THINK LANGSTON IS NOW LEADING

Burgwyn's Straddling on Smith Candidacy Has Probably Hurt Him

By J. C. BASKERVILL (In Afternoon Papers) RALEIGH, March 27.—The non-committal answer given by W. H. S. Burgwyn, candidate for the nomination for lieutenant governor, to the Sanford Martin questionnaire with regard to his position concerning the nomination of Al Smith, has not helped his candidacy for lieutenant governor and has temporarily at least given the advantage to Colonel John D. Langston, seems to be the consensus of opinion here. In fact the prominence with which both Langston and R. T. Fountain, the third aspirant for the lieutenant governorship, answered that they did not favor Smith's nomination, has given them both considerable advantage, as far as opinion here is concerned, though Langston at present seems to be the stronger of the three.

While some are frankly pleased at Burgwyn's honesty and frankness in refraining from stating that he opposed the nomination of Smith, it is generally known that Burgwyn is for Smith, and more or less aligned with the so-called "Smith element" in the State, it is pointed out that his position is somewhat inconsistent. For only a little more than a week ago friends of Burgwyn issued a statement in which it is understood that Burgwyn concurred, stated that Burgwyn was virtually certain of the support of Gardner and his following in his race for lieutenant governor.

Yet Gardner was among the first to state that he did not favor the nomination of Smith, and would oppose it. Then Burgwyn comes out with a delayed and non-committal statement generally being interpreted as being favorable to Smith. How then can Burgwyn expect to get the support of Gardner and his following, who so far have been entirely "regular" when it appears that Burgwyn is linking himself up with the "irregulars"?

As a result opinion here is that the Burgwyn stock has dropped perceptibly.

WAIVE HEARING AS TO CHARGES

Young White Men Held In Jail On Highway Count In Default of $2,500 Bond

Robert L. Smith and George DuBoise, young white men, arrested Monday on a charge of having robbed the store of A. R. Whitman, Dudley merchant on the morning of March 22, yesterday waived preliminary hearing before Esq. W. G. Britt and were held in jail yesterday afternoon in default of $2,500 bond. They will face trial for highway robbery at the June term of Wayne County Superior Court.

Connection of Smith with the case has caused much surprise in Goldsboro. He came here about nine months ago and had been regarded as a quiet, conscientious and capable workman in his trade, shoemaking. DuBoise a French Canadian, came to Goldsboro as a mattressmaker. Smith is a native of Glendale, Calif.

A United States postoffice inspector visited the two men in their cell yesterday to examine them for possible evidence as to other postoffice robberies in which they might have been implicated. It was said, however, that after talking with them he was confident that they had not participated in efforts to rob any other postoffice and added that no Federal charge would be preferred against them. The Dudley postoffice is located in the building of which houses the store of Mr. Whitman and which the two young men held up at the point of a revolver.

Mr. Whitman said yesterday that the public had given him about $8 toward the $100 reward which he promised for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the two,

Four Cases Of Smallpox In One Section Cause Of Alarm

DISEASE BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN BROUGHT HERE FROM VISIT PAID TO COAST; SWINTZ KILLETT INSISTS GOD WILL TAKE CARE OF HIM AND REFUSES VACCINATION

God has marked and saved me on other occasions and he will save me again. Such is the attitude which Swintz Killett, Stoney Creek farmer took yesterday when urged to protect himself by vaccination against smallpox, and though there are a number of cases of the disease in the section where Mr. Killett lives; he refused to be vaccinated. He insisted that there had been contagious diseases in his home and that he had always been spared. "Man must have faith in something—God or man," he was quoted as saying, "and I have faith in God, and if he sends the smallpox upon me I will be man enough to withstand it."

In one community in Saulton there are four cases of smallpox and many citizens of that part of the county are being vaccinated as a precaution.

MRS. HILL DIES AT HOME HERE

Mother of Mayor J. H. Hill Was In Her 90th Year and Was Women Well Beloved

Mrs. Mary Louisa Bunting Hill widow of the late John H. Hill, and one of the oldest if not the oldest residents in Goldsboro, died at her home at 400 North Janeq street at 6 o'clock last evening.

Mrs. Hill had been ill with troubles incident to advanced age and friends and relatives had been prepared for the end for several days. Her condition was such Monday morning that her son, Major J. H. Hill, did not preside at the regular session of city court.

Funeral service will be held from St. Stephen's Episcopal church at 5 o'clock this afternoon and will be in charge of Rev. W. O. Cone, rector. Interment will be in Willow Dale cemetery.

Mrs. Hill was in her ninetieth year and was a native of Sampson county, having been born in Clinton. She was the daughter of the late Dr. Thomas Bunting of Clinton, one of the leading physicians of his day. Married to the late John H. Hill of Goldsboro, she had made her home here for fifty-one years. Her husband was a druggist and for many years operated a store here. His popularity is attested by the fact that he was made mayor of the city, an honor which was later to come to his son, the present mayor of Goldsboro.

The deceased is survived by one son, Mayor Hill and by three daughters: Misses Betsy, Louisa, and Minnie B. Hill, all of this city.

Mrs. Hill was a faithful member of St. Stephen's church, a woman devoted to her family and friends and held in highest respect by all who knew her. She was a woman of unusually quick perception and retained her keenness of mind until the last few months of her life. In her going Goldsboro loses one whose life had been practically the life span of the city.

Mad Dog Scare Switches To Edgewood Section Tuesday

SEVERAL ANIMALS IN EDGEWOOD REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN BITTEN BY ANIMAL BELIEVED TO HAVE HAD RABIES; NINTH SHOT BRINGS CREATURE TO ITS DEATH

The mad dog scare that has affected parts of the city for several weeks now yesterday shifted to the Edgewood section where a stray bird dog believed to have been mad, bit at least three other animals before it was killed. Dogs belonging to Dr. Zeno Spence, Dr. D. J. Rose and Dewey Hunt were reported to have been bitten.

The dog believed to have been mad was killed with a shot gun after Officer Parker and Mr. Hunt had taken eight cracks at him with a pistol. The shot gun load was emptied into the head by a resident of the section. The animal made no outcry when shot it was said, and was described as having a black tongue. Both of these symptoms were pointed out as evidence of hydrophobia.

Edwin Evans Becomes Twelfth Eagle Scout

The sixth Eagle Scout in Troop Number six, of Tuscarora council, was created at a Court of Honor session last night, the distinction going to Edwin Evans, 15 years old. J. C. Pate is Scoutmaster of the troop which is sponsored by the First Baptist church. Evans is the twelfth youngster in Goldsboro to win the Eagle Scout badge of honor and there are more Eagle Scouts in Goldsboro than in any city of the same population in North Carolina.

DEMOCRATS SAY 4 MILLION IDLE

WASHINGTON, March 27.—(AP)—Senate Democrats reasserted their declaration that 4,000,000 are now out of work after Senator Snoot, Republican of Utah, arose in the Senate today to take encouragement from the employment outlook on the basis of Department of Labor report that the unemployed numbered about 1,800,000.

Early relief of the situation through the advance of spring and summer seasons and the resulting stimulation of building were predicted by the Utah Senator. But Democrats were quickly on their feet. Senator Simmons of North Carolina characterized the labor report as a political document and described Senator Snoot as the "mouth-piece" of government agencies "trying to defend the prosperity issue."

MEXICO CITY, March 27.—(AP)—Three Americans were killed today when a plane which they were flying from Nogales, Ariz., to Mexico City crashed in the streets of Toluca about 45 miles from their objective. The victims were Sterling Robles, pilot, W. B. King, and Wallace Springer.

Capt. O'Berry And Col. Joe. Robinson Honored By Scouts

Captain Nathan O'Berry, Col. Joseph E. Robinson, Leslie Well and Herman Weil were singled out by Eagle Scouts of Goldsboro in ceremonies staged at the community building last evening as being citizens who have lived lives worthy of emulation among the youth of the city. In token of the worthy service which these men have rendered to their city, the Eagle Scouts presented each with a Scout Handbook the guide to a Scout under every circumstance. Rev. Bland, Jr., president over the ceremonies and Clarence Peacock, Jr., made the presentation in the following words: Gentlemen: We have called you together for the purpose of showing you, in a small way, our appreciation of the examples that you have set for the younger generation to follow. We feel like your lives and the examples

Big Plane Is Ready for Hop

Captain Koehl Was "Fired" When He Hopped Off On "Foolhardy" Attempt

DUBLIN, March 27.—(AP)—Captain Hermann Koehl, Baron Von Huenefeld, and Arthur Spindler, comprising the crew of the Junkers Plane Bremen, intend to take off for New York at daybreak tomorrow.

This was their announced intention at 10 o'clock tonight, the "if" in the situation being the state of the weather.

The intrepid Germans, who yesterday flew the plane more than 500 miles on a roundabout route from Berlin were as quietly confident of the success of their plans tonight as when they arrived here. Seemingly they have banished from their spectral wreaths of the men and women who have fallen on the vast to west crossing of the Atlantic. They called on President Coegrave of the Irish Free State today. The president wished them bon voyage and the airman expressed to him their great appreciation of the courtesies they had received here and of the manner in which the facilities of the Irish State Air force had been placed at their disposal.

While these manifestations of Irish hospitality were going on, mechanics were busy all day at the stadium, fitting the tanks of the Bremen with special motor fuel and putting finishing touches on the adjustments and oiling of the motor.

BREKIN, March 27.—The German Luftwaffe today definitely disclaimed all responsibility for the probable transatlantic flight of Captain Koehl in his plane, the Bremen, by announcing that he had attempted to land himself from the company's airplane when he hopped off from Berlin in Baldouel.

Koehl broke his contract and thereby disassociated himself from us," the company officials stated.

Meanwhile high army aviation officials and the German press continued extremely skeptical of the practicability of the flight at this time. Several papers editorially warned the flier and his companions that they were embarking on a "foolhardy" enterprise.

"Children will be children. We can only hope that if they play with fire they won't get burned," was the ironic comment of Director Marshal of the Luftwaffe.

Only a few papers comment favorably upon the project of Captain Koehl and his flying companions, Baron von Huenefeld and Hellmuth Klose.
