Scotland Yard Men Swoop Down On Soviet House In Financial Part London And Take Charge

Russian Trade Delegates Supposed to be Immune From Arrest Are Taken Into Cus-tody: Detectives Atmpt Gain Control of All Papers and Valu-ables Within Building

LONDON, May 12-(AP)-One of the most spectacular raids in London's en 45 men from Scotland Yard in Moorgate and took charge, not only frices, but the quarters occupied by the Russian Trade delegation, whose officials are supposed to be mmune from arrest.

The Scotland Yard men were re'n forced by 60 uniformed policeme who surrounded the five-story building, and no one was permitted to enter or depart without permission. Act ing under instruction of the Home Office they took complete charge of the entire building, and at midnight the search was continuing.

The raid began shortly before a clock this afternoon was carried out under the authority of a search warrant issued by a ungistrate un der request of officials who presented syldenes designed to answince the mag starte that the laws of the country had been violated and that on this account drawing steps were deemed necessary in the interest of public asters.

The employes of Argos, a corpora-tion which controls Russian trade, as well as employees of the trade delepation, were taken completely by surprise. Before they had time to realise what had happend, the building from att'e to cellar was in the hands letectives who endeavored to gain control of papers and documents and took measures to prevent any slipping from their grasp.

Merchants Complain About Business

STATESVILLE, May 12-(P)-Have merchants fallen into the habit complaining about business?

Somebody is having good business touring driven by L. R. Parker at J. Paul Leonard, secretary of the North Carolina Merchants Associa-tion, says, remarking that he has traveled over a good part of North Carolina the last few month, and with few exceptions, merchants have complained about business conditions.

"It is true that the complaint the majority centered around collec-Hone, rather than sales, in the cases 'small profits' rather than sales, in the case of cash stores.

"And yet in the face of all this, the business conditions may each month ha shown the Pledmont sections of North and South Carolina to have been especially favored the last two months.

"In fact the only white space-indicating good business on the map the last two months south of Richmond and east of the Mississippi is in the Carolinias, and the bulk of this is in North Carolina."
