

Witherington Heads Mount Olive Business Men's Club

Barbecue and Election of Officers Feature Monthly Meeting; Hot Weather Driving Mount Olive Folks to White Lake; News and Personals of Thriving Community

By Mary Sutherland Steele.

MOUNT OLIVE, July 19.—That wide awake organization in Mount Olive, known as the Business Men's Club, had its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the Vernon place, the home of good barbecue, "way down in Duplin. There is nothing like a young roasted pig and hot corn bread to pep up things, that is in these days of prohibition. Barbecue somehow instills good fellowship and laughter, an elixir on the back. It is a tonic for jaded appetites and worn nerves.

Dinner was served under the huge oaks, and the success of this dinner was largely due to the efforts of the entertainment committee, Dr. G. F. Herring, Mr. M. C. Cherry and Mr. Preston Martin. This committee can't be beaten. All the Business Men of Mount Olive knew it before, but they were assured of it yesterday. It will not be so easy for them to resign after this.

At the meeting which should have been held here the dinner, whether it was or not, the following officers were elected for the next six months: I. F. Witherington, President; O. H. Knowler, Vice president; and A. W. Byrd, Secretary and Treasurer.

This is an organization that will mesh with Mount Olive in the years to come. It has new blood, new pep, new ideas, and it is destined to be a big factor in the political, social and economic life of our city.

Social Events of the Week.

Most of the social events of the week by rights belong to a Faison column, but if Mount Olive and Faison continue to grow as they are at present, they will soon be one, perhaps before the highway is finished. At any rate Faison is prominent. It is shown by the fact that yesterday in two hours five automobiles were traded or sold in this thriving village.

Miss Rachel Witherington of Faison has as her guest, Miss Martha Fairley of Laurinburg. Miss Fairley is a popular woman where she visits. She was guest of honor yesterday afternoon at swimming party and picnic. The guest swam for an hour or two in the Bowden pond, and then returned to Faison where a delightful supper was served under the oaks in the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Williams. After the picnic every game they could remember was played. There were flappers, fin ale hoppers, and grandmothers, and a little girl who in a pink dress with duck embroidered on it in black recited a poem about the Owls, and her rosy little eyes looked as wise as those of the old bird himself.

Among those who motored down from Mount Olive were Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Witherington, Misses Frances Cherry, Eliza Beth Breesale, Mary Steele, and Messrs. James Lee, and Robert Wooten.

Plenty of Sunlight.

Down near Croys' Bridge, on this side, there is a little school building.

for any community. It is very small, not having over three rooms at the most, but the whole front is made of glass letting in all the sunlight and fresh air that an open porch would. It is built and planned so that the sun falls even on the left shoulders of the little blocks and it is the morning sun that peeps in on them.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Williams of Faison entertained at a delightful dinner party Monday evening in honor of Miss Virginia and Annie Borden of Goldsboro, her houseguests, and Miss Fairley, the guest of her niece, Miss Witherington.

Covers were laid for twelve. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Faison, Misses Rachel Witherington, Virginia and Annie Borden, Eugenia Fairley, and Messrs. John Faison, Jimmy Carrol and guest from Dunn.

Exodus of Mt. Olivettes.

There is an exodus of Mount Olivettes. This weather, and the children's desire for water, and plenty of it, with white sand has caused them to rent a cottage down at White Lake. It will be one huge houseparty from beginning to end. It is composed of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. S. Cherry and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Summerlin and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Watson, Dr. and Mrs. Edis Tatum, Mrs. F. R. Minis, and Fred, Mrs. G. N. Hughes with Peggy, Julius, and guest J. P. all from Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pickett, Miss Aaron, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter McQueen and family of White Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knowles left for colored children that is a mode Monday night for New York City. They will spend a week there enjoying everything that the metropolis offers in summer.

Mrs. A. D. Hicks of Faison arrived here this morning on her way from Montreal where she has been spending two weeks.

"HOW MANY MILES CAN I MAKE ON A GALLON OF GAS?"

SOMETHING EVERY MOTORIST WANT TO KNOW!

It isn't the quality of the gas so much as it is the condition of your car. The best gas in the world cannot produce satisfactory mileage from a car that is not properly adjusted.

OUR business is to keep your car in that smooth running condition that produces the maximum amount of mileage per gallon. Only a thorough knowledge of cars and expert workmanship can do this.

Our customers never complain.
