House And Senate Struggle Along In An Effort To Get Calendars Cleared Of Work

Senate Held a Session Last Night In Effort to Ward Off Unusual Pre-Adjournment Jam So That All Measures Could Be Disposed of In Time Tomorrow Afternoon to Permit Session Coming to Close

Washington, July 2.—Although the resolution providing for adjournment of Congress Saturday was held today, there was every indication that the present session would be brought to a close then.

Both the House and the Senate struggled along slowly to clear their calendars of pressing business and the Senate held a session tonight in an effort to ward off the usual pre-adjournment jam. The House, however, decided to forgo a night session, its leaders concluding there was not enough important legislation pending to warrant it.

Little difficulty is expected in reaching an agreement on points at issue and Chairman Madden, of the House Appropriations Committee, who lead the fight last week against adjourning, has indicated he will offer no objection to the plan of leaders to quit Saturday afternoon.

Two Primaries Will Cost the County of Wayne About $700—Second Held Tomorrow

With another primary being held in Wayne county tomorrow to select a candidate for the clerkship of the superior court, which office is now being held by Mr. John B. Hooks and who, with Mr. Jack Hill, is a candidate in tomorrow's primary, tax payers and voters will probably be interested in some statistics as to the cost of the first and second primary.

It is estimated that the total cost of holding the first primary, on June 3, was about $600. To offset this, $105 was collected as entry fees from the various candidates for office, the actual cost to Wayne county being about $500.

The second primary, it is estimated, will cost about $200 to conduct. There is no cost to the candidates for entry into this and the county will stand the outlay.

Thus the total net cost to Wayne county for conducting the two primaries will be about $700.

WAYNE DEMOCRATS ALL READY VOTE SATURDAY

Indications Are That Vote Cast In Second Primary, To Be Held Tomorrow For Purpose of Nominating Candidate For Clerkship of Superior Court, Will Be Large—Much Interest Manifest

Interest of Wayne county's democratic voters is now centered on the run-off primary which is to be held tomorrow and at which time J. B. Hooks, present incumbent and J. H. (Jack) Hill, candidates for the office of the clerk of the court of Wayne county, are to go before the voters with their candidacies and seek the nomination to the office which virtually means election.

Messrs Hooks and Hill were the two high candidates in a field of three in the first primary, held on June 3. Mr. Hooks leading his nearest opponent, who later requested and secured a second primary in order that the voters might decide the question by their ballots.

Both candidates have a large number of interested friends and since the first primary was held these have been allowing no grass to grow under their feet, so to speak, in working in the interest of their favorites.

Incidentally, as on the occasion of the first primary, it will hardly.

Indications are that there will be a heavy vote polled. Friends of both men stating that their favorite will be nominated but not until the votes are counted tomorrow night will the result be known.

Incidentally, as on the occasion of the first primary, it will hardly.

Wilmington, July 1.—Complying with the request of John D. Bellamy, chief of counsel for thirteen members of the crew of the rum boat Elma, district attorney Irving B. Instead Of Playing Golf and Tennis, the Seekers After A Thrill In Oklahoma Try Their Hand At Steer Wrestling

Wrestling 900 pound longhorn steers is about the most dangerous of all cowboy sports. Mike Hastings, of Cienega, Wyo., has just landed on this steer after a leap from his horse. To let his feet touch the ground before slowing the steer—probably would mean a broken leg. Once the animal is stopped the wrestler has to twist him down by the horns. Bob Crosby, of Kenna, N. M., has "bused" the steer in close enough for Hastings to make the leap.

UNDERWR PLANT LIKELY OPERATE HERE IT IS SAID

If Sufficient Labor Can Be Secured, Plant Will Be Equipped and Operated

If there are one hundred and fifty women and girls in Goldsboro and vicinity who will be available within the course of a few months for employment in a plant manufacturing high grade men's underwear and where working conditions will be most ideal, Goldsboro has an excellent opportunity to secure such a plant.

The Chamber of Commerce through its secretary, W. C. Deamark, has been working with this in view for the past ninety days and the project has now reached the point where the men who would come here and equip such a plant want to know definitely if sufficient labor is available.

Every woman and girl who would accept employment in the plant, assured in the fact that they will be well paid for their work, is requested to either send or telephone their name and address to the Chamber of Commerce as soon as possible.

This information will be held in the strictest confidence and the list will be turned over to the men who are planning to operate the plant, in case they decide to come to Goldsboro.

The Goldsboro News Always Gets Results For Its Advertisers

A few weeks ago Harry Gardner, "The Human Fly," came to Goldsboro representing that well known and popular soft drink, Nutrape and scaled the walls of the Goldsboro hotel without aid of any sort of device, merely clawing his way up to the front of the eight story building.

The event was advertised exclusively in The Goldsboro News in two news stories, one on each of two days, and between 3,000 and 4,000 people were on hand to see Mr. Gardner do his stuff.

That was the result of GOLDSBORO NEWS ADVERTISING.

Last night in a down town drug store a salesman for a fountain pen gave away a chest of silver and other prizes. He had invited the public, through a paper other than The News, to be on hand to share in this award. The prizes were to be given to just anyone who happened to hold the lucky ticket, a ticket which didn't cost them a cent. He wanted a big crowd, he wanted "the entire Goldsboro public to come out."

There were less than fifty persons on hand when the prizes were awarded.

THESE ARE COLD, HARD, IRREFUTTABLE FACTS AND DEMONSTRATE THE PULLING POWER OF PUBLICITY IN THE GOLDSBORO NEWS.
