R. CARROLL CLAIMS GOV. INSULTED COMMITTEE FELIX HARVEY, JR., URGES EQUAL EDUCATIONAL CHANGES

In Excellent Address Before Local Associat'n On Monday Evening

There Are 374,826 Children in State Who Do Not Have the Right Chance Educationally, He Says

A strong delegation in favor of equal educational opportunities for all North Carolina children was made by Felix Harvey, Jr., of Winston, in addressing the local Kiwanis club at its regular meeting in the Hotel Goldsboro last evening. Mr. Harvey spoke on the ideals of Kiwanis and delivered a speech that was humorous enough to keep a sleepy man awake and packed enough with thought to keep a thinking man busy.

Kiwanian O. A. Moran was chairman for the evening, and it was announced that "Bill" Newter would be the chairman for the coming week. It is proposed to bring a speaker from the state highway department to the city for this occasion.

Guests introduced during the evening were Kiwanians Pat Gerken, of Wilmington, and W. J. Hobbs, of Wilmington—members of the Shog's Acres group which has been operating in the city—and Henry Bek of the staff of The News.

"Did you know that there are 374,826 children in North Carolina who are underprivileged in so far as education is concerned?" Mr. Harvey asked in discussing the education question and the part which Kiwanis could have in its solution. "I do want to see Kiwanis take this matter up and in correcting it," he continued.

To illustrate his declarations at this point, he told the story of the award of a damage verdict for $35,000 against a company which had been negligent and caused a child in its employ to lose a hand. "If a hand is worth $35,000, how much is a soul, a mind, a body worth? Mr. Harvey wanted to know. He made it plain that sacrificing the proper education of any child was to damage it far beyond the loss of an arm.

Mr. Harvey gave an acrostic which he said should represent the things a true Kiwanian stands for and works for: K for kindness; I for imagination; W for work; A for ambition; N for nobility of character; and S for success.

Members of Kiwanis, Mr. Harvey stated, will stand for law enforcement in every instance, will uphold the laws in their own lives, will do the duty of citizens and vote, will throw themselves wholeheartedly into civic undertakings, will stand for better education, and will practice the golden rule.

Goldsboro was roundly praised by the speaker for the progress which she has made in recent years. "There used to be a time when I simply had to get to Goldsboro, because I would have to wait around the station in a miserable sort of fashion. There didn't seem to be much life. But that has all changed. We have learned from you a lesson in this hotel and are

Mr. Harvey.

INVESTIGATION TO START TODAY

Fort Worth, Tex., July 19.—Grand Jury investigation of the slaying of D. H. Shipp by the Rev. J. Frank Norris, Baptist minister and fundamentalist leader, will start tomorrow. Dr. Norris remained silent tonight, he made a blanket denial of interviews and statements attributed to him by several agencies. "I have made no statement since that to the district attorney and I have none to make," he said.

PASTOR TO GO ON TRIAL TODAY

Dr. Chappell, of Asheville is charged with immorality.

Statesville, July 19.—Methodist ministers assembled here tonight to inquire into the charge of immorality against one of their number, the Rev. Ashley Chappell, of Asheville.

The inquiry is in the form of an ecclesiastical court in which thirteen pastors of the Western North Carolina conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will sit as court and jury is to begin tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

The incident on which the accusation against Dr. Chappell is based occurred in Memphis, Tenn., last May during the session of the General Conference of his church, which he attended. The minister was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct as a result of a police raid.

Complete innocence of any charge of any wrong doing is asserted by the Asheville pastor, who soon after the affair stated in his defense. Accustomed to take long walks for exercise, the statement set forth, that on the particular evening he went for a hike about the streets of Memphis, a city of which he was little familiar.

In his walk, his statement said, a chronic physical disability became acute and he was at once in agonized pain and in fear of his life. Help was at once needed, and he sought aid in a house which a few minutes later, was entered by a squad of policemen.

At the police station, Dr. Chappell's statement ascertained and Memphis police records show, the minister gave the name of Smith. Later he made explanations to the officers and gave his true name. Bewilderment because of the unusual circumstances caused him to give the name Smith, the statement said.

Discover New Plot To Dynamite Jail

Chicago, July 19.—(AP)—A second plot to bomb the Cook county jail housing some 800 prisoners was reported tonight by officials investigating the explosion of a dynamite bomb at the jail.

Attempts to link the bombing with recent reports that liquor was being smuggled into the jail were made by investigators this afternoon. The Chicago Crime Commission in a statement held the sheriff and the warden responsible for conditions and declared that "conditions such as revealed do not spring up over night."

WAYNE RANKS 45TH IN PER CAPITA ON EDUCATION

Spent $21.90 Per White Child in 1924-25 and Paid Teachers Average of $694.44 As Against $836.11 in State

Wayne County spent $21.90 upon each white child in school in the county during the session of 1924-25, according to statistics given in State School Facts. The statistics were made up from the report of County Superintendent J. T. Jerome. Forty-four counties in the State paid more per child for education during the same period than did Wayne.

During the same period the city of Goldsboro spent $41.89 per white child. Goldsboro is listed in group number two and compared with Salisbury, Wilson, Elizabeth City, Gastonia, New Bern, Henderson, Concord and Rocky Mount. Only one city in this group paid more per child for education than Goldsboro. That city is Salisbury which paid $46.98 per white child.

Wayne County spent just about one-third as much per child for negro children as it spent for white children. The amount spent on the education of each negro child during 1924-25 was $7.81. Sixty-four of the one hundred counties of North Carolina spent more per capita for its negro children in the same year than did Wayne.

Goldsboro spent something better than one-half as much on its negro children as it did on its white children. The cost per capita for negro children was $16.92. As in the rank in comparison with other schools in city group two, Goldsboro takes second place.

The average salary paid white teachers in North Carolina was $285.11. Wayne county teachers were paid on an average of $694.44, which was $140.67 less than the average. Negro teachers were paid an average of $455.41 in the state. Wayne County paid its negro teachers $356.53, which was $98.88 less than the average.

Among 74 Counties With Contracts With State—Gets $678

Raleigh, July 19.—(AP)—Quotas totalling $34,118.27 have been apportioned among the the seventy-four counties which have signed contracts for Mother's Aid work, says the monthly bulletin of the North Carolina State Board of Charities and Public Welfare. Wayne county gets $678.

The money was distributed a per capita basis and no effort was made to increase the number of counties participating, says the bulletin, as the quotas are small and represent only a slight increase over last year. Mecklenburg led other counties with an appropriation of $4,574; Guilford followed with $1,332 and Forsyth was third with $1,201.

The total is slightly larger this due to the five per cent deduction which was taken from all state appropriations, not being made this year.

The quotas are as follows: Alamance $508; Alleghany $116; Anson $440; Ashe $232; Avery $169; Beaufort $482; Bertie $373; Bladen $307; Brunswick $321; Buncombe $365; Cabarrus $524; Caswell $244; Catawba $526; Chatham $370; Cherokee $236; Chowan $165; Craven $451; Clay $78.27; Cleveland $532; Columbus $468; Cumberland $545; Dare $100; Davidson $547; Davie $211; Duplin $469; Durham $656; Edgecombe $590; Forsyth $1,201; Franklin $414; Gaston $796; Graham $75; Granville $417; Greene $252; Guilford $1,332; Halifax $680; Harnett $365; Haywood $365; Hertford $449; Iredell $590; Johnston $661; Lenoir $469; Lee $208; Lincoln $277; Macon $300; Madison $312; McDowell $260; Mecklenburg $1,254; Moore $332; Nash $638; New Hanover $631; Northampton $360; Pasquotank $274; Pender $223; Person $294; Pitt $708; Pork $137; Randolph $476; Richmond $397; Robeson $349; Rockingham $686; Rowan $684; Rutherford $488; Scotland $243; Stanley $426; Surry $504; Union $500; Vance $354; Wake $1,168; Warren $335; Watauga $209; Wayne $678; Wilkes $507 and Wilson $572.

Cotton Flea Is Invading State

Raleigh, July 19.—(AP)—The cotton flea is now reported at present in all counties from Shelby to Rockingham and from Rockingham to Raleigh, following a recent scouting survey just completed by Federal and State entomologists, says Dr. R. W. Leiby, entomologist for the state department of agriculture.

This new cotton pest has not inflicted severe injury to the bottom crops, except in a very few cases, asserts Dr. Leiby. The preliminary estimate made by the entomologists places the damage at about eight per cent. In some fields, however, it is said that as high as 80 per cent of the bottom crop has been destroyed.

Dr. Leiby would not say that injuries to date inflicted by the flea would affect the general cotton yield for the year. He pointed out, however, that a loss of the bottom crop would be

Asked Two Members If They Were Representing "Northern Interests"

HARRY K. TRAW IN NEW ROLE

New York July 19.—(AP)—Harry K. Traw was being acclaimed at Long Beach as a hero today, although he insisted that "he didn't do a darn thing". It all came about when a man whose name the life guard did not know got into trouble while swimming in the surf 150 feet from shore. He called for help and a life guard brought him in. Traw, who was spending the week-end at a Long Beach hotel, went to the life guard's assistance as he neared shore and he helped them to land. In a joking spirit against friends of Traw slapped him on the back and called him a hero. The crowd heard and the word spread like wildfire that Traw had rescued a man from drowning, and nothing he was able to say could change the opinion of the crowd.

Incident Happened, Says Dr. Carroll, When the Committee Called to Request Industrial Survey for Women

Raleigh, July 19.—A charge that Governor McLean "insulted" the committee from the three women's organizations which requested the survey of women in industry by asking two of the members if they "were employed by northern interests" was made here tonight by Dr. Della Dunn Carroll, of Raleigh. Dr. Carroll was one of the women composing the committee of women which urged that Governor McLean should call for such a survey.

At the same time G. M. Cooper, member of the committee, said that when the governor first asked the survey to be made by the committee, the body "agreed that the work should be done through its own channels with the addition of such personnel as might be required."

Dr. Carroll in her statement said that when the Governor asked her the question about representing Northern interests "My indignation almost made me forget my sex," she replied "No, I represent 2,000 members of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs and colleagues in this committee representing the North Carolina League of Voters and the Y. W. C. A."

She added that "We have word to the Governor that the issue would not be reported on the floor of the convention of the Federation of clubs if the survey was granted and 'within forty-eight hours it was granted.' The report of the insult was made to the Federation which expressed its indignation."

Dr. Carroll in her statement said that two long conferences which her committee had had with the Governor were "not discussions of the need of the survey but attempts on his part to compel the committee to say that we would be satisfied by G. E. Carter," and "We declined categorically to accept a survey directed by him and we told the Governor so plainly and emphatically."

Dr. Carroll said "Governor McLean would not have dared insult any man in the state of North Carolina with that question. She said she felt a public statement should be made as Governor McLean has broken faith with us by forcing E. F. Carter in as head of the survey after our specific refusal to accept him as director."

Dr. Cooper said that for seven years the Child Welfare Commission had employed Mr. Cooper as executive officer and had found his performance of duties "highly acceptable and there had never been any charge made against him of any kind of incompetency or dereliction of any sort."

LOCAL PEOPLE MAY SEE RODEO AT EXPOSITION

International Championships Featured Through July 31 For Visitors

A number of Goldsboro people will this week have the opportunity of seeing the International Rodeo which will feature the Sequel-Centennial celebration in Philadelphia through July 31. Among the Goldsboro citizens who are in Philadelphia for the celebration now are: Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Cozart, Mrs. O. M. Brendie and children.

All the daring and skill of American cowboys will be needed to stand off the determined challenges of Mexican and Canadian riders and ropers who are coming in force to the World's Championships in the International Rodeo contests.

No Mexicans has heretofore won one of these championships. Neither has a Canadian. Only Simon-pure 100 per cent American "bronco busters" and ropers have been crowned supreme in the cowboy sports that constitute a rodeo program.

Mexico, the home of the rodeo, has always maintained that she could take home these titles any time she started. The big rodeo in the Sequel-Centennial Stadium under the direction of Fred Beebe is the place selected by her great champions for the supreme effort.

The best riders of Mexico with their best horses are coming in groups. They are asking no favors, no expenses, nothing at all except a fair shot at the championship titles. And the Canadians are coming, too, to take the measure of Bobby Askin, Paddy Ryan, Mike Hastings, Frank McCarroll and the rest of the huskies who rank at the top of the heap in bronco riding, steer-wrestling, steer riding, relay racing, roping and all are entered for the contests.
