"explained" how the still hap to be poor the place. The other ward him $20 for some ward and the only way he gould collected the tabe the still. The gove n had taken the owner.

Other excuses included the well-worn alibi, of having a little in the house for the use of the family. Andrew Sanders escaped by paying a $25 fine for such an offense. Stephen Murphy was found guilty by a jury for manufacturing and fined $25. He must behave for two years.

A Roundabout Way.
Missus—Why do you hiways ask me, sing when Mr. Smathers comes

Mister-Well, you see, I don't like that fellow; yet I don't feel like telling him outright to go.

Strock the Right Combination. Edith—So you are going to marry for love, are you? Don't you think that is foolish? Mand Oh, no. You see that sense enough to fall in love with a million-

Wise men always remain optimists, however black the sky may be.

Workmen Bring to Light Glories of Westminster Abbey, moval of Varnish From Angler Shields Reveals Beauty of Work Done Seven Centuries Aco

After having been higden for erations a new wealth of busing says a London correspondent New York World. The stone at that decorate the walls on the ne and south choir alsies are now an ing in all their medieval spiender, at having been smothered for in varnish. These shields, which are believed be the oldest specim placed there by Henry III, when wilding was new. They include imself. The device of Eleanor of stoon, in reality of stone, that disap pears behind two tiny honds. Anos festoon is decorated with a bonbe hair young woman that might qui well have stepped out of a canvas of Augustus John. The biggest 'find' has been been used so faviship, perhaps gade the direction of Sir Christopher Wren, bar who lost both arms is exactly 50. with the mistaken idea of preserving the color. Instead of the almost black surface that they here only a year ago, these tembs now appear a mass of brilliant coloring that pays a high tribute to the craftsmanship of the men who decorated them seven centuries ago.

One of the renovators was found busy at work on the back of the se Here the other day a magnifi cent painting was exhumed from the crime of centuries. It represents Edward the Confessor holding out he inger for the ring to be slipped on by St. John. "This is the finest piece of green I have discovered in the abbey." exclaimed the craftsman as be pointed to the sister panel on which present is a hand of lily white against an emerald background. The wor of renevation is being carried on un der the direction of Mrs. Tristram of the Royal Society of Arts. It is less than a year since the wo began, and there are more artistic an quaint treasures waiting to be brough to light, "There is absolutely no fear of damage being dane," remarked the surveyor to the chapter. "The proess is the same as when old mester. are cleaned. The mural decoration in the abbey are undoubtedly fine, by come under the scheme of restoration as the chapter house is under a differ ent jurisdiction. Some of the panels contain remarkable coloring, and ever in their present state the eye can 'dle cern a wealth of detail onder the de

Like Father, Like Son. "When I went to college 25 years ago I played the mandolin and spent $300 a year; now I have a son who spends $3,000 and only plays the situ-When I took a girl to a dance I hired a hack for 50 cents; how my boy writes that he thinks he will leave school because he can't find u garage for his car near enough to the fraternity house.

osits of grime and dust."

"We used to carry a keg seven miles into the country to have a party; Jim says one of the fellows can carry enough for the whole crowd without wrinkling the tail of his coat "I expected to go to work after I was through and pay back the meney my father had lent me. My boy says he's going to look around for a year or two. He doesn't want to be rushed into anything not worthy of his tal-

"But when the ball's on the five-yard line with one minute to play, I gassa Jim and I up there in the grandstand are pretty much the same."-Lire.

With 5 per cent of the population of the United States, New York City produce in excess of one welfth co all the goods manufactured in the country.

Occupation is the cheapest form of amusement, and idlenesse is the

HELPFUL IN BUSINESS

is what this bank stands for first, last and

If there is an individual firm, farmer or perchant without a banking home, we want their business, want to prove to them now much a good banking connection helps in business.

The Wayne National Bank

dable For Two Generations

THROUGH TRAIN IARLOTTESVILLE and RETURN

N.C. vs. U. of Va. Football Game ER 30TH--(Thanksgiving Day)

SCHEDULE GOING TRIP

Nov. 29th.	Ly	Selma					10:00	p.	m.
Nov. 29th.	12/2	Raleigh .					11:00	p.	m,
Nov. 29th. Nov. 30th.	Ar.	Charlotte	ville	•••			7:30	a.	m.	$
	SC	HEDULE	RET	URI	NIN	G
Nov. 30th. Dec. 1st.	Ar.	Durham	*				7:30 3:00

man sleeping cars from Raleigh and Durham to be n for occupancy at 9:00 p. m., Nov. 29th, and set for occupancy until 7:30 a. m., December 1st.

SPECIAL ROUND TRIP FARE

oldsboro, $13.64; Selma, $12.56: Raleigh, Durham, $11.04. Tickets will be sold for all ovember 29th. Limited returning to reach starting point prior to midnight of December MAN FARE—$3.75 for lower berth, $3.00 for an berth and $13.50 for a Drawing Room in each . son; from all the above named points.

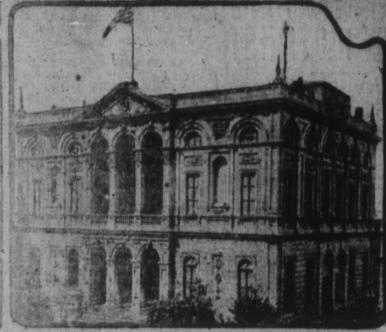

IMPORTANT SUGGESTION!

Reach Charlottesville in time to visit Monticello, home of Thomas Jefferson before the game.

When requesting pullman reservations state whether wanted for one way or round trip. Also if wanted returning at 7:30 p. m. or midnight train.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM J. S. BLOODWORTH, D. P. A. RALEIGH, N. C.

U. S. Embassy in Constantinople

the headquarters of Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol, United States high commissioner in Turkey and commander in chief of all American mayal forces

TAKEN FROM EXCHANGES

THE GOLDSBURG NEWS.

Few people are as smart as they ink other people think they are. More than 40,000 men now living er one ba more limbs in the World red the loss of one leg, more

Any girl who thinks of bleaching her hair should try to keep it dark. Flat glass tubes into which plant labels written on paper can be inserted and protected from the weather indefinitely are an English invention. The American Institute of Launder-Of this number nearly 30,000 ing, with a capital of $500,000, has been established for the construction an 11,000 lost an arm, just under of a plant to be devoted to practical 1,000 lost both legs, while the number who lost both arms is exactly 50. the laundry industry.

noir Will Cut Quite a Caper In ay are still locked up in the quick and comfortable operation, innermost recesses of his sould. But as a talker Mr. Dawson is as three sewing societies compared with Mr. Tapp. The new senator will not worry the sen-Next Legislature ate with his oratory. All that he has said is that he is opposed to the reckless spending of public moneys. It has KINSTON, N. C. Nov. 23 .- Lenoir been reported that the tobacco co-operanty will cut quite a figure in the com- atives' do not relish Mr. Tapp's memr logislature. It will have the speaker- bership in the assembly. As a matter p again, with John G. Dawson assur- of fact, Mr. Tapp's business is that that honor in the lower house. It of a tobacconist-independent tobachave one of the greatest little con- conist. He has not uttered a word of valives in the conservation business criticism of co-operation for publicathe appear chamber when Luther P. tion, if privately. Neither has he yet

Just what legislation thrown any bouquets at the association will be most interested in is uncer- . The Interviews that Dawson and Tapp uncertain. Every once in a are going to give out, though both will per fraternity will set be much in the limelight if local preand the Lenoir gentlemen's dictions hold true, will be about as inwell he set up at the mute and a statue of Buddha.

Dameon's tentative views have lawn-mower principles, has been inight here on the State shipping vented. By electricity two blades are the additional appropriations for made to revolve at 3,000 revolutions the educational progress and per minute, and shaving is made a

Don't Fail to See Our Assortment of CHRISTMAS CARDS HICKS & HAWLEY'S

"The Place Where You Will Eventually

SPECIAL

Saturday, Nov. 25

ONE DAY ONLY

50 Wool Dresses at 1-2 the Original Price

Nothing Exchanged

Nothing on Approval

L. E. Pearson Co.

Our New Neighbors

BROTTERS

Department Store

We invite all who visit EFIRD'S NEW STORE Saturday to also visit our Store.

ESPECIALLY OUR TOY DEPARTMENT ON SECOND FLOOR

MAKE YOUR CHOICE OF TOYS NOW AND AVOID THE USUAL RUSH

Lithographed ____ SATURDAY A. M. AT 10:30

PICK YOUR CHOICE FROM OUR WINDOW

th Hardware Co.

GOLDSBORO'S TOYLAND

EMEMBER OUR SPECIALS IN SHOES

Our Special Sale Is Still On!

And we have a wonderful stock at greatly reduced prices for this

Dress Gingham, 15c Values at 10c Father George Homespun, 20e value Big line Outing, all colors, 20e value 15 Apren Gingham, 15c values at 10c

Department Store