MR. HOBBS ANSWERS QUESTIONS ASKED BY MR. J. C. BARDEN

Says His Efforts For Butler and As Independent Was Endorsed by Democrats

NEVER VOTED AGAINST ANY DEMOCRAT ANY TIME

To the Editor of The News: On returning home today I found a statement from Mr. J. C. Barden, dated May the 27th, in which he wants to know if I am a Democrat, and asks me five pointed questions, to wit:

(1) Is it true that you managed the campaign of Marion Butler when he was seeking appointment to President Harding's cabinet?

(2) Is it true that you did not vote for President Wilson in 1912, and opposed President Wilson's League of Nations?

(3) Is it true that you now take the position that the League of Nations is impractical?

(4) Is it or is it not true that you voted against the Democratic nominees a few years ago, and ran as an independent candidate for office?

(5) Is it true that you have never voted against Democratic nominees for any office whatsoever at any time?

(6) Is it true that you have never voted against the Democratic nominees for any office whatsoever at any time?

(7) Is it true that you have never voted against the Democratic nominees for any office whatsoever at any time?

(8) Is it true that you have never voted against the Democratic nominees for any office whatsoever at any time?

(9) Is it true that you have never voted against the Democratic nominees for any office whatsoever at any time?

(10) Is it true that you have never voted against the Democratic nominees for any office whatsoever at any time?
