WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

The first regular monthly meeting of the club year will be held at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 23rd in the club room. A number of interesting features are being arranged and a large at-endance is expected. All new members are especially urged to be present.

The Fall Flowers show promises to be a great success. Mrs. Oettinger's many efforts to increase in Goldsboro citizens a love of the beauties of nature are certainly bearing fruit. The Flower Show will be open afternoon and night, Monday Oct. 20th at the Goldsboro Public Library and is absolutely free to everybody. Flower growers are requested to send their loveliest specimens for display. Hand-some prizes will be awarded.

The Fortnightly Book Club meeting on Thursday, morning proved quite interesting to the club members who were present. Mrs. Peter McIntyre, in a review of Thomas Hardy's work was made all the more comprehensive by the fact that Mrs. McIntyre, who is an Englishwoman is intimately acquainted with the scenes and settings of this noted English writer's work.

The club year books have come in for a large amount of praise. The book was compiled by Miss Gertrude Well and contains a valuable fund of information for club members. Those who have failed to receive their year books should notify Mrs. N. A. Edwards.

The executive board meeting for October will be held at Mrs. Paul Borden's home Wednesday morning of this week at 11 o'clock.

All applications for membership should be in as early as possible in order that they may be passed upon at the executive meeting Wednesday. Make application to Mrs. C. E. Norris, membership chairman.

Sign up cards have been distributed to all club members who will not be present at the "Get Together" dinner. These cards provide space for enrolling in one or several of the club departments and should be carefully filled out and returned at once to the club secretary.

The Cafeteria expects to come in for a large share of satisfying the appetites of Fair visitors at the Wayne County Fair next week with an up-to-date sanitary food booth, where complete meals or light lunches may be secured at a normal price.

The circles are soething with activity! Several sewing parties have been held in the interests of the Christmas bazaar, and a number of coming attractions will be presented by the club, including parties, cake sales, dramatic events, and entertainments for the children.

All chairman of committees and departments are asked to have written reports of their activities for the past month to present at the Oct. meeting. Reports should be typed, and neatly written or typed on standard size paper, 8 1/2 by 11 inches.
