

May Be the Vice President's Mansion

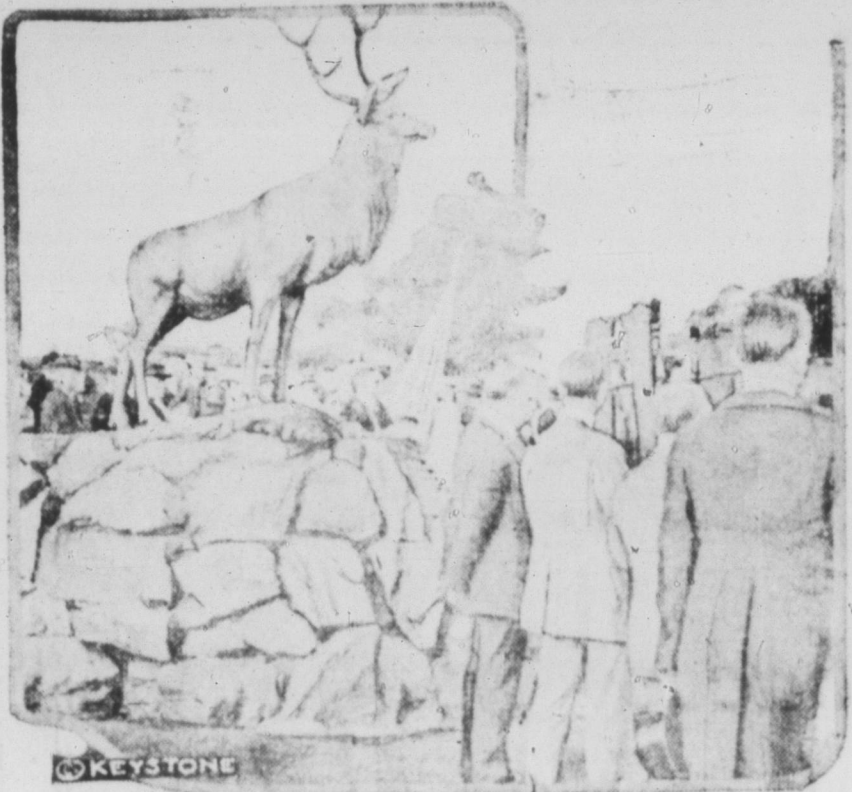

At last the vice president of the United States may have an official home in the capital. According to rumors, this building, nearing completion at Sixteenth and Fuller streets, is to be the official mansion for the vice president. The architects have designed the interiors so that they might be used for state occasions and the completed building will be modeled after an Italian villa. Mrs. Calvin Coolidge is said to have already inspected the house and passed favorably upon it.

NEPTUNE GREETED BY BEAUTIES AS HE STEPS ASHORE

Sovereign of Atlantic City's Pageant Opens His Court With Brilliant Ceremony

LANDING PRECEDED BY TRIUMPHAL SEA PARADE

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 8.—Atlantic City paid homage to its liege lord this afternoon when King Neptune, armed with trident and hoary whiskers, accompanied by his nineteen beautiful sea nymphs, set foot on the sands of the resort and at once took up his three days' sway as sovereign of the Atlantic City pageant.

The arrival of the sea king, impersonated by Hudson Maxim, the inventor, took place at the inlet to the accompaniment of whistles and cheers of thousands of spectators about the wharf of the yacht club. As Neptune stepped ashore a half score airplanes released hundreds of blue and white flags. Gathered on the wharf to greet him were the fifty-seven young women representing as many cities who are contestants for the premier beauty honors of the country which is to be decided Friday evening. "Miss New York" in the person of Miss Dorothy Hughes, as well as "Miss South Beach," Miss Mary Hlavka; "Miss Brighton Beach," Miss Ruth Andren, and "Miss Long Beach," Miss Lillian Barnack, were among the assembled beauties to welcome the sovereign.

Miss Margaret Gorman, of Washington, who captured the beauty honors last year as "Miss America," presented to King Neptune the key of the city, in a pretty ceremony, during which twelve little girls, representing the months of the year, threw flowers among their pathway. "Miss America" will reign with King Neptune until Friday evening when her successor will be chosen by the jury of well-known artists.

Previous to the landing of Neptune there was a triumphal procession in which the Atlantic City fleet took part along the shores of the resort. The royal barge with Neptune and his court of beauty was followed by other yachts bearing the distinguished guests of the city while overhead aircraft showered down flowers.

This evening the beauties were formally presented to Neptune, who occupied a throne in the Garden Pier Theatre, as each young woman came forward she was greeted by applause from her admirers from her "home town." Following the presentation of the beauty contestants, there was a vaudeville entertainment and dance on the pier.

Later in the evening a formal reception was held at the Ritz Carlton Hotel where each of the fifty-seven beauties shook hands with several thousand visitors and well wishers.

During the morning athletic contests were held, which included golf tournaments at the Northfield and Linwood Country Clubs, an automobile run from Camden to this city, yacht races, soccer games and tennis matches with kite flying contests for the boys and girls.

Interest tomorrow centres in the rolling chair parade, which is to be the principal feature. Some 500 chairs, decorated in every conceivable fashion, have been entered. At night, in addition to dances and special entertainments on the piers, there is to be a fireworks display.

SHELBY WOMAN IS SHOT SERIOUSLY BY PROHIBITION AGENT

Cleveland Capital Is Stirred By Halting of Private Car on Highway

CAR FIRED ON AFTER NO WHISKEY FOUND

SHELBY, Sept. 8.—Mrs. I. D. Miller, of Caroline, is in a serious condition, probably fatally injured, at the Rutherford hospital suffering from the effects of two bullet wounds, and Prohibition Enforcement Officer Evan Houser, Deputy John Watson and Pearly Hoyt, and Carl Short, the last named the driver of the officer's car, are held under $500 bond as the result of an attempted search of an automobile near Casar, this county, Wednesday night about 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Miller, her husband and small daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Thompson and child, all of Caroline, are reported to have been stopped near Casar by the officers who thought the car contained whisky. The machine was halted but, according to Officer Houser's statement when Houser stepped on the running board of the car the machine was quickly thrown in gear and moved off at a rapid rate of speed. Some one shot, Houser states he does not know who it was. Mrs. Miller was hit in the back, the bullet taking effect in the liver.

Shot Second Time. Thompson, who was driving the car, states that Miller told him to get to the Rutherford hospital as quickly as possible. In passing through Casar at a rapid rate of speed, a car, on the running board of which he, Short, was standing, was sideswiped and Short was badly hurt. The officers at Casar telephoned ahead of the fleeing machine and it was intercepted at Lattimore. In a chase there participated in, according to the advice received here by Deputy Ben Cooper and Policeman Cooper, another shot was fired by officers, Mrs. Miller again being the victim, this bullet entering the back of her neck.

let entering the back of her neck. After the car stopped at Lattimore, Mrs. Miller was taken to Rutherford, where she was placed in the hospital. The officers who were at Casar declare Mrs. Thompson threw several fruit jar containers of whisky from the car after officers had stopped the machine. Thompson said that there was no whisky in the car. He is held, however, under $200 bond charged with transporting whisky.

No Whisky in Car. Mr. Miller, who arrived in Shelby from Rutherford late this afternoon stated that there was no whisky in the car, that the machine was stopped by Mr. Thompson on the demand of the officers and that the car and the men were searched, all this being done display of a search warrant by the officers. He stated that not until the search had been made was the car started and the shots were fired. He thinks that as many as 15 shots were fired.

At the preliminary hearing this afternoon at which a continuance was allowed, the attorney for the officers when asked if the officers were armed with a search warrant, refused to answer the question.

Shelby has been stirred more by the incident than by anything which has happened in the county within many years, much indignation being expressed over the actions of the officers.

ALF AND BOB TAYLOR, POLITICAL ENEMIES, DEVOTED BROTHERS

(Continued from Page One.) wore a red rose and Bob a white. "They were more white than red roses in Tennessee" and Bob was elected. He afterward went to the United States senate, as is well known. Alf originally practiced law and farmed, but really followed politics and ran for Congress two or three times. The two looked together and played their fiddles and made much money. Bob Taylor the younger died and the country heard little of Alf. Both men of ability, their real worth was obscured in the eyes of the country by the intricateness of their fiddles and their campaign methods, but not so in Tennessee, where both were always beloved. Alf Taylor came back in 1920 and received his reward at the hands of his own and his brother's friends.

On the night of the election Governor Taylor paid little attention to the election news as it came in. But suddenly he asked his secretary, "Have you heard from Tiger Creek and Limestone Cove?" These were their old stamping grounds.

The secretary finished up the telegrams and read: "Limestone Cove gives unanimous vote for Alf Taylor. First vote was cast by a woman one
