MIDDLE WEST IS LOCKED BY COLD

Six Known Deaths and Much Suffering As Mercury Breaks Records of 40 Years

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—(AP)—The middle west was locked tonight in the icy grip of one of the most severe cold waves and the worse snow storm in recent years.

Sub zero temperatures that yesterday broke records of 40 years were followed today by a snow storm that continued from dawn until dark and was expected to last through tomorrow night when weather almost as cold as that of the last three days was predicted.

The storm and cold tonight had accounted for the death of half a dozen persons and suffering of thousands of others, had blocked highways in 6 states, hampered rail communication, disrupted wire connections.

The weather bureau held out little hope of immediate relief either from the cold or from the snow. Cold was predicted tonight for the entire area from the Mississippi to the Ohio river valley with a new cold wave on Tuesday expected to be almost as severe as that of yesterday when the mercury ranged from zero to more than 20 below.

In Chicago, with a temperature yesterday of 9 below zero and readings today of a few points above, hundreds of men labored to keep the streets cleared of snow. Hundreds of homeless persons found refuge in police stations and welfare institutions. There were four deaths in the city.

Jody Cook Will Probably Lose A Right Good Arm For Which Another May Pay

SAY HERBERT MINSHEW IS ASSAILANT OF COOK

Cook's Wife Peppers MinsheW With Shot After He Shoots Her Husband

All because of hogs running at large, Herbert MinsheW of near Maxreka is in the Wayne County jail with his neck peppered with shot and Jody Cook, of the same community, is in a hospital with a fair prospect of losing his arm. MinsheW will stay in jail pending the outcome of Cook's injuries, regarded as serious.

The story runs that Herbert MinsheW's mother allowed her hogs to run at large and that they ate up Cook's potatoes. Cook filed a protest. It is said, and requested payment for his potatoes. The story runs further that he was told the hogs would continue to run at large and that no potatoes would be paid for. Cook, so the story runs along, then resorted to a warrant.

About 10 o'clock Saturday night Cook was awakened and called to the door. It was MinsheW and he said, according to officers, that he was not mad, but simply wanted to talk about the little matter of the hogs running at large and the potatoes which had been devoured. Cook responded.

As he opened the door, according to reports reaching the officers, MinsheW made to raise the shotgun he carried in a satchel. Cook noticed his move and made quick to slam the door, but not in time to prevent receiving the load from the shotgun in his shoulder at the arm base.

Mrs. Cook rushed to the defense of her husband, grabbing a shotgun from its nook, she fired at the fleeing figure disappearing in the moonlight. Her aim was accurate but the distance was a little out-of-the-range of the gun. MinsheW took a peppering of shots in the back of the head and neck.

MinsheW stopped at a neighbor's house, called a doctor, according to reports, and when some of the shot had been picked out of his skin, shouldered his gun and disappeared. Wayne county officers Sunday afternoon and night scoured the Eureka section looking for him. About 9 o'clock he surrendered to Policeman Walter Dawson, of Eureka, having heard, it was said, that Deputies Kornezay and Gardner were searching for him. Dawson carried him to Fremont and locked him in the jail there and yesterday he was brought to Goldsboro.
