Senator Simmons Believes Ship Liquor Question Can Be Satisfactorily Settled By Congress

Senator Stops Here On Way To Raleigh And Talks On Hardings Tour

He Doesn't Believe President Is Making Much Impression on the Country By His Speeches

NOT GOING TO CAPITOL FOR POLITICAL REASONS

Senator F. M. Simmons, in an interview here last night stated that "I think the administration and the treasury officials are exactly right in strictly enforcing the decision of the supreme court, with reference to the ship liquor question."

"There is a certain comity that must exist, however, between the nations of the world and when congress meets we shall make an effort to put the matter on an international basis," Senator Simmons added.

The senator member of the upper house from North Carolina was looking healthy and stated that he had been doing nothing but resting since returning from Washington. He was on his way to Raleigh from New Bern, making the trip through the country.

"When asked if any tariff legislation was coming up at the next congress he laughed. 'I don't think so, but the Democratic party is coming into power in 1925 and then we will go into the tariff situation and fix it so it will be fair to all mankind.'

Speaking of the President's trip to the coast he was of the opinion that the speeches, the type of speeches the President was making would have but little effect on the country.

REVIVAL LARGELY ATTENDED IN SPITE OF BAD WEATHER

Dr. Wall Pleases Big Crowd With An Excellent Sermon on First Night

SONG LEADER VERY PLEASING

"WORKING BY WEeping"

The revival services at the Currin Warehouse last night were largely attended as they were on Sunday night when the meeting opened. Dr. Zeno Wall, who is doing the preaching, was pleasing and delivered a strong sermon.

The singing with Leader Wolf-singal in charge is one of the features of the meeting. He is making himself popular with the crowd and is getting some fine singing out of them.

Practically every chair in the huge tabernacle was taken on the first night. Dr. Wall expressed himself as being very much pleased with attendance.

Sunday's sermon is full is given below:

Text: Psalm 126, 6th verse: "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."

"I want to speak tonight upon the subject of working by weeping. There are three rather strange ways by which God's people have been effective in the past, for working effectively in the past, and these three ways are first by waiting, second in weakness, and third by weeping. That's a strange way to do things.

Work first of all by waiting, and we have the promise that they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, shall mount up as on the wings of the eagle, shall run and not be weary, walk and not faint and then again in returning and rest shall you be saved; in quietness and confidence shall be your strength; God saying to us that he who waits patiently is able to work effectively.

My Brother, if there shall be patient, united, earnest, continuous expectation waiting upon God here God will open the windows of Heaven and pour us out blessings; God will make bare his mighty arm and his strength shall be seen and felt, and his power and glory shall be manifest in our midst.

The other strange way by which people have worked and accomplished things have been in weakness. Paul shouted out "When I am Weak Then I am am strong" and he tells us how God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise and the weak things of the world to confound the mighty and powerful ones that no flesh should glory other than in the power of God. He tells us that when we are weak then we are strong.

If in the beginning of this Evangelistic Campaign each and all shall feel his weakness and feel his weak to the holy spirit as shall insure our having that divine power that the Lord he tells us again that we work by weeping. "He that goeth forth and weepeth shall accomplish things."

Now there are in the text which I have just quoted four pictures that I would have you to look at for just a moment. The first picture is that of God's child going forth to his field of labor. The second picture is that of God's child out yonder on his field of labor weeping and sewing precious seed. The third and perhaps the most inspiring of all is that of God being over his faithful child out yonder at his task and assuring him of success. The fourth is that of God's child having finished his task after gleaming shaves from the world and going back home rejoicing bringing his sheaves along with him.

Let's look first of all at God's child as he goes forth and hearing the scripture as they say "He that goeth forth;" and what is the picture that comes to our mind? It is that of a plainly dressed man with a basket of grain upon his arm, with frankness on his face, with faith in his step, with purity of purpose, going forth to his field of labor thinking not about how much he can get out of the world, but how much he can give to the world in his day and in his generation; thinking not about

MEMORIAL "FIN'Z THING" SAYS SEN. SIMMONS OF N. C.

"It is a fine thing you are doing here in Goldsboro when you build a living memorial to the boys who died," said Senator Simmons last night.

"I know of no other place anywhere that has done up fine a thing in the way of building a memorial. It shows the appreciation of a great people for the whole hearted sacrifices made by its boys during the war time, and I want to say that Goldsboro and Wayne County are to be congratulated. I hope you will be able to raise the amount to $35,000 without trouble, and I think you will.

MEMORIAL CAMPAIGN PROGRESSING WITH ONLY $3,100 TO RAISE

Mr. Weil Extends Another Call For the People of Goldsboro To Push the Indicator To the Top and Make the Figure $35,000

AMOUNT SHOULD BE RAISED SOON

The Memorial Community Building Fund continues to grow. $31,100 was reported yesterday afternoon. Only $3,900 now needed to push the little flag to highest mark, $35,000, on the indicator. Surely there are still some generous spirits in Goldsboro who have not already contributed to this memorial for our boys who risked their all that liberty should be vouchsafed to us. An analysis of the contributions reveals the fact that they have been given by over eight hundred people which together with former subscriptions in all probability will reach twelve hundred subscribers, a popular subscription indeed from a grateful people.

Yesterday's canvass are incomplete only about an hour's team report and women fund report deferred until later in the week. Everyone will be given an opportunity to contribute until the goal of $35,000 is reached.

Seizures Made Under De Goutt's Order Giving Rights To Private Property as Reparation

THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT ROUNDHOUSE TAKEN

DUESSELDORF, July 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—The first seizures under General DeGoutt's degree giving the occupation forces power to take over private property for reparation purposes were announced today. Three plants were taken over by the French the first being a branch of the Krupp Locomotive Works at Segeroth a little station, near Essen.

Four new locomotives were seized at these works which now are occupied with the manufacture of locomotives instead of big guns. General Development Of Nation's Resources Advocated By Harding

Chief Executive Says "Shouldn't Look Up Domain As 'Treasury House'"

HARDING RUNS TRAINS DOWN MOUNTAIN

SPOKANE, Wash., July 2.—Gradual development of the nation's natural resources rather than preservation of them in their original state was advocated by President Harding here tonight as the only conservation policy America dare commit itself to.

The president speaking on "Development Reclamation and Water Utilization" declared against locking up the public domain "As a treasury house of potential wealth" on the grounds that such action would prevent it being ready for use when needed. He made it plain that he stood for gradual development such as the use of water for both irrigation and power and for a policy of reforestation that preserves the national interest while permitting use of the timber as needed.

Mr. Harding's address delivered in the amphitheater here was the first he has made on the Pacific Slope since he became President. He expressed the belief "We may confidently look forward to a generation in which young and vigorous men of the West will lead the population as the entire country has today."

TOBACCO-MARKET HERE IN READINESS TO START BUSINESS

Managers of the Auction Market Expect Great Open Market of Year

CROP CONDITIONS THE VERY BEST

Early in the spring of this year a number of business men of the city got together and decided they would have an open auction market in Goldsboro as well as the co-operatives.

The result of that is that the two warehouses they started will be ready for use when the tobacco market opens up here August 21. There is no disposition on the part of the open market folks to fight the co-operatives, neither is there a fight so far as the co-ops are concerned. Both feel that there is room here for both, according to an official connected with the open market.

The managers of the local warehouses, both co-operative and open expect the greatest season for several years. The crop prospects at the present time are better than they have been for years and tobacco men are enthusiastic over the prospect of bumper crop. A tobacco man stated last night that the crop was at the very least fifty per cent better this year than it was last. All grades of tobacco are included in the estimate.

The local warehouses, of which D. Currin and Lee Alpha are managers, will open up for business on August 21. They are employed as fine a force of auctioneers as can be secured, and they have employed the best core buyers obtainable.

Both the managers express themselves as being very thankful to Goldsboro business interest for the unusual amount of encouragement they have received from them. Mr. Currin stated last night that he had never seen Goldsboro take so much interest.

3000 IMMIGRANTS ADMITTED TO U S IN THREE DAYS

Nine Thousand Others Still Being Held in New York Harbor

MANY WILL HAVE TO RETURN

NEW YORK, July 2.—The number of immigrants who have been examined and allowed to enter the United States since the new alien quota opened Sunday passed the three thousand mark today. These people, many of whom traveled as much as five thousand miles and spent the entire trip worrying about whether they would arrive in time to enter the country hurried off the small ferry which runs between Ellis Island and Manhattan dividing their attention between the friends who rushed to meet them and the towering buildings of lower Broadway.

Some nine thousand others still are being held at the immigration station or are waiting aboard ship for their examinations. Thousands will be sent back over the long ocean reaches without ever setting feet on the continent. Liners continued to arrive today and were held in the bay while passengers leaned over the rail trying to get a glimpse of the promised land.

The quotas for Asia and Africa already have been filled and many more will be hausted when the ships now in port have been examined. Among these will be Greek.
