LENOIR COUNTY MAN HELD ON MURDER CHARGE

DR. ANDERSON DENIES CRUEL TREATMENT OF INSANE

Clyde Broughton Charged With Having Caused The Death Of William Teachey

Ante-Mortem Statement Made By Victim of Brutal Attack Last Thursday Night at Point on the Goldsboro-Seven Springs Highway and Other Evidence Caused the Coroner's Jury to Order Broughton Held Without Bond

Clyde Broughton, young white man whose home is in the Seven Springs section of Lenoir county, is being held in the Wayne county jail in default of bond in connection with the death of William Teachey another young white man, of the Teachey section, who died in the Goldsboro hospital Sunday morning as the result of a skull fracture which he received when struck on the head last Thursday night at a store on the Goldsboro-Seven Springs highway.

Broughton was the man whom Teachey told officers struck him with the bottle, this statement being made shortly after they had found him following the affair. On the strength of this ante-mortem statement and other evidence which authorities have but which they have not disclosed, he was ordered held by the coroner's jury which held an inquest over the body.

It is said that the affair was the result of an argument and an affray which occurred at the store in question and in a section which has been noted for its blockading and bootlegging activities. The body of the dead man was carried to his former home on Sunday and was interred near that place later. He was held in high esteem in his home community and his untimely death is generally regretted by a large circle of friends.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONFERENCE A GREAT SUCCESS

Recent Session Held At Louisburg Voted the Best Ever Held

The Epworth League Conference of the North Carolina Methodist conference, which has recently been held at Louisburg College, Louisburg, N. C., was noted the best held in years. About 300 delegates attended. The Goldsboro Leaguers played an important part in this conference, furnishing not only several delegates, but officers and one of the instructors. Rev. W. F. Watkins, Jr., taught two of the courses given, Mr. C. G. Cobb, who has been treasurer for four years was re-elected. Mr. A. E. Brown was elected Advocate Page Editor, Miss Eula Hackley was appointed secretary for the New Bern district. Miss Stella Crone received a certificate for Christian culture. Other delegates and visitors from Goldsboro were Miss Ruby Crow, Miss Eleanor Cobb, and Miss Imogene Barrett.

The delegates report that the management at the college was such that no one had any suggestions to offer for the following year. This is the breaking of one more precedent not only in the South, but in the world. The college is an ideal place for the conference. President Mohr and the people of Louisburg gave them a hearty welcome, and everything possible was done for the pleasure and comfort of the guests. They had full use of the college buildings, the assembly hall, dining room, class rooms and dormitories. Each guest paid a very modest sum for table-board, no charge being made for bedrooms. They also had the use of the Methodist church grounds and the High School Building.

In every way the conference at Louisburg College was so enjoyable and instructive, that the members noted to meet there again next year. This will convene somewhat earlier the date being set for about the 27th of June.

The following interesting resolution was adopted by the Epworth Leaguers of the North Carolina Conference in the closing business session on Friday:

"Whereas, a little more than 149 years ago the first annual conference in American Methodism was held at the Green Hill House near Louisburg where were assembled Bishops Coke and Asbury and 21 itinerant Methodist preachers; and whereas this important site so dear to the heart of Methodism of North Carolina should be purchased and preserved as a memorial to the pioneers of early Methodism;

Be it resolved that we the Epworth Leaguers of the North Carolina Conference do hereby petition the North Carolina Conference to take such action as they deem necessary to carry out the purpose of this resolution. As the young people of the North Carolina Conference we pledge our loyal support to further this cause. Be it further resolved that the president of this assembly appoint a committee of three members to confer with the League Assembly of the Western North Carolina Conference to co-operate with us in this undertaking.

The Green Hill place was for many years the home of the late M. S. Davis, president of Louisiana College. President Davis was the father of one of our own Goldsboro patriots of a few years ago, Rev. H. H.

NAVAL ARSENAL BLAZE HAS BEEN CONQUERED

Blaze at Lake Denmark, N. J., Receded From the Danger Line Yesterday and For First Time Since Fire Started Men Were Allowed to Enter the Danger Zone—Number of Missing Now About Seven

Dover, N. J., July 13.—The late Denmark fire receded from the danger line today.

Ever since a bolt of lightning ignited a supply of T. N. T. at the naval ammunition depot Saturday and caused a series of explosions that wiped out a score of lives and did damage estimated at $100,000,000 it had been feared the fire might spread to the adjoining army arsenal. If that had happened, officers expressed the opinion explosions would have resulted to make the naval hoto-act seem like fireworks.

It seemed for a time today that this would occur. An unfortunate shift in the wind sent flames racing down upon a group of naval magazines as yet unexploded and one of them caught fire. Spread of the flames to the Tinsley arsenal seemed imminent and only the courageous work of marines sent to the scene from Virginia prevented a recurrence of the earlier tragedy. The danger was at last averted, however, and Brig. General Hugh A. Drum, in charge of policing the devastated area, announced that the situation was well in hand. So sure was he that the crisis had been passed that he raised the guard around the shell-torn district to permit newspaper men to inspect the No. Man's Land. Marine details completed exploration of the twisted and torn country within the reservation and preparations were made for inauguration of a regular patrol in the territory which until yesterday could not be approached without grave danger.

The number of missing continued indefinitely because of the destruction of all records in the fire. It was generally believed, however, that the number did not exceed more than seven.

Fifty-nine newspaper representatives were taken into the No. Man's Land that one was once the navy's trim depot on five railroad flat cars after General Drum himself had made a tour through the territory and announced the situation was the most favorable since the first blast.

King Of Bulgaria Is Off For Bride

Boris' trip abroad is accompanied by his suite, arrived here this afternoon. After a short visit he left for Sweden.

Sofia, Bulgaria, July 13.—(AP)—King Boris' trip abroad is a matrimonial errand, and he has absolutely no intention of abandoning his throne. The only abdication likely to overtake the King on his present voyage is that of his state of bachelorhood.

Such is the gist of the information imparted to the Associated Press by Premier Andrey Laptchoff in the course of an interview today. The premier said: "The rumor of a plot against the King is absurd. Firm reins in Bulgaria. The King's trip abroad is the best proof of that. Perfect understanding exists between the King and

Sheriff and Posse Hunts Wild Woman

"Wild woman," unclad and with blonde hair reaching to her waist, who is reported to have been seen in the brushy bottom lands of Laneville Creek, in Brazoria county, is being sought by a searching party of several hundred men.

The searchers are using a pack of bloodhounds taken to the scene by Sheriff Frank Crewe.

The "wild woman," subject of ridiculed rumor for several weeks, was accepted as a reality when a team from Misema, a village in the bottoms, reported that a woman suddenly leaped from brush through which he was walking and ran into heavier undergrowth near the creek. Footprints made by a woman's bare feet were found at the spot designated by the man, but rain obliterated the tracks.

Dr. Albert Anderson, Superintendent of the Hospital For Insane Asks For Complete Investigation Into the Death of Alice Coltrain At That Institution Few Days Ago—Coroner Charged Cruelty

Raleigh, July 13.—(AP)—Cruel treatment preceding the suicide of Alice Coltrain, at inmate of the state hospital for the insane, who hanged herself with one of her stockings last Friday night was responsible for her death, L. H. Wooten, Wake county coroner, charged in his report today to the clerk of the court.

Last night Dr. Albert Anderson, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, addressed a letter to Dr. G. M. Cooper, to whom complaint was made by the coroner, requesting an investigation of the conditions under which the patient killed herself. In his letter the superintendent pointed out that the woman was violent and that as many as six attendants were necessary to place her in her room. He declared that she was placed in a room with few windows and without furniture only because she was violent.

Under the law, Dr. Cooper said tonight, the State Board of Health will make an investigation.

CONVENTION OF ODD FELLOWS IS PLEASING EVENT

Members of the Order in Sixth District Gather Here For Annual Meet.

Odd Fellows from all parts of the sixth district gathered in Goldsboro yesterday afternoon for the annual convention and the event, two sessions of which were held, proved to be one of the most interesting and pleasing ever to take place.

The program which was probably one of the most elaborate ever arranged for the occasion, was carried out in detail. This consisted of a number of addresses, reports by various officers, discussions of lodge affairs, etc., and was much enjoyed.

At 6:30 o'clock the visitors were tendered a banquet at the I. O. O. F. Home and this proved to be an affair which will be long and pleasantly remembered.

Following the banquet a meeting of the lodge was held in Nouse hall and the convention brought to a close at that time.
