THE OPENING GUN

Hon. Josiah William Bailey, one of North Carolina's most gifted speakers, a leader in the fanks of demosracy and one of the greatest exponents of the party's cause that has ever been beard in Goldsboro, last night fired the opening gun in the democratic campaign in Wayne counare intending to "make things hum."

Mr. Bailey set forth the principles of democracy in a clear, straightforward manner and asked each and every one of those in his audience to stand for those things, at all times.

to the polls on election day and casting a ballot. North Carolina democrats, he asserted, should poll the greatest vote at the coming election in the history of the state and he predicted that they would do this.

Wayne county democrats have never been found lacking and they will not be in this case. They are plan ming to do their part on next election day and to roll up the heaviest vote county has ever given.

HELP THE FAIR

Season tickets for the forthcoming Wayne county fair will go on sale tomorrow morning and every resident of Goldsboro is being urged to purchase a season ticket.

The holder of a season ticket to the air not only saves money but he or omething all of us should do whenschets will be on sale on and after worry? comparrow and decide to purchase one or more of them.

BOOSTING THE BOY SCOUTS

Kinston appreciates its Boy Scouts. ust as Goldsboro does, and the newspers there never let an opportunity heir work.

During the recent fair is that city, Scouts did splendid work. a supervision of Mr. W. W. Press, of that city, had this to say their activities then and in gen-

Boy Scout work has a strong laim on the liberality of the comaunity where the boys live, and that for two good reasons. First, the development of boys themselves, physially, intellectually, and spiritually, as been noticed to a marked degree most unselfish servants in the community, and none take greater delight in rendering service. During the recent Kinston Fair these boys gave to the community 339 hours of the mest unselfish service. They were found ready at all times to answer any call of need falling in their aphere of activity. In the last 12 months the scouts have given 1,600 Lours of such service to the community. Large numbers of these boys have recived merit badges for meting specific tests in scouting. When the Boy Scout rally for Tuscarora district is held at Wilson, October 24, Kinston will be represented by two of its boys because, of all the boys in the district, they have received the largest number of merit badges. These facts in the interest of the boys ought to arouse and encourage that Kinston, like all other towns in vited. the district, will quickly subscribe her quota of $2,000 for scout work next year. She will be asked to do so it a few weeks."

CONTEMPT OF COURT

Judge M. V. Barnhill yesterday agutenced a Johnston county farmer to jail for a period of days, placed a fine of fifty dollars upon him and ordered that he pay for his board while incarcerated.

MORRISON IS RIGHT

At Albemarle Wednesday night Gevernor Morrison painted a beau tiful word picture of what North Carolina could be if the voters would rally to the support of the port ter's minals bill at the forthcoming election and put their oken upon the measure. He pointed out that this state could cast aside, the yoke of millions of dollars in high freight rates and could blossom forth like

And Governor Morrison was abso lutely correct in his statements.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN IN WAYNE COUNTY IS OPENED BY ONE OF PARTY LEADERS

(Continued From Page Que) as a bell on this question. I am glad is so. Expediency will serve to check many who are not disposed to involved in this campaign touching respond to great principles.

"The old tariff question, as be tween tariff for protection, on one hand, and reveue on the other, has passed out. We have in this respect entered a new phase. The Democra tie platform does not oppose a pro since the scout work has been push- tective tariff. It denounces the abuse ed in Kinston. The second claim k of the competition. This is wase. AS TO PERSONALITIES.

"There is no room for personaliles in this campaign. Reflections upon the character or personal appearance of the President are not to be tolerated. One cannot review Mr. out admiration. He is a man of great understanding of public matters, of high principles well considered, and of unquestioned probity. He is a calm and careful man. And he is at worst as good-looking as those whose criticise his appearance. Of Mr. Davis I peech. He is beyond all question an xtraordinary man. Those whe oppose im recognize his high qualifications or the Presidency. Responsible Reications or his character. La Fol dential temperament. He is wrong because of his sincerity, his charactr and force. Of this I mean to speak at more length. Mr. Coolidge repreof view that I oppose: and I shall President; he has all the dimensions braw about his association with Mr. Morgan's bank, When Woodrow Wiles; Morgan made him his lawyer, He was faithful in each relation, and in each he proved his ability. In his relations as lawyer be was open and above-board. His refusal to serve his relations with Morgan's Bank when a candidate for the nomination marked him as a man whose character may be relied upon. That s the sort of man we must always seek for the Presidency. "So much for the personal aspects of the candidates for President, I regret that we cannot speak so well of year that the next president will not tie. Dawes is an impossibility. The Republicans bid us to keep kool with Coolidge. We are too cool already with Coolidge; but I do not want to keep damning with Dawes. Bryan is not well qualified for the presidency; and Wheeler is unthinkable. Of the three Bryan is by oddso the most ac-

An Appeal

Ladies Benevolent Society was or ganized by a few of the ladies of Goldsbore who had a great deal of the "Milk of Human Kindness" n their hearts.

The purpose of this organization was to alleviate the wants of the unfortunate poor who were un able to provide the necessities of life for themselves and their famithese Godly women when this So ciety war first organized: They went on for many years soliciting from the generous people of our City the necessary funds to care for these unfortunate.k

As the years went by this Association consisting of a dezen we men grew rapidly, and their income grew as the good people of this town knew and understood the splendid work being done by

About twelve years ago the name of this Association was chan ged to the "Charity Organization Society," this name implying more clearly the work being done by these splendid women. No one, except the unfortunate of this City. know the amount of real good that this Association has done and is doing in Goldsboro.

The requirement of this Association at first were not large probably the collection of a few hundred dollars a year, was sufficient to care for the needs of the themselves, but Goldsboro has grown to be a hustling, bustling City, and to-day, conservatively speaking we have fourteen of fifteen thousand population, and a ong this large number of people need the helping hand of some one

The C. O. S. is putting on a cam paign on the 21st and 22nd of this month to raise a sufficient sum of money to take care of those who financially or physically are unable to take care of them selves. These good women are asking that FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS, he contributed by the citizens of Goldsboro for this

Forty or fifty citizens have been equested to meet in the room's. ization will be perfected to go out next day to wait upon the citizens of Goldsbor and to raise this much needed sum of money.

It behooves every man, and we man in Goldsboro who is able toand thank God you are a contributor and not a receiver-When tell them with a smile you are glad they came, and to come back

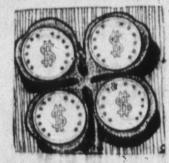

It does not make any difference whether the recent freshet has down; cemember that you are far this four thousand dollar fund. We have Biblical authority for the statement "The poor ye have with you always."

"The Lord Loveth a Cheerful Giver." Respectfully, Nathan O'Berry

CYCLONE RELIEF

General Chairman.

Rome. - The government has approriated 6.500,00 lire for relief of suffers in the Lake Maggoire region I struck by a cyclone in August.
