

Society

MARY DANIELS MASON, Editor

THANKSGIVING

For that we are living in this hour,
 God of Nations, God of might,
 We thank Thee. Grant us of Thy power
 To live aright!
 For that our wills spring forth to meet
 The challenge which the hour sounds clear,
 We thank Thee. Keep us from disgrace, of hate, or fear
 For that our listening hearts are grown
 More tender, with the whole world's own
 We thank Thee. Love more like Thine own
 Give us to know,
 For that our thankfulness burns bright
 Before Thee, God of gifts supreme,
 We thank Thee. Merge it in Thy light,
 The New Dawn's gleam!
 —Minnie Lenona Upton.

Mrs. Grassie Leaves Sanatorium
 Friends of Mrs. A. E. Grassie will be very glad to learn that she is improving nicely after a very serious illness in a local sanatorium, and has recovered to the extent that she was able to leave the sanatorium yesterday.

Mrs. Groves Entertains
 Mrs. C. D. Groves delightfully entertained Mrs. W. L. Rawlings and her charming visitors, Mesdames J. F. Baskin and M. A. Stewart, of Norfolk, at a dinner party in the Cafeteria, Tuesday evening at seven o'clock.

To Attend Game At Charlottesville
 Misses Lena Simmons, Margaret Edmondson, Virginia Simmons, Dorothy Simmons, Elizabeth Bogle, Mark Michaux and Sarah Borden and Mr. Edwin Joseph have gone to Charlottesville to attend the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Land at House Party in Edgecombe
 Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Land and Miss Patricia Parmelee, their house guest, left this morning for their farm in Edgecombe county to attend a house party. They will return Saturday morning and Miss Parmelee will visit Mr. and Mrs. Land here until Monday.

Wednesday Club Enjoys Bridge
 Miss Rachel Borden was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Wednesday Bridge Club at a series of interesting games. Following them delightful refreshments were served. Guests for the afternoon were: Mesdames E. E. Eustice, P. U. Bumgardner and H. M. Humphrey, and the regular members were: Mesdames Robert Powell, George Dewey, R. B. Miller, Paul Borden, Rosalie Exum, W. H. Smith, E. M. Land, Misses Clara Spicer and Helen Kirby.

Return From Bridal Trip
 Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Res, Jr. arrived in the city last night from their bridal trip spent in Florida. They will visit Mrs. Resa parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sumnerlin for a few days before going to Norfolk, where they will make their home.

High School Pupils Enjoy Outing
 Miss Margaret Kornegay chaperoned

the 8-A grade of the Goldsboro High School on a most enjoyable outing yesterday afternoon. Leaving immediately after school at three-ten, they hiked out to Ham's Springs, where an afternoon of roasting weiners and toasting marshmallows was enjoyed. The names of the fortunate participants are listed below:
 Misses Alice Slaughter, Elizabeth Ray Dewey, Virginia Kornegay, Laurice Rieyes, Elizabeth Spears, Annie Simmons, Ruth Pate, Pauline Thornton, Georgis Davis, Louise Latham, Ida Mergolis, Sarah Faulkner, Sadie Lou Sotherland, Messrs. Robert Zealy, Marvin Sherrard, Adrien Crumpler, Fred Crowson, Heywood Lynch, Edgar Simpkins, Billie Best, William Langston.

Governor To Entertain
 Governor Cameron Morrison will entertain at a reception this evening from 10 until 12 o'clock at the executive mansion in Raleigh in honor of the teachers attending the Teachers' assembly. The Goldsboro teachers attending the assembly are Misses Alice Freeman, Rennie Peels and Mrs. H. E. Fennell.

The Parker-Coats Wedding
 A wedding of interest to many Goldsboro people was that of Leroy Parker, of Mount Olive and Miss Eva Coats, of Goldsboro, at the home of the bride's parents in Smithfield last evening. The Rev. William O. Cone, of St. Stephen's Church officiating. Miss Coats was given in marriage by her father. Among those present were: Mr. Graves Smith, Mr. David Prince, Miss Bessie Clayton and Miss Blanche Rhee, of Goldsboro, with many from Smithfield and Mt. Olive. The young couple will reside in Mt. Olive after a short wedding trip in the Western part of the State.

Out of Town Visitors
 Out of town visitors in the city yesterday were: Miss Catherine Boyd, New Bern; Miss Annie Duncan, Beaufort; Prof. B. I. Hoffner, Misses Elizabeth Cheek, Louis Moon, and Ethel Rees, Hookerton; Miss Mary Lou Wilkins, Rose Hill; Mr. L. N. Smith, Raleigh; Mr. S. L. Roberts, Asheville; N. J. Signor, of the Newport Schools; Ellen Dale, Faro.

PERSONAL
 Miss Celeste McEachern left yesterday for her home in Wilmington. She expects to return Sunday.
 Miss Florence White is in Wilmington as the guest of relatives.
 Mrs. Flora Kendall is spending Thanksgiving in Wilmington with friends and relatives.
 Mrs. B. H. Jones left yesterday afternoon on a visit to La Grange, and will be there until Sunday.
 Master L. Newall, Jr. is in Wilmington visiting his aunt, Mrs. E. C. Craft.
 Mr. Cecil Best has gone to Warsaw to spend Thanksgiving at home.
 Miss Lillie Walker is spending the holidays in Greensboro.
 Mr. Carlisle Shephard went down to Wilmington yesterday, to visit friends and relatives until Sunday.
 Mr. Sam Emory is spending the holidays at his home in Chase City.

Miss Pauline Cobb, of Rowan, who has been visiting Mrs. A. K. Robertson, has returned home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Creech, of Winston-Salem, are the house guests of Miss Leah Slaughter.
 Mrs. W. A. Aldridge is visiting in Mt. Olive and will be there the remainder of this week.
 Mr. E. M. Land was a business visitor in Raleigh yesterday.
 Mrs. Thomas O'Berry returned this morning from an extended visit to New York.
 Miss Elizabeth Waters is spending Thanksgiving in Wilmington.
 Mr. John Hobbs was a visitor in Wilson yesterday morning.
 Master "Sonny" Graham, of Chapel Hill, is the guest of Mrs. C. E. Wilkins.
 Mrs. H. M. Humphrey and Miss Mary Humphrey spent yesterday morning in Wilson, shopping and visiting.
 Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Best are in Lumberton, visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. C. Fuller.
 Mrs. M. B. Andrews and children, of Fayetteville, are the house guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Daniels on East Walnut Street.
 Mr. George Norwood spent yesterday afternoon in Raleigh on business.
 Miss Margaret Hines is in Raleigh spending Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Griffin, at the Yarrowburgh.
 Misses Verna Baker and Norma Ward, of Newton Grove, are visiting Mrs. E. B. Herring, on E. Walnut Street.
 Dr. J. M. Howard has returned from a business trip to Raleigh.
 Major Matt Allen is home for Thanksgiving.
 Mrs. Tom Whitefield is visiting friends and relatives in Mt. Olive for a few days.
 Mrs. James Jeffreys is spending Thanksgiving with friends in Raleigh.
 Misses Magdalene Hummel, Virginia and Anna Suther are in Bennettsville, South Carolina, as the guests of Mrs. R. B. Kirkwood.
 Mr. J. W. Setz, Jr., of Raleigh, is in Goldsboro on a business trip, and is registered at the Kennon.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Austin went up to Durham yesterday afternoon and will return tonight.
 Mr. A. S. Grady, attorney of Mt. Olive, was in the city Tuesday on legal business.
 Miss Jennie Scott is in Mount Olive as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Andrews.
 Miss Mary Poplin is the guest for Thanksgiving of friends in Mount Olive.
 Mrs. Charlie Waters and children left yesterday afternoon for Mount Olive to spend Thanksgiving with relatives. Mr. Waters will join them this morning.
 Miss Mary Talton left yesterday afternoon for Wilmington to visit for several days.
 Mesdames J. F. Bukey and M. A. Stewart, of Norfolk, who have been visiting Mrs. W. L. Rawlings, returned home yesterday.
 Mrs. J. P. Hewitt and Misses Margaret and Jean Hewitt, of Rosemary, will arrive tonight and are to be the houseguests of Dr. and Mrs. William Smith.
 Mrs. Faison Thompson went to Warsaw Tuesday to attend a party at Mrs. W. L. Hills.
 Mrs. C. E. Best, of South River, is spending the week end in Goldsboro as the guest of her sister, Miss Mary Alice Groves.
 Mrs. F. W. Hollingsworth, of Statesville, who has been spending some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Castex, returned home yesterday.
 Colonel John D. Langston and children are spending the day in Durham and will attend the Trinity-Wofford game.
 Mr. W. C. Daniels, traveling representative of the Baker-Binnett Co., is in the city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Daniels.
 Miss Freda Cohen is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. J. Needleman, in New Bern.
 Mr. J. O. Bizzell spent yesterday morning in Fayetteville on business.
 Mrs. Marshall Williams, of Faison, was a visitor in the city yesterday.
 Miss Louise Prigitt left yesterday afternoon for Warsaw to visit. She expects to return Sunday.
 Messrs. Louis and Farrar Omer are home from Atlantic Christian College to spend Thanksgiving with their parents, Reverend and Mrs. L. M. Omer.
 Miss Jessie Winstead is visiting in Rosehill for a few days.
 Miss Susie Sages of Wilson, is visiting Miss Carrie Hinson, on Spruce St.
 Miss Hansford Patterson, of Monticello, Virginia, is spending Thanksgiving with Miss Eleanor Daniels.
 Miss Maggie Blackman, of Raleigh, is visiting Mrs. E. W. Rutledge.
 Mr. Clarence Parks, of Wilmington, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Parks, on Ashe Street.
 Miss Julia Mae Sotherland of the Warsaw High School faculty, is home for the week end.
 Messrs. H. D. Bateman and D. S. Boykin, of Wilson, were business visitors in Goldsboro yesterday.
 Mr. A. W. Gillette left last night for his home in Capron, Virginia, where he will visit for the remainder of the week.
 Miss Margaret Sasser went over to Fremont last night for a visit of a few days.
 Messrs. Hazel Zealy and Thomas Campbell are home from the University

ASK US FIRST—WE HAVE IT

Palace Drug Store

Phone No. 8 Goldsboro, N. C.
 10-Minute Delivery Service

Let Us Be Thankful

Let us be thankful for the bounty of Providence.

- for friendship that we may dwell in peace with our fellows
- for sunshine, and rain and snow, that the earth may become fruitful
- for our birthright, that we may know the true worth of freedom and democracy
- for the sense of smell, that we may know the clean perfume of Autumn mornings

And let us be thankful for our legs, that they can carry us among the hills and down in the valleys.

Let us give thanks for our health and strength, that we may attend our daily labors and reap the reward of our toil.

And let us never lose the sense of gratitude for the heritage which has come to us from the Pilgrim Fathers—the heritage of courage, resourcefulness, piety and enduring faith.

Let us use this heritage in our business, and in all the walks of life.

H. Weil & Bros.

VAUDEVILLE

Acme Theatre

THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

This Week

PHIL PETERS CLASSY STEPPERS

16—PEOPLE—16

Opening Bill

BLACKCAT CABRETTE

Friday—Two Jolly Barrons

Saturday—Topsy Turvey Honeymoon

Good Singing—Dancing and Vaudeville Specialties.

ADMISSION 25 and 50 CENTS for the week end.

 Mr. Solly Isaacs, has returned from a business trip to Wilmington.
 Mr. E. W. Vick was a business visitor in Wilmington yesterday.
 Mr. Vance Weill is home for Thanksgiving.
 Mr. Lewis Giddens is home from Chapel Hill to spend the holidays with his parents.
 Mr. D. L. Middleton, of Monroe, arrived last night and is the guest of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Middleton.
 Misses Annie and Helen Moore, of Mount Olive, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Jones.
 Miss Cécile Scwellert, who is teaching at Steadman this year, is the house guest of Miss Nellie Jones.
 Miss Adele Reese is spending the holidays at her home in Capron, Va.
 Mrs. Estelle Smith has returned from a visit to Whiteville and Wilmington.
 Miss Rowena Burden has returned from Clinton, where she has been on an extended visit to relatives.
 Mr. Bishop Malpass is home from the University for a few days.

OF YE OLD TYME
 Some Differences Between the Observance of the Day Then and the Festivities of Today.

From picking the stuffing out of a wild turkey to kicking the stuffing out of a wild football player, Thanksgiving day observance has undergone a decided change, even within the ken of the present writer, who, at that, is quite old enough to gain a permanent home among the mummies at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Roy K. Moulton writes in the New York Evening Mail. There were days away back in Parian times when people had a lot to be thankful for and enough sense to be thankful for it. It is still true that a portion of our great metropolitan population find time to render thanks in the old-fashioned style, but the rah-rah Thanksgiving has been with us some twenty years now, and it seems to be gaining momentum.

In the old days they used to leave a platter strewn with the bones of wild turkey, and now it is the general custom to leave the gridiron strewn with arms, legs, ears and other more or less important impedimenta.

The history of a Thanksgiving day used to be set down by the Church clerk, and now it is set down in jazz by the sporting writer, all of which goes to show that civilization is moving, though we can't always decide which way.

Ye Old Tyme Thanksgiving.
 "Know ye all men by these present: That I, Makepeace Wharburton, governor, do nominate Thursday, ye twenty-sixth of November, to be a day of thanksgiving and a day of prayer in remembrance of the great blessings we have received during the past year. All and sundry of the population are ordered to attend service and profoundly render thank for peace and prosperity or pay penalty on the pillory, the ducking stool or the stocks."
 "MAKEPEACE WHARBURTON, Governor."

Those were the days of real Thanksgivings. Peleg Prouty did not have to go to the butcher shop and batter his soul, his house and lot and his Ford for a turkey. He kissed his wife, Prudence, and the kids good-by for maybe the last time, and set forth for a wild turkey. He carried over his shoulder an 85-pound blunderbuss with a springer attachment on the muzzle which would statter shot over a fair-sized township and would kick Peleg for a goal when it went off. If the Indians got a bead on him first it was good-night turkey, and if he got a bead on them first the springer attachment enabled him to put the raspberry on eight or ten of them at once.

If Peleg got home all right with the wild turkey they had a Thanksgiving. If he didn't they had a funeral.

The family would go to church in the morning and arrive there with several arrows sticking through their clothes and hats, and after good old Elder Hudnutt had preached for four hours and a half and finally stopped, the congregation had something to be thankful for.

When the feast was ready, Peleg, his wife, Prudence, and the Children, Steadfast, Charity, Prosper, Faith, Cromwell and Whetstone, seated themselves about the table, the room would suddenly fill with smoke for the reason that there would be an Indian sitting on the chimney top trying to smoke them out and glum the turkey and Peleg's flagon of srewater.

Indians Took Part.
 Peleg would nonchalantly wander over to the fireplace and throw a handful of gunpowder into it and the Indian would make a dash for the creek near by, angrily pursued by his bunn-ling breechcloth.

Peleg would return to the feast and say, "For what we are about to receive let us be truly thankful." And he received it quickly. A noble redman poked his arm through the window and firmly nicked Peleg on the bean with a tommyhawk. Being a hard-headed Puritan, Peleg would go on with his dinner after throwing the tommyhawk back over his shoulder and catching Mr. Shineycock just below the Adam's apple.

The afternoon was given over to meditation and reflection.

Celebration of Today
 But nowadays they gather in some jazz restaurant and the host says: "For what we haven't had during the past under the Volstead act let us be—" well, anyhow, something like that. The waiter does not reach through the window and tap him with a tommyhawk, but he hits him for a $50.75 check and a $10 tip.

And instead of spending the afternoon in meditation and prayer, as Peleg did, his great-great-great-great-grandson sits in a grandstand with 15,000 heretics and they yell:
 "Freshwater's got the ball!"
 "Freshwater, Freshwater, sip, boom, bah! Freshwater, Freshwater, rah, rah, rah!"

"Go to it, Cornsilik! Now, Boys, the Cornsilik locomotive!"
 "Rah rah rah rah rah rah—Cornsilik, Cornsilik—hip, hip, hip, hip, hip, hoorah!"

And after the game Peleg's descendant accompanies a young fapper to a hotel for dinner, where he gets a piece of turkey through which he can read the name of the café and make out its coat-of-arms in the center of the plate and calls it a feed.

The only folks funnier than the old ones are the new ones.

Dr. G. B. MORRIS
 Borden Building
 Phones:
 Residence 176 Office 134
 Hours—9-11 a. m.—2-4 p. m.
 except Friday afternoon

JAS. C. JOYNER, M. D.
 Practice limited to:
 SURGERY, GYNECOLOGY, AND
 GENITO-URINARY DISEASES.
 Office Fourth Floor Borden Building.
 HOURS: 9 to 11—2 to 5; 7:30 to 9:30
 Telephone: Office
 TELEPHONE: Office 568, Res. 297-W.

Suggestion No. 12

His hands may be cold but as long as his heart is warm you might get him a pair of warm wool gloves now or tell him to get them and wait till Christmas to get his silk or kid gloves. New wool gloves just received today..... 35c, 50c, and 75c

A. A. JOSEPH, My Outfitter
 Under Hotel Kennon