

NEWS OF THE CITY

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FEDERATION

The Federation of Christian Young People will meet at the Christian church at 3:30 o'clock, and will go from there to Daniel's Chapel for service. The Federation meets again Thursday night at the First Baptist church at 8:00 o'clock.

SUMMERLIN ADVERTISING IN THE NEWS

M. O. Summerlin, Ford and Fordson dealer for lower Wayne and upper Duplin counties, is among those entering the columns of The News to reach the large number of subscribers recently added from the Mt. Olive section to the News' list. His first advertisement appears in this issue.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETING

Get in the game and come to the Epworth League meeting at St. John's M. E. Church tomorrow night at 8:00 o'clock. "The Joy Makers" will be presented. Don't Miss It!

CURIO IDEAS

Marriage license were issued yesterday to J. P. Taylor of Broadway and Miss Nancy Ross of this city. So far this month and particularly this week cupid has been very idle. Miss Ross and Mr. Taylor are one of the few couples filing their application. These are other applications but they run primarily among colored applicants.

CONVENTION HERE ON OCTOBER THIRD

The N. C. Association for the prevention of tuberculosis will meet here October 3, it was stated last night by Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, president of the local association, following a conference yesterday with Dr. L. B. McBrayer, of the Monroe Sanatorium. He was here to make preliminary arrangements. At the same time, it is one of the arrangements were not completed and will be announced later, it was stated. Dr. McBrayer will leave tomorrow.

PLENTY GREEN CABBAGE HERE

There are a lot of the best quality of fresh green cabbage on the local market, but the tomatoes and peaches are playing out rapidly, while the shortage of fresh country eggs continues.

USE OF STORAGE EGGS

Use of storage eggs in many cases. Green peas are another vegetable that is getting scarce. The market on hand, frills, and shoulders remains about the same. Very little fluctuation in price has been noticed all the week.

REV. T. B. DAVIS AT FIRST BAPTIST

Rev. T. B. Davis and the children from the Kennedy Home failed to get here last Sunday as expected, having had a breakdown on the road, but they will be here tomorrow, Mr. Davis to preach, and the children to render some special music at the morning service at the First Baptist church. Col. John D. Langston will fill the pulpit at the evening service.

MANY CROP LIENS IN WAYNE COUNTY

One thousand and two hundred farmers in this county have given crop liens on this year's crop, it was stated yesterday by M. B. Glover, field representative of Warehouse Manager B. F. Brown.

These liens he mentioned are all on this year's cotton crop, and he stated that one of the main purposes of the co-operative marketing proposition is to do away with the crop lien. Contracts are being connected to merchants holding crop liens that when signed will permit the farmers who have given liens on their crops to sell through the co-operators.

ARE BEING CONNECTED TO MERCHANTS

CONTINUE CASE OF FESTUS WATSON

The case of Festus Watson, charged with brutally treating Luther Peab, age 9, has been continued until next Saturday's session of the juvenile court. The youth was placed in charge of Watson by the Welfare department. At present he is with his older brother Elijah Peab, age 14, who is in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Burke Brown of the Mt. Carmel school district.

AUSTRALIA IS FOR PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—Australia's Davis cup tennis team will be America's opponent in the challenge rounds for the international court trophy at Forest Hills, New York, September 1, 2, 3, and 4, it having defeated the Spanish combination here today on the court of the Germantown cricket club.

Instead of being directly connected to its motor, a new electric ventilating fan is driven through a belt by a smaller, high speed motor.

SAVE HAY

While the sun shines is the old saying.

SAVE HAY

While the Boll Weevil eats cotton is the saying of today.

The Boll Weevil might destroy your cotton but will not destroy your Hay. So it will pay you to save all the Hay you can.
