Departments of Woman's Club This Week

Two departments of the Woman's club begin their work this week--the Literature and the American Home departments. Mrs. Thomas H. Norwood, chairman of the first named, has announced that on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the club building there will be a review of the life of Joseph Jefferson by Mrs. Henry Belk.

This department meets on the first and third Thursday afternoons.

The American home department, of which Miss Ruth Reilly is the leader will meet on Thursday afternoon 3 o'clock, this department having chosen the first Thursday afternoons for all of its meetings. The subject of this week's demonstration will be "Yeast Breads" and Miss Reilly hopes a large number will be interested in it.

Miss Montague Honored

A miscellaneous shower was given on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. A. Howell by the Willing Workers Society in honor of Miss Dixie Lee Montague whose marriage to Dr. Lee Overman will take place in October.

Two contests "A fowler romance" and two hearts that beat as one, were enjoyed by the guests. Following this

Mrs. Montague was asked to lead the guests into the dining room, which was appropriately decorated with brides roses and amylix. The bride's place was designated by the beginning of a beautiful rainbow. After refreshments were served Miss Montague found a letter by her piece which told her in rhyme to follow the trail of the rainbow in search of hidden treasure. Following from room to room she at last discovered the end and also the plot of gold which consisted of many beautiful gifts.

High School Faculty Has Party

On Friday night the high school faculty was entertained in the high school cafeteria at a very unique and interesting party. Invitations issued early in the week had proclaimed the event and had given warning that all dignity was to be left at home.

On the arrival a tag bearing the respective name and a number was pinned on each guest. A message in identified by a corresponding number has hidden some where in the spacious cafeteria and much fun was in order as the messages were sought. Upon finding them they were found (Other Society on page Four)
