Safe In Office Swift And Company Here Is Robbed Of $300 Cash And $200 Checks

OCCURRED LAST MONDAY BUT WAS NOT REVEALED BY POLICE UNTIL LAST NIGHT; SAFE OPENED DUR-ING NIGHT BY WORKING COMBINA-TION AND SUMS TAKEN; REPORTS $1000 MISSING INACCURATE

Three hundred dollars in cash and $200 in checks were taken from the safe in the office of the local plant of Swift and Company, North James street, sometime last Monday night, police revealed last evening.

During the week past the police had successfully concealed information as to the robbery becoming public, claiming that by so donig they would be better able to follow out clues in the case. Last evening, however, a member of the force admitted that they did not have any clues "which amounted to anything." Discovery of the robbery was made hy Bookkeeper Oliver when he opened the safe about 8:30 last Tuesday morning, the police said. The combination on the safe, a standard one, had been worke and the door opened, the
