

NOTES FOR THE WEEK FROM WOMAN'S CLUB

Aycock Essay Prizes—Club Members to Hear Miss Kelly; Carnival Thursday and Friday

The Women's Club Bazaar held Friday, Dec. 8th, in the club room was all that could have been expected—and more. There was a steady stream of shoppers practically all day, and all the time to look for something to buy. The articles of food sold more readily than the fancy work articles, though the tasteful variety of needlework collected received much favorable comment. All cakes and pies were sold in advance order and the "big" chicken salad had to be replenished several times during the day. Four club circles, headed by Mrs. B. O'B. Robinson, Mrs. W. H. Cobb, Mrs. Sol Isaac and Mrs. Colin Moore, contributed articles for the bazaar. Mrs. Sol Isaac's circle won the distinction of realizing most money from the sale of their wares. Altogether, a neat little sum was applied to the club building fund.

The regular meeting of the Fortnightly Book Club will be held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in the club hall. Mrs. J. N. Johnson, chairman of the literature department, will review "One of Ours," by Willa Cather, one of the most successful recent novels. This branch of the Woman's Club is one of its best developed activities. The average attendance at the meetings of the Fortnightly Book Club is thirty five. Club members and their guests are welcome.

To support the interest in Aycock Day, Nov. 15th, the Woman's Club offered a series of prizes for the best high school and grammar school essays in the city and the county, and the largest percentage of contributions to the Aycock Memorial Fund. The winners of these prizes, which were five dollars each, are: Essays—Goldsboro high school—Hyman Cohen, sophomore; grammar school—James Walter Smith, 6A; Wayne county, Emma Jeffries, Rosewood high school; Pearl Helm, Woodland Grammar school. Largest percentage of contributions—Falling Creek high school.

A great deal of interest was manifested in this contest and the judges found it a difficult task to select the most excellent of the many papers handed in.

The Goldsboro Woman's Club, through its president, Mrs. L. D. Giddens, is in receipt of an invitation from the Walnut Street Parent-Teacher Association to meet Miss Elizabeth Kelly, who will talk to the parents, teachers and club members at the Walnut street school Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 12th, at 4 o'clock. Miss Kelly is one of the state's best known educators, as commissioner of adult illiteracy, she has awakened up North Carolina as to the surprising number of her citizens who cannot even sign their names. Miss Kelly was only last week elected president of the N. C. Teachers' Assembly at its annual Thanksgiving session in Raleigh. All club members will welcome this opportunity to hear the message which she will bring.

The Woman's Club wishes to commend the fine state of organization that has been reached by the local Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts. These boys and girls have made themselves so generally useful during all recent public occasions, such as Armistice Day and the Wayne county fair, that it is an easy matter to prophesy just what type of citizens they will make when they reach maturity. The purposes of both organizations are excellent and both are equally fortunate in their directors, Miss Katherine Park and Mr. Page Rees.

Committees from the Woman's Club are cooperating with the local chairman, Mr. Lionel Weil, in the appeal for help for the New Bern fire sufferers. The club has collected a large supply of bedding and clothes, in addition to private cash subscriptions.

Mrs. Wm. Spicer and Mrs. Sol Isaac's circles are combining forces for an indoor carnival on Thursday and Friday nights of this week at the Hotel Kennon. Mr. Vanstony has kindly offered the club the use of the large assembly room on the first floor, just back of the hotel lobby. A number of games, including the ever-popular "bingo", special features, fortune telling, and refreshments will be offered. The fun will last from 8 to 11 o'clock both Thursday and Friday nights. The proceeds will go toward the club building fund.

Goldsboro women attending the Southeastern council of the General Federation of Women's clubs in session at Pinehurst last week were: Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, Mrs. E. M. Land, Mrs. Rastelle Smith and Mrs. Mary Faison Duvane.

BAPTISTS AND METHODISTS RESPONSIBLE FAITH PRISONERS

"The ninety second session will convene Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock and will receive the reports of the corresponding secretary of the convention and the board of education. Secretary Vann will read the latter report."

MAN THREW THIRCE FOR MURDER, ONCE FOR INSANITY, FREED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 9.—Arthur B. Burch had his freedom three times for murder and once for insanity. The jurists on the murder charges all disagreed, and the alienist at the insanity hearing did likewise, but the weight of the expressed belief of the jurists was that Burch was sane or harmless if insane, so his freedom was restored to him.
