NEGRO HELD IN WILSON MAY HAVE ROBBED HOMES HERE MEET TONIGHT TO NAME NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN

Is Goldsboro Man And Used Same System That Was Employed In City

Confesses to Wilson Police of Having Robbed Six Homes In That City

BOUND TO COURT FOR 1ST DEGREE BURGLARY

Expected Local Police Will Question Him Relative to Crimes Committed Here

George Jones, Goldsboro negro, held in Wilson yesterday for first degree burglary may have been implicated in the robbery of six homes in this city. It is believed.

Confession made to Wilson police showed that the Goldsboro negro had robbed six homes in Wilson in much the same fashion that a half dozen Goldsboro homes were robbed.

The Wilson Times yesterday gave the following account of the arrest of Jones:

After confessing to local police last night that he broke in six local homes and robbed them George Jones, Goldsboro negro, today waived preliminary hearing before Justice R. L. Brinkley in Police Court.

Jones was arrested Monday night by Detective J. D. Fulghum as a suspect and upon searching him the officer found a burglar's flash light, and a silver knife that had been made into a tool by which screen doors could be unlocked.

When arrested the negro had about $2.50 in money in his pockets and a further search of his person revealed about $54.00 in bills secreted in his shoes.

Jones admitted to entering the home of Mr. Ernest Deans on West Nash street, and to walking into the bedroom where Mr. Deans was asleep and taking $15.00 out of his trousers pocket.

Other homes the negro admitted breaking in were Messrs. A. A. Corbett, Josh White, Will Farmer and Dr. P. P. Lane.

Governor of New York Is Now Trying To Rest Up Before Campaign Tour

NEW YORK, Aug. 23—(AP)—As a full-fledged Presidential nominee Governor Smith today came back again to his native New York City, still uncertain when he would start active campaigning. His views on the public issues of the day are before the nation, and a bit worn by the strain of his notification last night in Albany, the Democratic standard bearer seemed more anxious for rest and recuperation than anything else.

After an overnight stay, the governor tomorrow will move on to New Jersey to take part in a big Democratic rally at Seaair Saturday and to review national guard troops there. Next week he will pay his annual visit to the New York State Fair at Syracuse, but beyond that he has no engagements.

The governor was asked today whether he thought there was anything inconsistent in a dry democratic running for the Senate or house on the ticket with him. "Everybody who is nominated for Continued on page two

ASK PALESTINE APPEAL IN CITY

Several Goldsboro People Are Urged To Organize City For Movement

Several prominent Jewish leaders in this community have received letters in which Judge Wm. M. Lewis of Philadelphia, National chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, and Mr. Isidore Hershfield of Washington, Chairman of the Seaboard Region U. P. A. urge the local leaders to inaugurate a campaign for Palestine funds with an appeal on the Jewish New Year, which takes place the middle of September. The letter in part reads as follows: "As chairman of the United Palestine Appeal for the Seaboard Region I have been directed by Judge Wm. M. Lewis, National chairman of the United Palestine Appeal to communicate with you and request you to make preparations for a Palestine appeal to be held in your synagogue on Rosh Hashbonah. Your community is fully aware of the demands and the obligations which Palestine places upon the Jewish world over and we therefore trust that you will respond wholeheartedly to cooperate with our Regional Administrative committee in this most worthy task."

These letters were received by H. M. Kadis, A. M. Shrago, Mrs. Wm. Heilig and Mrs. C. Margolis, of Goldsboro. The United Palestine Appeal combines six separate fund raising agencies into one for the purpose of securing sufficient money to enable the work in Palestine to proceed at a rapid rate. The progress which the Zionist movement has brought about in Palestine not only affects the Jewish population, but has had a very decided affect on all inhabitants of the land.

Some of the leading men in the United States, including President Coolidge and the late Presidents Wilson and Harding, have wholeheartedly endorsed the Palestine movement. This fund is making possible the maintenance of hospitals and sanitary clinics throughout Palestine. It also maintains over 100 schools, which are attended by 17,000 pupils. The fund takes care of and provides work for immigrants just arriving. Within the past five years, $20,000,000 has been raised through the effort, most of the money being raised in America. While the fund is raised almost exclusively from among the Jewish people, nevertheless the scope of its work in Palestine is nonsectarian.

3 Deaths Recently From Typhoid Fever

The death of a negro boy by the name of Lee in the southern edge of the city yesterday brought the number of death in the county from typhoid fever in the last ten days to three, according to Dr. L. W. Corbett, city and county health officer.

"I would not alarm the public," said Dr. Corbett "But this brings up again the matter of making the point of the necessity of securing inoculation against the disease. Vaccination can be secured at the health department at any time between 9 to 5 on any week day."

SAYS HIS CAR WAS SHOT AT

Michael Heedin And Young Women Companions Have Narrow Escape

"Bang! and a split second after the explosion, shots spattered on the glass in the back of the top of my coupe just like hail stones," said Michael Heedin, Goldsboro boy in describing an adventure he had Wednesday night. Heedin, with two young lady companions, was driving along the Mount Olive highway, going to Crescent Lake when parties or party unknown fired at the car twice with a shot gun. "It was about 11 o'clock, and we were just riding out to Crescent Lake," said young Heedin. "We were just on the other side of the river bridge when suddenly a shot rang out," he stated. "I immediately stopped the car and hollered back and told whoever it was shooting to do it again." And he did, for right afterwards another shot came and the pellets just rattled on the glass and top. I got out then to see if I could see anyone, but there was no one in sight.

News reporter examined the car yesterday morning, and shot holes were easily seen scattered about in the back covering of the top. Between this covering and the interior of the car, the back of the top is sheet steel, and if it hadn't been for this protection, there is no doubt that the occupants of the coup would have been hit by some of the shots. The heavy glass in the back of the top was also hit by several shot, but it was so thick that it was not broken. The tire cover on the back was penetrated by a few of the shot but beyond this no further damage was done.

This is the second affair of the kind which has occurred in the past year. Several months ago, a motorist reported that while driving on the LaGrange highway a few miles from town, he had been fired at by someone. Officers investigated at the time but could find no trace of anyone who had done the shooting.

Committeeman Will Succeed Senator F. M. Simmons, Resigned, July 24

MORRISON ADMITTEDLY HAS LEAD IN FIELD

Naming Committeeman Only Business State Executive Committee To Do

RALEIGH, Aug. 23—(AP)—The State Democratic executive committee will meet here tomorrow night to select a successor as Democratic national committeeman from North Carolina to Senator F. M. Simmons who resigned July 24.

Following Simmons' resignation, many names were suggested by friends for the vacant position, but within the past two weeks only one name has been frequently mentioned: that of former governor Cameron Morrison, Charlotte and Joseph Daniels, Raleigh publisher.

Doubt has been expressed by his friends that Daniels will allow his name to go before the committee as a candidate. He said tonight that he had no statement to make and no opinion as to why he should make one. The News and Observer owned and published by Mr. Daniels, however, will say tomorrow that he has suggested as likely successors to his name have declared they are not candidates and announced support of Morrison.

No business other than the election of a national committeeman is expected to come before the committee meeting.

BUTLER LIKES SMITH SPEECH

President of Columbia University Calls Acceptance Statesmanlike

NEW YORK, Aug. 23—(AP)—Nicholas Murray Butler, who a few days ago wrote a letter to the New York Times criticizing the stand of Herbert Hoover on prohibition and national defense, made the following statement to the Herald-Tribune on Governor Smith's speech of acceptance:

"The address of acceptance of Governor Smith is a statesmanlike document, well conceived, well phrased, and admirably expressed. It shows the Governor at his best—and we New York Republicans know by long experience how good that is. His setting forth of the case of the Democratic party in this campaign is able and on a high plane. This can only be met by like or better arguments on a similar high plane.

"Of course the governor's viewpoint is a strictly partisan one. On all three paramount subjects of agriculture, foreign policies with respect to international peace, and prohibition, the governor speaks with no uncertain sound. No one can mistake what he means or what he will aim to do if elected. His treatment of prohibition is frank, constructive and forward looking. If Governor Smith can bring the Democratic party to the support of the position which he takes an enormous service will thereby be rendered to the nation. It remains for those of us Republicans of the old fashioned sort who are profoundly interested in fundamental political principles, to see whether we can get to something with the Republican party.

"The proposed modification of the Volstead act is fully within the program (Continued on Page Five)
