J. C. Vanstory was at home to one hundred of her friends and their guests from four to five yesterday af-ternoon in the salon of the Kennon.

Move to Rocky Mount Mrs. J. E. Lambert left yesterday afternoon for Rocky Mount and will be followed shartly by Mr. Lambert These charming people are moving to that city to make their home and they will

On the morning of November thirtieth, the News carried a brief sketch of the marriage of Miss Eva Coates to Mr. Le Roy Parker, which was solemnized in Smithfield the night before.

It has copied below a full account of the beautiful ceremony taken from the

"The home was tastefully decorated with long leaf pine and white chry-santhemums, and was a beautiful act-ting for the simple but impressive cere-mony. Only a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties were "Promptly at the appointed hour Miss Irene Myatt took her place at the piane to play the accompanient as Mrs. J. Walter Costes, of South Boston, Va., sister of the bride charmingly wore brown canton crope and carried yellow chrysauthemums. As the last note of the song died away and the permanent home in Mount Olive.

ville Lumber Co., at Mount Olive.

of South Boston, Virginia."

Girls Club Activities

"The bridgroom is a young man of

Full Account of

Parker-Coates Wedding

Smithfield Herald;

Grantham.

A STATE OF STATE

How dear to the heart of the mother The words which the wine men spake As they nobly veied with each other The forest offerings to make!

How strange that these scholarly mag; Should kneel in the straw of the stail.

The Naviore is the first of the stail.

Should kneel in the straw of the stail, should kneel in the straw of the stail, reclaiming the Babe in the Manger. The Saviour and Lord of us all low reverant, too, were the shepherds. Who worshipped the Babe as He lay, with praise for the Blessed Redeemer And the breaking of Lirnel's day! napiring to Mary the message As given by Simeon wise;

Phophetic the praises of Anna
For Scripture fulfilled in her eyes.
And all over shon the splendor
Of the glorious Bethlehem star,
Whose brightness should touch every scatter all darkness afar.
glowed then the heart of His

Only you who have sons can surmise, you who have dreamed of their future And prayed that their ways might be

God grant that the hopes that are hidden Deep down in each mother heart. May result in joyous fruition, In lives that will blessing impart, God grant that the babes round the hearthstone May follow the path that He trod. Unselfishingly giving their service

As did the sublime Son of God.

The Rotarian.

Colonel and Mrs. Languton
Hosta at Dinner
Colonel and Mrs. John D. Langston face a delightful dinner party last night at their home on Park Annex.
Lovely snapdrarons formed the center place on the dining room table and five course menu was served at even. Invited were: Messrs R. F. Bensley, W. W. Minton, Frank Taylor and William Allen.

Pormer Principal

Mr. John L. Hathcock, Principal of the Goldsboro Public, School in 1907, and Mrs. Hathcock, spont the Thanksgiving holidays here with Mrs. John Hawley. They left yesterday afternoon for their home in Clinton.

The daughters of the American Revolution met with the Regent, Mrs. Thomoccasion was a most enjoyable one and a splendid program was carried out.

Mrs. Frank Ray spoke interestingly "George Washington's Boyhood." fiss Mary Slaughter told the "Story of the "Uurple Heart," the medal of honor of the Revolution, and Miss Mildred undson read from Yellowed Leaves," an original manuscript of the dfather of Patrick Henry.

The business session was very interfor the ensuing years Mrs. McGee, Regent; Mrs. Charles Burroughs, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. H. Cobb, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Ray, treasurer; Mrs. T. A. Henley, registar; Mrs. Hattie Criser, chaplin; Dr. Lila B. Winkleman, chairman of research committee.

Assisted by Miss Edmundson, the hostess served refreshments, consistof Truit mind, punch, cakes and Those present ware: Mesdames W. H. Cobb, Nathan O'Berry, T. A. Henley, Frank Ray, Misses Mildred Edmunds on and Mary Shughter.

Mr. Lee In Raleigh Wedding

Mr. Fitzhugh Lee returned from Ralefish yesterday afternoon after being one of the ushers in the Baily-Alston wedding which took place at eleven clock yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian church in that city. ...

Wondrow Wall

Master Woodrow Walt, son of Dr. Community House at the Borden cothospital some time ago.

Philathen Bazzar

The Senior Philathes Class of St. manuers were very eager to be camp

Paul Church wil hold their annual fire girls and it was decided to organ Christman baisar in the vacant rooms in them immediately. At this first over the Gildens Jewiery Store on receing the girls made the gay little Thursday, December 7th, opening at handkerchiefs so much in vogue now.

2 (Plock: A lung) consisting of They sewed and sang and talked un hicken salad, coffee, etc. will be serve til the fire in the grate almost died

ed. Also all kinds of fancy work ar- out. ticles suitable for Christmas presents Community service is immensity in will be on display.

Gran old Letind Edmund on, Compter Chei Unes dante China Charles Control Louis Pale at a later date.

Lovely Visitor

ASK US FIRST-WE HAVE IT Palace Drug Store

Goldsboro, N. C. Phone No. 8

10-Minute Delivery Service

PERSONAL

tobert Hanes

Mr. W. E. Stroud, who spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents of of the Banghead National Highway."

Mrs. Dan Richardson and son, of Dover, were visitors yesterday.

Miss Emma Howard, who has been Highway." leave a large void in the social and business life of Goldsboro.

o company, is at home over week-end. Carolina Federation. Miss Carrie Isler, who has been visiting in Kinston, is at home again. The following teachers have returned after attending the Teacher's assembly in Raleigh: Mrs. Mary Morris, Mrs. H. E. Fennell, and Misses Lizzie and EEdna Brooks.

Mrs. Mary Morris, Mrs. H. E. Fennell, and Misses Lizzie tad Edna Brooks. Mr. Nathan Edwards of High Point,

Edwards at Geona. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dawson, of Kinston, who have been visiting in Suffolk, arrived in Goldsboro yesterday afternoon and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Slaughter until this afternoon. They are enroute home. Among the visitors from Woodland Music Assembly singing THE LITTLE FOLKS yesterday were: Misses Francis Moore, Sarah Cunningham and Josie Piland. Miss Ann Tantillo, of Baltimore, is sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning." Miss Myatt was becomingly gowned in Alice Blue satin with cor-sage of Premier roses, and Mrs. Contes a business visitor in the city and is registered at the Kennon. Mr. E. M. Gorham, of Rocky Mount, was here on a pusiness trip yesterday. Miss Mary Jackson and Mrs. R. A. Jackson, of Mount Olive, are the guests of Mrs. George Rose.

Bridal Chourse from Lohengrin sounddrawing-room together and took their places before the improvised altar Rev. W. O. Cone, rector of St. Stephen's Episcol church, Gildaboro, pastor of the bride, performed the beautiful cere-Miss Julia Lanneau, of Wake Forest, rrived yesterday afternoon to winter here with her niete, Mrs. George Norwood on John Street. Miss Susie Fulgum, of the State Department of Education, is at her home mony. The bridet was unusually athere for the week end. tractive in her wedding costume of midnight blue broadcloth with squirrel Misses Helen Gay, of Worcester, Mass, and Miss Elizabeth Bowles of trimmings and accessories to match. Statesville ard the house guests of Her carsage boguet was Parma violets

Mrs. C. E. Wilkins. Prof. M. B. Andrews, of Fayetteville, "As soon as the vows were spoken, motored from Raleigh, where he has the young couple received congratubeen attending the Teacher's assembly. to Goldsboro last night to join his a most delectable buffet supper con-sisting of sandwiches and hot tea, angel family.

food cake and crystalized fruit and mints was served. The young ladied serving were Misses Edna Coates, sis-| conduct a business meeting in true ter of the bride, Arah Mooks and Bose form. Some of the mysteries of "Madan Chairman" have already been mas-"Mr. and Mrs. Parker then left in their car for a short trip after which they will be at home in Mount Olive. the Girl Scouts Troop 1 and some of Mrs. Parker is quite an attractive the Girl Scouts Troop 1 and some of young woman. She has held a stenographic position in Mount Olive for some time until a few days to when to get disheartened and went out. A she came home for her wedding. She fine shelter was built of pine boughs has a bost of friends and whose best but just as the finishing touches were wishes go with her as she makes her being added, it fell down in a most unscoutly manner on top of all the food. The hiking party took refuge in sterling worth. He holds a responsi- the cabin of some colored people and Obertass ble position with the Enterprise-White- by a hospitable fire, the girl dried their clothes while waiting for autos "The young couple were the recipients to go to their rescue.

of a number of useful and beautiful

B. and P. Club to Those present at the wedding from Serve Supper out-of-town were: Miss Blanch Rice. In sympathy with the New Bern fire Miss Bessie Claytor, Mr. Graves Smith, sufferers the Business and Profesional Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Manly, Mrs. F. Women's Club will serve a benefit sup-E. Schweikert, Mrs. Graham Hood, Mr. per, consisting of salad, crackers and D. M. Prince and daughter, Miss Julia hot ten at their club rooms upstairs Prince, of Goldsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Jack over the Goldsboro Book Store Tues-Barfield, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Bizzell day, Dec. 5, from 6 to 9 p. m. Tickets and Migs Mamie Reichel of Mount at fifty cents each will be sold on the Olive; Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Lassiter and streets Monday and Tuesday.

Children, of Benson; Mrs. Martha Lassiter, of Four Oaks; Miss Bessie Coates of Greensboro; Mr. Kenneth Coates of STATE FEDERATION N Chapel Hill: and Mrs. J. Walter Coates, STATE FEDERATION NOTES

MRS. C. S. NOBLE, State Press Chairman

Club women of North Carolina On Friday night of the past week the in all the Southeastern State will find and Mrs. Zeno Wall, and patient in a local sanitorium, had a nice day yes terday, in fact, the best one he has had since returning from a Baltimore club under the leadership of Miss Mary Hardy.

Kathrine Park and Miss Mary Hardy.

Mrs. Sydney P. Cooper state forms for the Southeastern Council Meeting the following program there will prob-Mrs. Sydney P. Cooper, state ferera-The club was originally, planned to be tion president, urges that North Careling club women attend in large numbers, both for the benefit that they may derive individually and for the ininterest and enthusiasm that they may arouse, after attendance upon this meeting, in the work of the general federation and the state fereration Thomas L. Gwyn, presiding. among their, own clubs. Eevery club Music Assembly singing Blackie Bear." woman in the State is invited to at Reports: Department of civics, Mrs. M. terested in this girls club and Miss lend this meeting and to assist Mrs. M. Marks, New Bern. Cooper in welcoming and entertaining Department of literature: Mrs. S. E. Carolina Students

Carolina Students

Leaving Today

Carolina Students

Carolina Students

Carolina Students

Leaving Today

Carolina Students

Ca Parks expects to enlist the talents of States of Alabama, South Carolina, Department of arts, Mrs. Marshall cention of the Couthersteen Council of X meggage from Sanitorium, Dr. I. Padeisted Clab Women follows:

Tuesday evening Troombay of a deleck Affreig Today Relation to can get a bits from that little minnow the Capelles Railing Problems in Any San Brass on age talking about the would have evening of wefferme from North barmacand and What it baouth Mass millie tots him all right, he would known as the "little scouts" because Council. Presiding Mrs. J. E. Hayes, Della Dixon Carroll. Montgomery of Spartanburg, S. C., Mrs. studying hard for their "Tendericot of the North Carolina Federation.

Winston Salem where she has been on tural woman and how she may atin extended visit to her sister, Mrs. filinte with the State Foderation." Mrs. Jane E. McKimmon, State Home Demonstration Agent.

Address: "The woman's commission in Florence, S. C., returned yesterday Mrs. Albert E. Thornton, vice-president of the United Good Roads Association and president of the Woman's Com-visiting her brother, Mr. Ben Howard Address: "Legislative program of and Mrs. Howard, returned to her home North Carolina Women," Mrs Palmer in Wilson yesterday.

Mrs. Charles Wetherington, traveling Council of North Carolina, and chair-representative of the American Tobacs man committee on legislation, North Discussion: "Legislation in the Southeastern States," representative of the Southeastern States.

4:00 o'clock: Conference on district presidents, North Carolina Pederation, Mrs. John L. Gilmers president. 5:00 o'clock tea. at club house-Pine-

Mr. Nathan Edwards of High Point, hurst (Courtesy Club women of the is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah fifth district, Mrs. W. P. Horton pres-

Wednesday Evening 8:00 o'clock, the Carolina Mrs. J. E. Hayes, president. Selections ... The Carolina Orchestra Motion pictures

Address: "The Public's Responsibility" Rev. Chester Marshall Music: Violin-Old Refrain Arr. by Kreisler Meditation (from Thais) .. Massenet

Addresses of Welcome:-Mrs. Sydney P. Cooper, president of the North Carolina Federation. M is Margaret Lovell Gibson, direct- little howdyde with Blackie. or of the General Federation, Mrs. W. P. Horton, president of the fifth district. Southeastern Council, greetings. Mrs. W. S. Jennings, first vice-president of the General Federation.

ocal selection:-Address: Woman's New Responsibility, fish stories are true; but this it Hon. R. N. Page.

Misic: Instrumental:-Mrs. Cora Cox Lucas, South Carolinn.

Given by Mrs. Sydney P. Cooper, president of the North ident of the Southern Council and delegates and visiting club women.

Wednesday merning, Dec. 6, 9:30 o'clock, the Carolina Mrs. J. E. Hayes, presiding Business Session.

Wednesday afternoon 2 o'clock the Carolina

Mrs. J. E. Hayes, presiding. Asembly singing with the state of the state Helen Whitaker, State school for the Blind, Raleigh.

Address: "A Feredation of Opportunities Mr. Turner Jones Public relations representative Southern enterprises. Music vocal:-

In the Wood of Finvara, H. T. Bur-Tomorrow, Harold Vincent Milligan Spring Song of the Robin Woman, Charles Wakefield Cadman (from "Shonewis").

Alice Menerieff.

Accompanist Sue Kyle Southwick St. Mary's School, Raleigh. The North Carolina Council Meeting will follow the meeting of the Southon Thursday morning, December 7, at 3 o'clock when the Executive Board goes in ression. At 10 o'clock, there will be an important business session, with Mrs. Sydney P. oCoper presiding. In addition to the speakers included ably be several men and women of national reputation present to address and thought he would rest a while, and the convention on various interesting so he tied his line to the seat and and timely topics; but the names of sat down. these speakers cannot be definitely announced till the last moment before the meeting.

2:00 o'clock. Mrs. Sydney P. Cooper and Mrs. Uncle Joe's hat off in the creek. And

th. Hakenyah.

Troop If of Girl Scouts, familiarly Carolina and Formal opening of the to the Women of North Carolina, Dr. have all the others at the creek at

In honor of her sister, Mrs. E. M. good meetings recently. They are barely ten, have had two very president of the Southeastern Council Drive to Samarcand (Courtesy of Plackie and went by to tell Dr. Communication of her sister, Mrs. E. M. good meetings recently. They are and Mrs. Sydney P. Cooper, president the board of directors and superintend. to meet them at Jocko Monkey's house (Continued on Page Five)

Every woman treasures beautiful Jewelry, and a Christmas gift of it is sure to win her grateful admiration. Particularly if it's chosen from our exquisitely designed selec-Our Jewelry stock is complete for Christmas giving-from inexpensive novelties to

R. A. CREECH

SLEEPY TIME FOR

BILLIE'S FISH STORY.

(By D. Sam Cox)

"You won't believe me, Blackie, and I don't blame you, for it does sound night when he came over to have a don't expect me to believe," said Blacesponse to addresses of welcome:— s kie, 'but I guess you are about right, Mrs. J. E. Hayes, president of the for whenever I have believed you I have almost always got into trouble. But what is this thing that you don't expect me to believe?"

"Well," said Billie Possum, "it's a Mrs. Thomas Masjin, Winston-Salem, fish story, and you know michig, for a real true-true story."

"All right," said Blackie, "if it is true, go shead and tell it, and I will tdy mghty hard to believe it.

So Billie began: "This morning when Carolina I was coming out of Jocko Monkey's house, where I spent the night, I heard an awful noise out in the creek, and when I looked I saw Uncle Joe out there in a boat, and he was just pulling up the biggest fish I ever saw.

"The fish jumped up out of the water, and honestly, Blackie, he was as long as you. Uncle Joe kept pulling and pulling, but he couldn't get the fish any closer to the boat.

"Mr. Fish kept jumping out of the water like he just wanted to let Uncle he would fall back into the creek."

boat till the line was right loose, and then be caught it in his mouth and Thursday afternoon, the Carolina bit it in two. Then he swam up close to the best and jumped up and knocked I tell you that fish was as long as you,

"Well, well," said Blackie Bear, "that certainly is some fish story, but I don't beliege it. But I will tell you what I will do. I have a big figh line that is made of wire, and Mr. Fish can't bite Department of health: Mrs. Charles par break it; so, just full from if you will get Josko Monkey, and Dr. Cook can got a bits brow that little minnow > sunrise next morning, and to be left the next morning.

and see the beautiful line of Coats and Coat Suits just received.

of the very latest models

Beautifully Designed

SEE THEM

North Centre Street E. Goldsboro, N. C.

SCOTT, CHARNLEY & COMPANY Certified Public Accountants

23 Trust Building

Charlotte, N. C.

Wilmington, N. C. Washington, D. C. WILMINGTON, N. C. Greensboro, N. C. Columbia, S. C.

Raleigh, N. C.

Suggestion Christmas

PAJAMAS

They make a suitable, likable gift—the ones we are now showing for Christman for surpass any we've evor seep factore and the prices are reasonable, $2 to $5. Please see then so as to please him.

www.minner A. A. Joseph, My Outfitter

Ender Kinnon Hotel