HE TAKES A SHOT AT IT

Bro. S. S. Dunlap takes a try at explaining the rise and fall of civilizations in the past, and being ambitious, goes further and dips into the future. To him, as to many others, it is all very simple. In fact, it is so simple that it may be like the man who saw the grubs for the first time expressed it—"there ain't no such animal."

Where wealth accumulates and men decay. Princes and lords may flourish, or may fade. A breath can make them, as a breath has made.

We used to listen to the late S. S. McCauley discourse on the rise and fall of empires, especially that of Rome, and he had it all down line.

Putting in this. We favor every piece of legislation that seems to be for the benefit of country life, but we cannot be blind to the facts, in the face of such assumptions as Mr. Dunlap makes.

HOW THE FARCE WORKS

We are 2,000 years behind the times in our way of treating criminals, declared the pastor of the Moravian church of Charlotte in a sermon Sunday.

The records show that in the year 1724, 284 murders were committed in the city of New York, which is about the yearly average. At the same time there were only 161 arrests in New cases.

This is where the theory of the effectiveness of capital punishment breaks down. Unable to deter the great mass of murderers by the fear of punishment, and even unable to arrest them, and able to convict but few of those who are arrested, we take our spite out on the more helpless and defenseless ones of them.

No far so preventing murder is concerned, capital punishment is a blow out false.

French to End Control In 3 German Towns

MANHEIM, Germany, May 9.—Withdrawal of French control of German shipping at Karlsruhe, Rheinau and Mannheim has been fixed for tomorrow by an agreement between the Rhineland commission and the German government made today.

Now Mr. Dunlap sets forth that the fall of nations has always attended the desertion of the soil for dwellings and the purgation of the cities, and to some extent this seems to be true.

Mussolini to Take Portfolio Of Navy

ROME, May 9.—It was officially announced today that King Victor Emmanuel had accepted the resignation of Minister of the Navy Thaon de Revel, and had intrusted the naval portfolio to Premier Mussolini who will take the oath of office for that post before the king tomorrow.

WEDDING LICENSE ON TRUCK

DETROIT, May 9.—Marriage licenses at nothing down and $7 when the intended bridegroom gets his pay envelope Saturday became an accomplished fact here today.

Garfield Bean, twenty-five, appeared before Thomas F. Farrell, county clerk, and asked if he could get a license and pay for it tomorrow.

"I can't mind trusting you," said Mr. Farrell, "but why are you getting married when you haven't even a dollar for the license?"

"Personally, I would just as soon wait a while," Bean said, "but my girl has her mind set on being married tonight."

POLICE FIND PORTION OF CHAPMAN'S LOOT

NEW YORK, May 9.—Bonds that formed part of the loot of Gerald Chapman, convicted murderer and mail bandit, were recovered today with the arrest of John J. Phelan, charged with grand larceny in connection with a loan of $5,500 obtained from the First National Bank of Lynbrook, Long Island, on some of the stolen collateral.

Nassau county authorities said the numbers on some of the bonds deposited by Phelan corresponded with those on bonds stolen in the sensational lower Broadway mail truck robbery, in which Chapman and two pals were charged with having escaped with $2,400,000 worth of loot.

400 RIFLES ARE DEAD AS RESULT OF FIGHT

PARIS, May 9.—Five hundred rifles were killed in the recent engagement with the French forces in French Morocco, the foreign office announced today.

TOWN GOSSIP

THEY TOLD me at the office. THAT HE'D been in. TWO OR three times. WHILE I was out. AND HAD missed me each time. AND SHORTLY after noon. HE CAME in again. AND INTRODUCED himself. AND WENT on to say. THAT HE was taking orders. FOR A new encyclopedia. AND THAT my name. WAS AN important asset. AND IF I'd sign a slip. ENDORSING THE books. HE'D let me have them free. AND HE showed me an ad. IN THE Literary Digest. WHICH QUOTED the price. OF THE volumes. AS BEING more than $100. AND IT seemed rather strange. THAT AN individual. OR ANY concern. WOULD PAY that sum. FOR THE use of my name. AND I told him so. AND HE smiled. AND SPOKE gently. OF MY prominent position. AND WIDE influence.

AND A lot of things. OF THAT nature. AND HELD out his fountain pen. AND I took it. AND STARTED to sign. AND HE kept on talking. AND DURING the conversation. HE MENTIONED something. ABOUT LOOSE-LEAF additions. TO THE encyclopedia. AND RIGHT away. I GREW suspicious. AND ASKED him. WHETHER IT was necessary. TO TAKE the additions. AND HE said it was. AND THEN I asked him. HOW MUCH it cost. TO GET the additions. AND HE said. IT COST $65.50. ANL I said. "TAKE YOUR pen. "AND YOUR encyclopedia. AND GO down Center St. "AND SEE Dr. Monk. "BECAUSE HE told me. "ONLY THE other day. "HE WANTED a set like this. I THANK you.

demand there was nothing flashy about the attraction of Jack's. His message was excellent and his discipline exemplary. It was remarked that somebody might start a fight at Jack's but he couldn't finish it. Mr. Dunstan's wonderfully efficient corps of bouncers was a calming influence to too ebullient spirits. The steward proprietor believed in amenity and he believed in preparedness. New Yorkers who can look back a few years will be sorry to see Jack's go. In its day it was an oasis amidst for good cheer in the barest hours of the twenty-four. "All, all are gone, the old familiar places." —New York Herald-Tribune.

COP SHOTS COURT CLERK

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 9.—Harry L. McCaw, clerk of the state supreme court, was shot and killed in the state house early today by Joseph J. Lucas, Capitol policeman, who surrendered himself shortly afterward.

Lucas declared he shot in self-defense after McCaw had fired twice at him. After the shooting Lucas summoned the sheriff and a doctor, explaining that he "had to shoot a man."

McCaw's body, with a bullet through the heart, was found just inside the Capitol's south portico.

FAREWELL TO JACK'S Change of habit, change of taste, change of pretty much everything in the ways of Manhattan prematurely aged the famous resorts of twenty-old years ago. The scythe has now cut down Jack's as it did Delmonico's. If Rip Van Winkle who dozed off in 1900 should open his eyes anew on this city and look familiar haunts how few he would find, and those few how denatured!
