

Published Every Day Except Monday at Goldsboro, N. C.
MANAGEMENT: E. F. Bessie, Editor; W. W. Bessie, Business Manager.
SUBSCRIPTION IN ADVANCE: $5.00 per Year, $1.50 per Quarter.

CLOGGING THE WHEELS OF BUSINESS

All the business men of the South are interested in seeing that the farmers get a fair price for their cotton. They are interested in this both in good years and bad years and as a rule the farmers can have no just complaint against the business men for the attitude which they usually take on the practical point of selling.

TELEPHONE COURTESY

Some people in Goldsboro have as much telephone courtesy as any people on earth. But other Goldsboro people have as little telephone courtesy as any on earth.

one supposed to be receiving the accommodation and not the one from whom you seek information. Therefore do not put trouble, delay, and unnecessary inconvenience upon them.

CAN YOU HAND IT TO US?

Did you notice the beauty of yesterday morning's News? It was not a special edition, but just a little spent in behalf of Armistice Day.

BUNK CONGRATULATES THE VOTERS

(Washington News.) BUNKVILLE, N. C.—The Hon. Fuller Bunk, who was swept into office at the polls Tuesday, today had sufficiently recovered from the shock to issue the following formal statement:

TODAY'S ANNIVERSARIES

1778—A band of British, Tories, and Indians attacked Fort Allen, at Cherry Valley, N. Y.
1805—Napoleon issued a decree restricting the trade of Holland, by which the commerce of that country was totally ruined.

THE NOISE THE THING

"How can you go hunting when you belong to the Society for the Protection of Animals?"
"Well, you see I enjoy the shooting but I only use blank cartridges."

REPORT IN THE MAKING

ARMISTICE DAY
Fourth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice.
In America the day will be celebrated as "Armistice Day."

TODAY'S BIRTHDAYS

King Victor Emmanuel III. has displayed great tact in handling the critical situation in Italy, now 55 years ago today.
Maude Adams, who is reported to be contemplating a return to the stage born in Ball Lake City, 50 years ago today.

UNIVERSITY EXPECTS VICTORY OVER V. M. I.

CHAPEL HILL, Nov. 10.—Head Coach Bill Fetzler left here tonight with the football players constituting the Carolina squad, for the Armistice Day game with V. M. I. in Richmond.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

The American Red Cross, which begins its annual membership "roll call" today, has as its chairman John Barton Payne, who first came into national prominence during the war as chairman of the United States Shipping Board, and later as the successor of Franklin K. Lane as Secretary of the Interior in President Wilson's cabinet.

TODAY'S ANNIVERSARIES

1778—A band of British, Tories, and Indians attacked Fort Allen, at Cherry Valley, N. Y.
1805—Napoleon issued a decree restricting the trade of Holland, by which the commerce of that country was totally ruined.

OPERATIVE WALK OUT AT ROCKY MOUNT

ROCKY MOUNT, Nov. 9.—According to a statement of officials approximately sixty employees of the Rocky Mount Mills quit work this morning when Superintendent H. L. Hadden discharged employees Grover Creech and Homer Morris following their alleged activities in the organization last night of a local branch of the United Textile Workers of America.

ONE YEAR OLD TODAY

America's Unknown Soldier buried at Arlington.
Ulster rejected Lloyd George's Irish proposals.

UNIVERSITY EXPECTS VICTORY OVER V. M. I.

CHAPEL HILL, Nov. 10.—Head Coach Bill Fetzler left here tonight with the football players constituting the Carolina squad, for the Armistice Day game with V. M. I. in Richmond.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

The American Red Cross, which begins its annual membership "roll call" today, has as its chairman John Barton Payne, who first came into national prominence during the war as chairman of the United States Shipping Board, and later as the successor of Franklin K. Lane as Secretary of the Interior in President Wilson's cabinet.

TODAY'S ANNIVERSARIES

1778—A band of British, Tories, and Indians attacked Fort Allen, at Cherry Valley, N. Y.
1805—Napoleon issued a decree restricting the trade of Holland, by which the commerce of that country was totally ruined.

OPERATIVE WALK OUT AT ROCKY MOUNT

ROCKY MOUNT, Nov. 9.—According to a statement of officials approximately sixty employees of the Rocky Mount Mills quit work this morning when Superintendent H. L. Hadden discharged employees Grover Creech and Homer Morris following their alleged activities in the organization last night of a local branch of the United Textile Workers of America.

ONE YEAR OLD TODAY

America's Unknown Soldier buried at Arlington.
Ulster rejected Lloyd George's Irish proposals.

UNIVERSITY EXPECTS VICTORY OVER V. M. I.

CHAPEL HILL, Nov. 10.—Head Coach Bill Fetzler left here tonight with the football players constituting the Carolina squad, for the Armistice Day game with V. M. I. in Richmond.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

The American Red Cross, which begins its annual membership "roll call" today, has as its chairman John Barton Payne, who first came into national prominence during the war as chairman of the United States Shipping Board, and later as the successor of Franklin K. Lane as Secretary of the Interior in President Wilson's cabinet.

TODAY'S ANNIVERSARIES

1778—A band of British, Tories, and Indians attacked Fort Allen, at Cherry Valley, N. Y.
1805—Napoleon issued a decree restricting the trade of Holland, by which the commerce of that country was totally ruined.

NEW YORK ELECTION MOST SENSATIONAL IN POLITICS

The New York election is the most sensational political reversal known to American politics.
Harding's unprecedented plurality of more than 1,000,000 in 1920 has been wiped out and Smith has carried the State by the largest plurality ever given to any candidate for governor.

A PROCLAMATION

BY THE MAYOR
WHEREAS, on the eleventh day of November, 1918, the Armistice was signed that ended the greatest war known to men. This was a joyful occasion to all the people of the world.

BRINGING UP FATHER

