipped from here yesterday to Northern markets, looking for northern capital.

There are a series of meetings going on in the City Church here, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Puckett, who has been assisted by the Rev. Mr. Watkins of the Straits precinct, and the Rev. Mr. Utley, who has been here for some time. These meetings are for the purpose of holding the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion the 10th of June was appointed the time for holding the township meetings to send delegates, and for the purpose of holding the County Executive Committee, and the 15th of June the time for holding the County Convention at the Court House in New Berne at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion it was resolved that if the chairman ascertains that there is no Township Executive Committee then he may appoint such a committee for the purpose of perfecting the plan of organization.

On motion the city papers are requested to publish the plan of the party organization.
M. D. W. STEVENSON, Chairman.
E. H. MEADOWS, Secretary pro tem.

Nag's Head.
In talking with Captain Southgate of the steamer New Berne, we learn that it is the intention of his company, after their next excursion, which will be very low for New Berne to Nag's Head, and the trip on his new steamer will be very delightful.

Will brother Creecy tell us something about Nag's Head? While we never expect to go back on Beaufort and Morehead City, yet if Nag's Head is very nice, and excursion rates are made there right, it would not be amiss for the JOURNAL readers to know all about it and to occasionally see something new in the country.

Dr. Slover's School.
The