MASSES

Because your heart
Is young, is gay
You sing sad little Songs today.

I sing my gladdest
Songs tonight—
A broken heart
Must be polite.
—Benjamin Musser, in Bogart.

D. A. R. Rummage Sale Saturday
The David Williams Chapter of the D. A. R. will hold a rummage sale Saturday in the store, formerly occupied by the Gold Star company on Walnut street. Members are asked to have their rummage ready by nine o'clock Saturday morning as Mrs. Faison Thomson and Mrs. N. W. Outlaw will call for it.

To Form New Y. W. A.
For the purpose of organizing a new Y. W. A. in the city, all members of both the First and Second Baptist churches who are not now members of a Y. W. A. are asked to meet at the home of Miss Annie Mildred Kelly, 712 Pou street, this evening at 8 o'clock. All young women between the ages of 17 and 25 are eligible for membership.

Barbecue for Visitors
Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Cobb entertained yesterday evening at 7 o'clock at a delightful barbecue at Crescent Lake in honor of Miss Julia Hutton of Denver, Colorado, and Mr. and Mrs. McFarland, of San Antonio, Tex. Delicious barbecue, slaw, corn pone and cold drinks were enjoyed. Between forty and fifty guests were entertained, among them a good many out of town visitors.

Prayer Circle To Meet
United Prayer Circle will meet with Mrs. R. A. Poplin, East Elm street, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Leader, Mrs. H. H. H. H.

Service Circle and Park Annex Circle
will meet with Mrs. W. A. Dees, Mulberry street, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Leader, Miss Hattie Dewey.

William Street Circle will meet with Mrs. George Garden at 4 o'clock. Leader Mrs. Rochelle.

Open House at The Club
Mesdames A. Oettinger and Paul Borden as chairman of the hostess committee graciously received the day yesterday at the Club both in the morning and the afternoon. Lovely luncheon with gladiolus decorations artistically placed in the rooms of the lower floor. Quite a few club members enjoyed the lovely rooms during the day. Refreshing pineapple ice and dainty cakes were served to the guests.

Spicer Sanatorium News
Mrs. David Pike has sufficiently recuperated from a major operation which he underwent recently to be able to return to his home yesterday. Mr. W. J. House was able to return to his home yesterday after having been a patient for some days. David Farris, Jr. is doing very nicely after undergoing a tonsil op-

RITZY ROSALIE

Rosalie is seriously considering the idea of keeping this bon voyage gift for herself! It's one of those very convenient traveling sets consisting of a small iron equipped with solidified heat, some wee clothes pins and tiny clothes line. Even though the whole outfit does look as though it belongs in a doll's house, the iron serves beautifully as a stove where one can make coffee. And speaking of miniature traveling conveniences there is a small tube containing a compressed sponge for Missy's bath. When dropped into water the sponge expands to normal size.

operation yesterday. Mrs. A. E. Wilson is a patient at the Sanatorium and expects to undergo an operation tomorrow.

Miss Jones Celebrates Birthday
Little Miss Lorie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones, was a charming hostess yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, on East Elm street at a delightful party observing her eighth birthday. After playing a number of games, the children, were invited into the dining room where the lovely birthday cake with its eight candles was cut and served, with delicious ice cream. A color scheme of pink and white was used.

Guests for the happy occasion included: Elizabeth Toler, Jean Brown, Francis Toler Helen Langston, Sarah Alice Toler, Lillian Langston, Lorie Jones, Gillie Hood, Warren Hood, Kenneth Brown, Brantley Langston, Junior Langston, and Henry Lane.

Goldsboro Hospital News
Miss Marie Reyes, of Warsaw was able to return to her home yesterday. Mrs. S. Joseph, of LaGrange, has sufficiently recuperated to be able to go home yesterday also. Mrs. Bruce Bizzell and baby daughter, Anne Musgrave, have gone home from the hospital. Miss Selma Futrell who underwent an operation for appendicitis several days ago, was able to return on Wednesday to her home near Fremont. Mrs. B. W. Daniel, who has been quite ill from an infected tooth, has greatly improved, her many friends will be delighted to hear. Little Dock Joseph Gleason returned to his home late yesterday afternoon after spending the day at the hospital, where he had a minor operation on his foot.

Debnam-Orr
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Vance Orr announce the marriage of their daughter Mary Bailey
to Mr. Warrick Debnam
on Tuesday, the nineteenth of June nineteen hundred and twenty eight First Baptist church Clayton, N. C.

At home after July first Selma, N. C.
Cordial good wishes of a host of friends go with the young couple. Mrs. Debnam who is a most attractive and popular young lady was educated at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C., and at N. C. W. Greensboro, where she received her degree, and has been engaged in teaching during the past year at Benson. Mr. Debnam, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, is a well liked young business man of Selma, where he has the Buick agency.

Miss Giddens Honoree
Mrs. George Southerland and daughter, Mrs. R. S. Lettsch, entertained jointly yesterday afternoon at a lovely bridge party in honor of Miss Irene Giddens, bride elect. Five tables for bridge were placed in the library and the living room. In the living room sweet peas in rainbow colors—from Mrs. Southerland's own garden—were used with beautiful effect. In the library a variety of yellow summer flowers made the room festive.
Miss Julia Hutton, of Denver, Colo., niece and guest of Mrs. W. H. Cobb was declared top scorer at the conclusion of the playing, and she was presented with dainty powder and perfume. A lovely pair of silk hose were presented to Mrs. Edward Michaux, of Greensboro, visitor in the city. To the honoree the hostess gave attractive linen towels and a corsage of sweet peas.
During the playing refreshing Russian punch was served, and later a tempting salad course and a sweet course followed.
The guests on this delightful occasion were: Misses Irene Giddens, Sara and Eva Mae Giddens, Susan Collier, Dorotte Oettinger, Laurinda Hooks, Julia Hardy, of Kinston; Edie and Lois Southerland, and Mesdames Harvey Ryans, Margaret House, Edward Michaux, George C. Southerland, Claude Bizzell, Guy A. McFarland, James Davis, James Bryan, John Norwood, L. D. Giddens, Robert Jeffrey, J. C. Patterson of Ft. Bragg, and James Southerland.
