Viciousness in the Tariff Schedule

WASHINGTON, June 28 .- Discussing the agricultural schedule generally, Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, said the schedule was "a transparent attempt to mislead the farmer to vicious end-to the end that he may be induced to forego his opposition and resistance to the excessive rates it is proposed to deal out the manufacturers of this country." FA great propaganda has been conducted among the farmers by high tariff organizations in the east," Senator Simmons continued, "in the hope of educating the farmers into the idea that he can be benefited through the tarff as the manufacturer has been benefitted; that he can become enomously rich as many manufacturers have be-

Recalling that Congress had written "unprecedentedly, high rates on farm products in the emergency tariff bill, Senator Simmons said there was less justification for the duties proposed by the committee than there was for these in the emergency act.
