ROBINSON RECALLS G. O. P. RECORD IN RALEIGH ADDRESS

Covers Widest Range Subjects He Has Yet Touched in Addresses

Recalls That Nation Was Prosperous Under Simmons Underwood Tariff Law

CHARGES G. O. P. SOLD FEDERAL APPOINTMENTS

Head Waiter at Sir Walter Fails To Recognize Vice Presidential Nominee

RALEIGH, Sept. 11—(AP)—Prescribing a Democratic doctrine until persuasion stood out on his forehead, Senator Joe Robinson tonight directed a verbal attack upon the Coolidge foreign policies, the activities of cabinet members of the Harding administration, the care of disabled veterans under Republican rule and those opposing Governor Smith because of his connection with Tammany Hall. Covering the widest range of subjects he has touched on so far in any campaign speech, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee mopped his brow with a handkerchief and urged any voters of North Carolina who might be considered deserting the Democratic fold to read the record of the Republican party during the Harding and Coolidge period. Speaking without notes and without passing reference to the text of a prepared address before him, the Senator declared the Republican rule to have been "corrupt and selfish" and added that this statement applied "particularly" to the activities during Harding's tenure in office.

"You know," he almost shouted "that Federal offices throughout the South have been sold and are being sold by patronage holders, and yet here in Old North Carolina, a few think they are willing to accept this record of shame and dishonor and repudiate the gallant leader chosen on the first ballot at Houston."

Mr. Robinson said that he regarded his "late lamented friend President Harding" as the worst misfit in the White House and asked the audience if they had forgotten the little "green house on K. street."

Referring to the Simmons-Underwood tariff law enacted in the Wilson administration, the senator said that under this measure "the nation prospered."

Mr. Robinson was introduced by R. A. Doughton, revenue commissioner for North Carolina. Among state Democratic leaders occupying seats on the platform were Governor McLean, Mrs. Palmer Jerman, the National committeewoman from North Carolina, T. L. Johnson, secretary of the state executive committee, and O. M. Mull, state chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson tonight found a break in the succession of dinner engagements to which they have been invited in other cities and dined alone in the dinner room of the Sir Walter Hotel here. They were recognized by the head waiter and had to wait sometime before their order was taken. After someone in the dining room had told the head waiter who they were, he immediately went over to their table and gave personal attention to the service.

COOLIDGE SEES JAMES W. GOODE

Western Republican Manager Confers With Chief Executive in Chicago

CARRETT, Ind., Sept. 11—(AP)—Aboard President Coolidge's Special Train—Scheduled to arrive in Washington early tomorrow morning to resume his regular executive duties in the Capital after a long vacation in Wisconsin, President Coolidge found national politics impatient to reach him before then and today he received the first callers since leaving the secluded shores of the Brule River.

James W. Goode, Western Republican campaign manager, took the opportunity of an hour's stop of the presidential special in Chicago to confer with the chief executive. Last week he sought to induce Mr. Coolidge to deliver speeches for the Republican ticket in the campaign.

Higher Averages On Local Tobacco Mart

Tobacco sales of 175,000 pounds on the Goldsboro floors yesterday averaged about $16, warehousemen said, deducting sums of $1 and $2 per hundred paid for scrap and very poor grades. The estimate of 175,000 pounds for Tuesday was unofficial, bills having not been completely checked and turned in last night. Official sales through Monday as supplied The News showed 610,438 pounds sold here. Yesterday's totals brought the amount to about 785,438 pounds. By the end of Thursday, if wet weather does not again slow up the sales, the market will have passed the million pound total.

SOLICITOR TO MAKE DECISION

Lenoir Coroner's Jury Makes No Indictments In Fatal Accident

That Walter Jones 17 year old son of James Jones of Dudley came to his death when crushed between a Hudson automobile and a loaded tobacco truck was the verdict rendered by a Lenoir county coroner's jury empaneled at 7 o'clock last night to hear evidence as to the accident in which the Wayne county boy met death. The jury did not order any warrants drawn but left to the county solicitor of Lenoir determination of whether or not any prosecutions would be instituted.

The car which struck young Jones and the truck was driven by Raymond Taylor of Ayden and the accident occurred six miles west of Kinston about 8 o'clock Monday night. The Goldsboro boy had been riding on the truck toward Kinston. The machine ran out of gasoline and was left parked without lights on the highway when the Ayden man struck it.

YOUNG LILES TAKES HONORS

Named President Sophomore Section of Hiram Foundation Camp

David Liles, Goldsboro youth, has been named president of the sophomore section of the Hiram foundation camp in the White Mountains for next year, according to information reaching here yesterday.

Young Liles was awarded a scholarship to the camp from Wake Forest College last year and hitch hiked the 800 miles from Goldsboro to the camp in late August. He was at his destination in three days after leaving the city and in the time rode with only three motorists.

He was made assistant to the life guard at the camp and in the competitions carried on during the two weeks of the assembly, won all four of the ribbons offered. Liles has now resumed his work in Wake Forest College. He is a senior at the Baptist institution this year.

County Needs Provisions For Care of Tuberculosis

What Wayne county is doing in the way of public health work, home demonstration activity, and maternity and infancy work was related to the Goldsboro Rotary club last evening. Neither the state nor the county is making adequate provision for the open cases of tuberculosis, said Miss Alice Ward, of the city and county health department in talking to the club. The United States is first in many things, she pointed out, but is tenth among the nations of the world in lowering the death rate through public health work and preventive medicine, said Miss Ward. This is largely explained, she thought through the very high death rate from tuberculosis.

"Well, There's an Understanding!"

Returning from the Riviera aboard S. S. Lapland, pretty Florence Trumbull, daughter of governor of Connecticut, and object of considerable attention on part of John, son of President and Mrs. Coolidge, smiled happily at camera barrage and admitted that there "is a sort of an understanding between us." She hinted that wedding bells would ring out during the Yuletide.

Many Take Pitchforks And Go Fishing for German Carp

Pitchforks, rifles and shotguns were yesterday introduced in the new role of fishing tackle by many who forayed up and down the flood waters of the Neuse.

Before eleven o'clock yesterday morning 600 pounds of German Carp had been captured by those spearing and shooting in the overflow sections along highway forty south of the city. Until last night the unusual sport continued and it was estimated when darkness fell 1,000 pounds of the carp must have been taken.

Most of the fish taken were of the 3 to 5 pound variety, but some weighed as much as twenty five pounds. Washed out of the regular channels of the Neuse by the high waters which have flooded hundreds of acres of low lands, they fell a prey to the sportsmen in the shallow water.

The men with the pitchforks were having the best part of the luck, the riflemen and shotguns finding that their bullets generally skidded off the top of the water without hitting the fish.

YUMA, Arizona, Sept. 11—(AP)—The Waco biplane piloted by Stuart F. Acer of Milwaukee in the class B Transcontinental air race crashed today at Wellton, Arizona, injuring R. E. Herron of Milwaukee, a passenger. The pilot escaped injury. Herron was brought here and physicians said he would recover. He suffered a deep scalp wound.

DANIELS GETS A HEAVY FINE

J. W. Daniels To Pay $150 and Costs For Having Whiskey For Sale

J. W. Daniels, Goldsboro man, was yesterday found guilty in Wayne County recorder's court of receiving and having whiskey in his possession for the purpose of sale. Judge Bland ordered him to pay a fine of $150 and the costs, and sentenced him to 18 months on the county roads to be suspended upon condition that Daniels take up residence with his father, and reports to the court through the sheriff or chief of police at least once a month that he has in no way required to give bond in the sum of $250 to assure the reports.

T. E. Browne to Speak Before Rosewood Club

T. E. Browne, director of vocational agriculture with the North Carolina College Extension service, will be the speaker at the Rosewood community club meeting Friday evening. A picnic supper will be served at 6 o'clock, business will be transacted and the address will go on the boards about 7:30. Mr. Browne is recognized as a leader among those interested in studying the problems of agriculture and Rosewood club members invite the general public to hear him.

ELECTION BOARD TO MEET TODAY

Registration Books Will Be Opened On Saturday, October 6th

Final plans for holding the November election are expected to be made at a meeting of the County Board of Elections at the courthouse at 10:30 this morning. Those who held polls or served as registrars in the June primary are being asked to serve for the fall but where there are any resignations or changes on account of moving or other causes, others will be appointed. Under provisions of Section 5947 of the Consolidated Statutes, as amended, the Registration Books shall open for the registration of voters at nine o'clock A. M. on the 5th Saturday before each election. Therefore the books are to be opened for the General Election on Saturday, October 6th, 1928 and remain open until sunset Saturday, October 27th, 1928.

BUTCHER BOY TELLS STORY

Bares Facts of 5-Year Illicit Love Affair With Society Matron

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11—(AP)—Details of Leo P. Kelly's 5 year illicit love affair with Mrs. Myrtle Mellus, society matron for whose murder he is on trial, were related by the defendant from the witness stand today as his chief argument to save himself from conviction.

Declaring himself to have been a "man pursued," Kelly a 29 year old meat cutter, told of the clandestine meetings which had occurred "every Sunday but six in the five years" and at least two night a week.

From the day he was introduced to Mrs. Mellus in January 1923 in the meat market where he worked Kelly testified he was "chased."

He declared Mrs. Mellus on one occasion told him she was "mad at F. H." (her husband Frank Mellus) because he ran around with a blonde.

On Sunday August 5 when the nude and mutilated body of Mrs. Mellus was found in her home, Kelly was captured in a clothes closet. On the stand today he said he hid there because Mellus came home unexpectedly and he "thought if I hid there she could let me out of the house later when things quieted down." He said he had hidden in the closet on previous occasions when the husband surprised them together.

Kelly said that when Mrs. Mellus went up to her bedroom the afternoon of the fatal last Sunday he spent with her, he heard her fall on the stairway and that he rushed to her, carried her to her bedroom, and that he then fell asleep. Later Mrs. Mellus walked to the stairway to bid him goodbye, he said, when the doorbell rang and he hid in the closet. Then, he testified, he heard Mrs. Mellus scream "Frank" and that he heard no more until the police awakened him in the closet.

WORKING WIVES OPPOSED

St. PAUL, Sept. 11—(AP)—A local organization opposed to the employment of married women who have no dependents has prepared a bill for introduction in the 1929 legislative session forbidding employment of married women in any state department.

Smith and Anti-Smith Democrats at Meeting In Texas Break Noses

Free Tickets for Home Children to Robinsons

One hundred children of the Odd Fellows Home here will be guests of The News and the Robinson circus at the afternoon performance of the circus on September 18. The News yesterday arranged with Publicity Man Hickey of Robinsons to allow the children to attend. This is in keeping with a precedent of The News for securing tickets for the home. "You bet we will accept the invitation," said Superintendent Warren when telephoned by The News of the arrangement. "There isn't anything that would give us more pleasure. You can't please the boys and girls any better than to take them to the show and we appreciate what The News is doing."

TWENTY BOYS ENTER PLANES

Best Flyer Will Be Determined In Contests On Friday, September 21.

Twenty Goldsboro boys have already entered airplane models in the contest being run off under the direction of Scout Executive W. W. Rivers. The News was informed last night. All airplane model builders of the city were urged to get in their entry before the date of the trial of the planes.

Friday, September 21, at 4:30 in the afternoon, the builders will assemble on the William Street Grammar School grounds and determine which plane will fly the farthest. A prize is to be awarded the boy making the model that establishes the best record.

Some two days before the competition, the planes will be placed on display at a point in the business district. The public is invited to attend the plane competition at the school grounds.

NOT WORRIED AT OUTCOME

Governor Smith Declares He Never Hoped for Democratic Victory in Maine

ALBANY, Sept. 11—(AP)—Governor Smith indicated today that he was not worried about political trends in the state which he is convinced the Democrats have little or no chance of carrying in November, and he puts Maine in that class.

The only comment for publication of the Democratic presidential nominee on yesterday's election results in the Pine Tree state was this: "I was never optimistic enough to think Maine would be anything but Republican."

He made this observation to news papermen after he had enquired, rather casually what the Maine result had been, and had been informed that the Republicans had carried the state by more than 70,000.

Urges Farmers to Attend Forestry Convention Here

An appeal for farmers to attend the meeting of the Forestry Association here and to learn the value of forests as a crop is contained in a statement from Joseph Hyde Pratt, executive head of the Association, received here yesterday. "Are you satisfied with the revenue you are deriving from your farm woodlands? If not, plan to attend the 18th annual meeting of the North Carolina Forestry Association, to be held in the community building at Goldsboro, September 19th to 21st, and learn how to care for your wood lands so as to make them a greater asset to your farm. "The first day of the meeting, Wednesday, the 19th will be devoted almost entirely to the consideration of this question. There will be addresses by experienced foresters, and in the afternoon at 3:30 there will be a farm wood land demonstration at the wood land owned by the State Hospital. Plan to come and spend Wednesday, September 19th, at Goldsboro and hear these talks and see this demonstration. "If your community is interested in learning more about this subject arrangements can be made for one of the Extension Foresters to visit your neighborhood and advise with the farmers in regard to handling their wood lands and hold a local demonstration."

Police Quell Near Riot That Occurs When Anti-Smith Crowd Excluded From Hall

EX-GOVERNOR COLQUITT LEADS PARTY BOLTERS

State Separate Convention and Make Plans to Carry Fight Into Homes

DALLAS, Texas, Sept. 11—(AP)—Amid the wildest scenes that ever marked a Democratic meeting in Texas, delegates refusing to endorse the presidential candidacy of Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York bolted the State Democratic convention here today and organized a convention of their own.

Many of the state's most prominent political leaders swung their flags in a free for all fight that ensued when former Governor Oscar Colquitt, avowed anti Smith, sprang to his feet a few minutes after the convention opened and shouted: "Let all loyal Democrats retire!" Eyes were blackened and noses bled as the insurgents, trooping from the hall amid jeers and shouts of "Get out Republicans" attempted to snatch standards from delegations of loyalists. Uniformed officers broke up a half dozen melees before order finally was restored and about 300 insurgents repaired to their meeting place on the front steps of the Fair Park auditorium.

The bolt was precipitated when a motion was introduced demanding that only those delegations loyal to was an anticlimax to the action of Governor Smith he stated. The motion the State executive committee yesterday when anti Smith delegations from 5 counties were notified, they would not be seated in the convention. Meeting part from the regular Democratic group, the Hoover supporters elected former state senator T. B. Love temporary chairman, named committees, and placed further activities in the hands of an executive committee, headed by Alvin S. Moody of Houston.
