WORK IN THE SENATE AND IN THE HOUSE-THE EADS' SHIP RAILWAY BILL-MR. CONKLING AND THE CABI-NET-GUITEAU WILL BE HANGED.

[From our regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, May 16, 1882. This being the third Monday of the month, the session of the House was devoted to action upon motions to suspend the rules for the passage of bills. The bill to extend the charters of the National Banks will be taken up again to-morrow, and an effort will be made to reach a final vote. It is not probable, however, that this bill will be passed before Thursday, owing to the large num- W. H. Kitchen's name for Congressman
