

British Mobilizing, Repel Kemalist Attack

PREPARING TO DEAL TREMENDOUS BLOWS BY LAND, SEA AND AIR

Allied Meeting, However, Insists There Will Be No War in Near East

INVITE JAPAN TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 20.—The British are mobilizing every available warship, man, horse, automobile, cannon and rifle within reach of the troubled zone. They are preparing to deal a tremendous blow by land, sea and air if provoked by the Kemalist army, which, according to the latest reports, is concentrating feverishly around Ismad and Bhenak.

War Certain If—

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 20.—Hammie Baye, the Turkish Nationalist representative here, informed the Associated Press correspondent today that it was certain the Turkish army would declare war on the British if the British attempted to interfere with any movement of Turkish troops across the Straits to Thrace.

No Near East War

PARIS, Sept. 20.—Definite assurance that "there will be no war in the Near East" and the calling of a peace conference for the settlement of the Turkish problem were the chief results of the allied meeting this afternoon.

Premier Poincaré, Lord Curzon and Count Fforza were the participants in the conference. The eight interested powers, including the Angora government, will gather around the peace table within three weeks, probably at Rome or Venice, and make a new treaty with Turkey to take the place of the Servres treaty.

Eight Called Together

The eight nations called together are Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, Turkey, Greece, Roumania and Jugo Slavia. Japan's inclusion at the last minute came as a surprise. It was due to Lord Curzon's insistence. The British foreign secretary told Premier Poincaré that his government frankly feared the close association it had reason to believe existed between Moscow and Angora and Japan's presence was desired to offset this Bolshevik influence. It was also explained that Japan was a signatory of the treaty of Servres which is to be abandoned for the new agreement and was entitled to be present for that reason.

Another Vote for England

It is remarked in French circles, however, that the participation of Japan insures another vote for British policy in any issue which may arise in the conference. M. Poincaré in consenting to the presence of Japan demanded also the presence of Roumania and Jugo Slavia.

While the United States was not included among the eight countries to participate it is regarded as certain that a mere intimation from the American Government that it desires to attend even as an observer will be followed by an instant invitation from the allies.

Two Big Farmers Enjoined From Breaking Contracts

Judge Lyon Issues Restraining Orders Against Z. A. Harnell, of MacClesfield and W. T. Jones, of Nashville, Who Will Also Be Sued For Damages

RALEIGH, Sept. 20.—The tobacco growers' cooperative association started legal action to protect the contracts of 80,000 loyal members today when it obtained restraining orders against Z. A. Harnell of Edgecombe county and W. T. Jones of Nash county, to prevent these alleged contract-breakers from delivering any more of their tobacco outside of the association. Judge C. C.

Lyon, holding court in the 4th judicial district, issued the restraining order which was forwarded to Nashville today and will be served without delay upon the defendants in this first case of the tobacco cooperative.

Z. A. Harnell, of MacClesfield, who signed up 23,000 pounds of tobacco with the big cooperatives and W. T. Jones of Nashville who signed up over 10,000 pounds are alleged in the complaint of the association to have sold 5,000 pounds a piece outside of the association in violation of the contract. Both parties are alleged to have stated they would not deliver any of their tobacco to the association, and papers will be forwarded them notifying the defendants to appear before Judge F. A. Daniels of the second judicial district of Nashville, on Monday, October 9, to show cause why the injunction should not be granted until the final hearing of the case.

Will Ask for Damages.

The summons filed in these first suits of the tobacco cooperative call for liquidated damages of five cents a pound for all tobacco sold outside of the association as provided in its contract with all members, also for attorneys fees of $350 in each case.

The association has instituted a similar suit against F. W. Fairley of Kings-tree, S. C., and has obtained a restraining order to prevent further deliveries of his tobacco, according to F. L. Wilcox, attorney for the association in South Carolina.

The cases in which the tobacco cooperative takes action today will be followed up by suits against other contract breakers and those inducing members of the association to break their contracts, according to Aaron Sapiro, attorney for the association, who told 5,000 farmers attending the recent mass meeting of tobacco growers in Danville and South Hill, Va., that 80 suits were being prepared to protect the interests of the thousands of loyal members of the association who have organized to perfect their system of marketing tobacco in the states.

Bankers Are Pleaded.

The bankers of Florence, S. C., after six weeks of cooperative marketing registered today at headquarters of the tobacco growers' cooperative association at Raleigh by M. O. Wilson, secretary.

"The tobacco growers cooperative association in South Carolina is a splendid success. The city of Florence, including banks and business houses, is 100 per cent cooperative. We feel that we have doubled the price of our entire South Carolina tobacco crop the first year of its operation. Our sales committee is meeting with wonderful success in selling tobacco at satisfactory prices. Even the non-signers are giving the association credit for the increase in price. Every one appreciates the orderly manner of marketing against the old dumping system. When the doors are open again for signers we expect to see our membership increased to nearly 100 per cent. We consider the movement the financial salvation of the South Carolina tobacco farmer." Commercial and Savings Bank by Frank Brand, President, First National Bank of Florence, by Sam H. Husband, Bank of Florence, by W. J. Brown, president, Palmetto Bank and Trust Co., by E. H. Lucas, vice president Florence clearing house association, by E. H. Lucas, secretary.

JUDGE BARS EVIDENCE MARITAL RELATIONS

Court Declines to Permit Prof. Tiernan to Disclaim Paternity of Child

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 20.—Judge C. L. Ducomb, presiding over the hearing to determine the paternity of "Billie," infant son of Mrs. John P. Tiernan, wife of a University of Notre Dame, professor, refused to allow Professor Tiernan to testify as to his conjugal relations with his wife between February and March 1921.

When Tiernan entered the court room this afternoon 15 or 20 women who had taken seats in the court room hissed. Judge Ducomb reprimanded the spectators and warned that any further demonstrations would result in the hearing being held behind closed doors. Quiet was quickly restored and the hearing proceeded.

Prof. Tiernan denied that he was father of the child and told of efforts to bring about a settlement of the affair with the defendant without legal action. The prosecution made an effort to introduce testimony of Professor Tiernan regarding the marital relations between the latter and his wife but after a wrangle lasting through most of today's hearing, Judge Ducomb ruled the testimony of the husband in a case of the peculiar character of the present one was not admissible.

"We will not be rushed in this case, said Prosecutor Strickler of Middlesex. To make an arrest now would be to open the way for habeas corpus proceedings which would force us to discontinue the lines along which we have been working."

EXPECT DECISION IN INJUNCTION SUIT IN CHICAGO LATE TODAY

Modification of Present Order, It Is Believed, Will Be Asked By Government

DEFENSES CLOSES AND ARGUMENT IS STARTED

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The government's suit for a Nation wide injunction against the striking railroad shop-crafts will be decided on by tomorrow night, a few hours before the temporary restraining order now in force expires.

This became evident today when the defense closed its case and opening arguments were begun. Blackburn Esterline, assistant solicitor general, opened for the government, followed by Donald R. Rieberg, attorney for B. M. Jewell and John Scott, the strike leaders. Mr. Rieberg will complete his argument tomorrow to be followed by his associate counsel, Frank Mulholland, of Toledo, while Assistant Attorney General McLaughlin will close for the United States.

The government has not quite completed the draft of the injunction which it will ask Judge Wilkerson to sign but there are indications that some of the drastic clauses of the restraining order will be modified.

Washington, N. C. Couple Were Among Smyrna Refugees

ATHENS, Sept. 20.—(By the Associated Press)—Thrilling experiences were related by American refugees from Smyrna who have arrived here. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boyd, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Archbold, of Washington, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, of Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Archbold and Mrs. Boyd secured a launch in the Smyrna harbor and saved 30 refugees by taking them to the steamer Winona. The former gave refuge to 2000 Armenians and Greeks just outside his home.

HARDING URGES EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION OF $200,000 FOR NEAR EAST AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—An emergency appropriation of $200,000 for relief of American refugees in the near East was recommended to the Senate today by President Harding, after receipt of an official estimate from the State department that 1,000 Americans were in pressing need of assistance.

"It is very apparent that we have an obligation to afford relief," the President said in his letter to Chairman Warren, of the Senate Appropriations committee, adding that the need could not be met by the private funds of American relief organizations. Senate leaders plan to add the item to the pending deficiency appropriation bill. Quick action by the House also was indicated, Representative Mondell, the Republican leader, notifying members that their continued presence would be required in order that the action might be had without delay.

ABERNETHY SPEAKS IN DUPLIN TODAY

To Deliver Principal Address At Masonic Picnic; Campaign Plans

Charles Laban Abernethy, double-democratic nominee for Congress in this district, passed through Goldsboro last night en route to Kanasville, Duplin county, where he will speak today at a Masonic picnic.

Already functioning as a Congressman, Mr. Abernethy both looks and talks the part. Recent visits to Washington have impressed him with the responsibility of the office to which the district will elect him in November. He has also been impressed with the bright prospects for Democratic success in the fall elections.

He will make the usual campaign speaking tour in the district, having already placed himself in the hands of the Congressional committee for such assignments as it wishes to make. After the election, he will move to Washington and be sworn in in time to participate in the deliberations of the short session which will be convened December 4 next.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Kinston Free Press, writing of Mr. Abernethy and the district, said yesterday:

"Third districters who have been seeking some sort of election by which to place Charles Laban Abernethy in the Congressional committee for such assignments as it wishes to make. After the election, he will move to Washington and be sworn in in time to participate in the deliberations of the short session which will be convened December 4 next.

"There will be two ballots on which 'Abbie' will receive congressional commissions. The first will entitle him to sit in the present Congress, which expires March 4 if he doesn't die of sheer inebriety before that time. To all intents and purposes Abernethy is now congressman. He has spent the entire time since he was nominated in the July primary in the study of district needs and the pestiferous New Bern post office row, everlastingly on the hands of Senator Simmons has been bequeathed to him. He showed his smartness when he passed the buck to the folks and allowed them to say in an informal primary what they thought of the candidates.

"Then Abernethy, who might have prosecuted the study of the law until he got back some of the campaign money which these such ordeals took from him, chose to survey the district from head to foot and to see what he could do for it. The result is that he goes right to Congress with an intimate acquaintance with the demands of that bailiwick. He is in the heartiest rapport with Governor Morrison's great scheme of making North Carolina commercially a great fishing state, and an equally great ground for growing seafood off all descriptions. The future congressman has a pretty fair knowledge of the men in his nine counties. He is now seeking to know the needs.

"It will be a rare election in November which twice crowns the man who has made three terrific campaigns for the honor. Those who never wished to vote for him now have two chances at it. If he is elected he will have a job at the 'pie counter'—take two bites. But it is most seldom that a candidate finds himself voted for twice on the same day. And of course the Rev. Thomas Jefferson Hood, Republican nominee, will have the same honor. The person has not been able to persuade Miss Gertrude Fox to take the nomination, nor has Dr. Fox Person of Wayne.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—Two more important British pictures shortly are to be sent to America. One is the famous Raeburn portrait of Sir Walter Scott, and the other is Gainsborough's portrait of Mrs. Pittsberth, wife of the Prime Regent. Both have been bought by a New York collector.

CAROLINA MANAGER INSPECTS GRIDIRON

Advance Sale of Tickets For Carolina-Wake Forest Game Reported Good

Manager Ragdale, of the University of North Carolina football squad, spent yesterday in Goldsboro looking over the gridiron selected for the opening clash of the 1922 season between Carolina and Wake Forest to be staged here on September 30.

He found it surprisingly satisfactory and with his approval the local committee, following a survey of the field, gave orders for the erection of the bleachers alongside the playing field. Work will be commenced today.

"We are expecting the biggest kind of crowd here," Mr. Ragdale said yesterday. "Letters have been pouring in Chapel Hill ever since the announcement that the game would be played in Goldsboro expressing satisfaction at the selection of Goldsboro as the battleground for the opening game. Alumni of the University are highly pleased that the game is coming to Eastern North Carolina and we look for the biggest opening day crowd we have ever played before."

Tickets for the game went on sale yesterday with a rush at all downtown drug stores and through the twenty odd guarantors who made it possible for the game to be played here. Sales up to last night were reported good with a nominal demand from the outside. Many reservations had previously been made with S. F. Teague, general arrangements chairman.

Various estimates this far in advance place the attendance here next Saturday between 3,000 and 5,000, with most of the guesses running well over 4,000. A banquet for the players and a dance for the collegians has been planned for Saturday evening.

WM. ROYAL IS CHIEF MARSHAL 1922 FAIR

Twenty-Four Assistants Will Be Named Tonight or Early Friday

William Royal was yesterday named Chief Marshal for the Wayne County Fair of 1922 and he has accepted.

Selection was made at a meeting of the executive committee of the Fair Association held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday morning. The committee will have a conference with Mr. Royal tonight or early Friday, following which the names of the twenty four assistant marshals will be announced.

Announcement was also made yesterday that the orchestra, which will furnish music for the marshal's ball, had been engaged. Other details of the annual festival are being whipped into shape as rapidly as can be expected.

BARS KU KLUX JURORS

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Members of the Ku Klux Klan were declared barred from jury service before Judge David in the Superior Court today when he examined two panels of veniremen called to hear common law cases.

As each juror held up his right hand to be sworn, Judge David questioned him as to whether he was a member of a secret society and particularly of the Ku Klux Klan. "I will not tolerate any man to serve as a juror on any case before me who is affiliated with any such organization," Judge Davis declared. "Members of the Ku Klux Klan have confirmed opinions and they cannot serve here."

MCCUMBER WARNS IT WILL REMAIN ISSUE

Reported That New Bonus Bill May Be Introduced Today

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The soldiers' bonus bill failed of enactment late today, the Senate sustaining President Harding's veto. Previously the House had over ridden the veto by a large margin. The Senate roll call showed 44 yeas to 28 nays or four less than the necessary two-thirds majority to enact the measure without the President's approval.

The vote in the House was 258 to 64, or 50 more than the required number. Although it was reported that a new bonus bill might be introduced tomorrow, it was certain that the bonus fight would not be renewed, at least until the next session of Congress, which will begin on December 4.

Most of the House votes to sustain the President were cast by members from Eastern and Southern States with Western delegates voting almost solidly for the bill.

Silence Greets News.

Announcement of the result was received in silence by both the membership and the fairly well filled galleries. The same was true in the Senate. Within an hour after the House acted, the bill and the President's veto message was sent to the Senate.

Discussion of the subject there, however, had been under way for some time with Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, supporting the measure and Senator Williams, democrat, Mississippi, opposing it.

While the Alabama Senator, Mr. Underwood, was talking leaders agreed to have a vote before night and the debate was closed by Senator McCumber, who warned that the bonus question could not be settled finally until it had been settled in accord with the judgment of the great majority of Congress.

"While the power to destroy it today may be in existence," he said, "that power will not continue in existence in my judgment in the next few years. I am inclined to say that this issue will live."

ADD THREE NEW PROFESSORS AT UNIVERSITY N. C.

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 20.—Robert E. Cooker, who was graduated from the University in 1896, has returned to occupy the chair of zoology, in the department of which H. V. F. Wilson is the head. Mr. Cooker and his family are to live in the home of his cousin, W. C. Cooker, professor of botany.

For several years, Robert E. Cooker has been connected with the research branch of the United States Bureau of Fisheries in Washington. He was formerly in the service of the Peruvian government and is a Ph. D. from Johns Hopkins.

Another addition to the faculty is Marion Rex Aaboe, who comes from Teachers' College, New York, to be professor of Educational Administration in the School of Education. This is the post formerly held by L. A. Williams.

Mr. Trabue was the director of the Bureau of Educational Service at Columbia. During the war he was a psychological examiner for the army, in which he was first lieutenant and then captain. His best-known book is "Completion Test Language Scales," which is used as a standard throughout the country. With F. F. Stockbridge he wrote "Measure Your Mind." He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and other learned bodies.

Wallace E. Caldwell, recently at Columbia University, is coming to join the faculty for the department of history and government. He has been studying abroad for the last year. Mr. Caldwell, who won his Ph. D. degree at Columbia in 1919, will have ancient history as his special field.

ATTACK BY COWS NEW DANGER TO AIRPLANES

LLANDUDNO, Wales, Sept. 20.—An airplane was recently compelled to land in a field near here, and the mechanics went off for assistance.

Several cows then appeared. They nosed around, gored holes in the wings, and licked off the motor oil which had been splashed out by the engine. The animals finally were driven off, and their owner had to compensate for the damage they did to the machine.
