

DETAILS OF THE FINAL COUNT

Campaign ends at 10 p. m. Saturday, August 19

In order to maintain the strictest secrecy as to the number of subscriptions and the amount of collections turned in by each candidate during this, the last period of The Goldsboro News' Big Automobile and Prize Campaign, the race will be brought to a close under a sealed ballot box. The last count of votes by the campaign manager was made Monday night, August 14th and appears in this morning's paper. From now on until the close the standings will not be changed.

No subscription collections will be accepted through the Campaign Department this week, but instead, candidates will themselves deposit their final collections in the sealed ballot box—located in the Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of this city. By so doing no one, not even the Campaign Manager, nor the publisher can possibly know the voting strength of the different candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest detail. Locked and sealed, the ballot box was placed in the vaults of the Peoples Bank and Trust Co. Tuesday morning, and it will remain there until the campaign ends and the count of votes is made by the committee of judges.

The campaign will end at 10:00 p. m. Saturday night, August 19th and the count of votes to decide the winners of the different prizes will be made immediately after the closing hour.

When the final hour for the count arrives, the judges will break the seals on the ballot box, and immediately thereafter, or as soon as votes can be issued on the subscriptions contained therein, the last count of votes will be made and the winners decided. The winners will be determined by merely adding the published vote totals, which will appear for the last time in Today's issue, to the reserve votes and those contained in the ballot box. There will be no waiting, no complicated count, but simply a matter of adding the vote totals and announcing the winners. It is calculated that it will require some time, however, to canvass the findings in the box and to determine the winners. The official result will be published in The News, Sunday, August 20th.

Important Notice

No personal Checks of any kind will be accepted in the Sealed Ballot Box. If any are deposited in the box, they will be thrown out and no votes issued. Only Currency, Gold and Silver, Money Orders, Express Orders, Cashier's Checks and Certified Checks will be accepted.

Candidates will during this last week of the campaign have all checks made out to them personally and cash same and deposit the money in the box. This ruling is made in fairness to all candidates in the race and will be strictly adhered to.

The Judges

MR. JAMES KYLE

Cashier Peoples Bank and Trust Co.

MR. FRANK K. BORDEN

President Wayne National Bank

MAYOR EDGAR H. BAIN

Final Fateful Hour

With the final hour, 10 o'clock Saturday night, emblazoned on their minds, stirring scenes are being enacted by candidates in The Goldsboro News' Great Automobile and Prize Campaign, now swiftly drawing to a close.

Aroused to unprecedented opportunities of winning the Studebaker Special "6" or one of the Two Ford Touring Cars and many other big prizes, each passing hour is instilling new energy into ambitious workers. Everywhere they are swarming in eager and anxious quest for subscriptions that will win them the big votes—and in the end an automobile.

These workers pay no attention to frequent rumors that circulate with the hope of damaging effect. Misleading stories have one object—influencing some candidate to retire for fear of being passed by someone else in the race. Such tales have no foundation whatever. It is obvious that no one can determine the ultimate result of the campaign.

Courage and downright hustle are the two main things to observe. Votes are the only things that will win the prize, and every candidate should—and, for that matter, is—taking upon himself and herself to annex just as many votes as possible between now and the close.
