Returns Coming In With Unusual Slowness but Nothing to Indicate Change in Yesterday's Forecast that Abernethy and Allen Will Be In Second Primary.

Smattering additional returns which were made known here yesterday indicated but slight change in the Wayne county Con-gressional vote while such additional returns as came from other counties in the district indicated slight gains for Major Matt H. Allen. It will take the official count to clear up state, congres-

Allen. It will take the orielar count to clear up state, count is sional, and county contests. As for the county ticket, there was, in the fragmentary reports that reached circulation yesterday, cumulative evidence that Clerk of the Court J. B. Hooks had been nominated in the first primary. Such additional county returns as were first available yesterday indicated that R. P. Uzzell would win out in the legisative contest over Thomas I. Sutton.

yesterday indicated that K. P. Ozzell would win out in the legis-lative contest over Thomas I. Suiton. There was also an increasing indication throughout the day that Miss Mamie Johnson would enter a second primary for the nomination as register of deeds with Register Grantham, her vote in Fork township, her home precinct, being nearly double the vote of any opponent. Late Raleigh Reports. Further returns to the News and Observer yesterday from the State indicated that the Lee majority, on the basis of incomplete returns from sixty counties, would be less than 5,000. This re-port was also accompanied by the statement that the claims of the Lee managers had been cut to 17,000 with an estimated vote in the State of 150,000.
