on, Dec. 19.—President Calvin Howing statement as to the fight of the shippers of the State fight recently filed with the state Commerce Commission in fort to increase the State rates

In effort to increase the State rates Mr. Woodard expresses sinazement to the boldmens of this attack. In the rate that is often referred ons the Eastern Rate Case proceed-ngs initiated by the Chambers of of merce, principally of Eastern h Carolina, in 1919, remove any of the rate discriminate against State in favor of the so-called Virginia cities. Since the winning of this victory by the North Carolina shippers Virginia has constantly enavored to off-set the same. The ipping interest of that State have held several conferences in an effort overcome the victory of North Carolina Shippers and have perfected splendid organization and on Dec. 12th filed a complaint with the Inter-tate Commerce Commission at Wash-

Atlanta, Dec. 20.- Working grimly hroughout the night to select outjury rying the case of Philip E. Fox charged with the murder of William S. Coburn, Ku Klux Klan, attorney, defense begun yesterday when the introduction of evidence, was completed

Early today it appeared certain that the case would be placed in the hands of the pury before night. The verdict, if Fox is found not guilty of the charge of murder in the first de-gree, will automatically free him. If he is found gailty of the charge, he will face hanging. A third possibilly, a verdict of guilty with recomendation for mercy, carries with it a fixed penalty of life imprisonment. Robert Allen, Dulins, Texas, attor-ney, was scheduled to carry on the continuation of the defense argu-ment with the convening of court this morning. He was to be follow o by Hugh Dorsey, former Governo of Georgia Mr. Dorsey was to close wor the defense. Solicitor John A. Boykin chief of the state's staff of atorneys, was elected to deliver the final prosecution argument.
