TO SETTLE ZONING ORDINANCE MATTER MONDAY

New Board of Aldermen Take Seat In And Elects Officials For 2 Years

Hollowell Re-elected City Manager, and Crawford and Spence Retained

GAS STATION PROPONENTS AT MEET IN FULL FORCE

Set Special Session of Board for Next Monday to Settle Matter

Sworn in at an organization meeting last night, the new board of aldermen for the city of Goldsboro named Monday evening, May 13, as the time to settle once for all the zoning ordinance question and re-elected city officials for the next two years.

Zeno G. Hollowell was again chosen as city manager, J. G. Spence city clerk and treasurer, D. C. Humphrey city attorney, and J. S. Crawford commissioner of the sinking fund and electric light fund.

M. E. Robinson, for the past several years, a member of the board, was named as mayor pro tem, and he will preside over the meetings of the board and over city affairs should occasion arise when Mayor J. H. Hill cannot be present.

New members of the board sworn in last night are: Borden Cobb, Sol Isaacs, and J. W. Cole. Old members who took oath to enter on a new term of office are P. Boney, Sam Bridges, J. Andrew Smith, George W. Waters, E. B. Borden, III and M. E. Robinson. Hardly had the board taken the oath, when the lightning began to strike about their heads. Hugh Dortch, local attorney, renewed the question of whether or not the board was going to allow Mrs. Laura Bizzell to place a filling station at Center and Ash streets, Mrs. Barbary at Ash and William and Mrs. Dortch at Ash and William.

Mr. Dortch declared that the so-called zoning ordinance was passed unlawfully, and recited the history of the so-called, as he termed it, ordinance from its inception. He charged that there was no fairness in the ordinance and that property in certain districts owned by members of the board of aldermen had been left out of the restricted zone. "Mr. Robinson may not know it," declared Mr. Dortch "but a certain piece of his property was left out of the restricted zone."

Mr. Dortch declared that the matter of appointing a committee to decide on the question had become a joke, and he pleaded for immediate action. Alderman Robinson arose to explain that the committee appointed by the mayor several weeks ago to go into the zoning ordinance matter Thursday, to study it with reference to the law of other cities the size of Goldsboro, was not ready to report because two members of that committee—U. M. Gillikin and John Raper—are not members of the new board.

Mrs. Barbary, Miss Eleanor Bizzell, Dr. M. E. Bizzell and even James Bizzell, in his early teens, addressed the board on the necessity for immediate action. The filling station proponents were filling out of the chamber when James leaped to his feet, called "Mr. Mayor" and said that "Napoleon lost the battle of (and here he stumbled a bit and a kind-hearted alderman supplied the word "Waterloo") because Marshal Ney was a few minutes late."

Alderman Smith moved that a new committee be named to make up an immediate report on the zoning ordinance and Mr. Boney amended the motion to call for an extra session of the board to consider the report on next Monday evening. Aldermen Borden and Isaacs had previously declared that their minds were open on the question but that they would need the report of the committee in order to vote intelligently on the question.

Object to Assessments Harvey Malpass, George Rose and other citizens of the Georgetown section were present to report against a 1-6 cost assessment against their property for sewerage costs. "For years I paid general tax for the building of sewer lines through the principal sections of the city. It is not fair now to make me pay for that past my own property. The money should come out of the general fund," declared Mr. Malpass.

MATERIAL NOW EXPECTED SOON

Will Be Late Summer or Early Fall Before City Gets New White Way

Part of the equipment for the construction of the projected Center street "white way," is expected to arrive in the city sometime within the next two or three weeks. It was announced yesterday by H. P. Lee, manager of the local Carolina Power and Light company plant. "It will probably be sometime in the late summer or the early fall before the white way is completed," Mr. Lee told The News. "There will be a lot of work to do even after the material gets here," he added. According to the power plant manager, the manufacturing of the white way equipment should have been completed by this time but for the fact that the manufacturing concern had been rushed since receiving the order for Goldsboro's White Way material. City engineers have already completed the surveying of the middle section of Center street on which the White Way will be constructed.

Southern Baptist Convention Is Started in Memphis, Tenn.

MEMPHIS, May 8.—(AP)—Committee and auxiliaries of the Southern Baptist convention ended their preliminary meetings tonight and messengers from 18 states were ready for the opening of the convention tomorrow which leaders predicted would be occupied mainly on problems of finance and administration. This group would hereafter guide the policy of the convention. Working day and night the executive committee discussed a plan for a new financial system whereby a concentrated effort would be made to enlist the full church strength of 11,000,000 members in the denomination's work through a campaign of "enlightenment and inspiration." No drive for finances or other radical departure from present methods of raising money has been suggested. The board of trustees of the Southern Baptist Seminary at Louisville elected Dr. John R. Goldsboro Hospital Is To Keep National Hospital Day

Mrs. Vaughan, superintendent of the Goldsboro hospital, yesterday announced plans for the observance of National Hospital day at the hospital on Sunday. A loving cup will be awarded to the 100 percent physically perfect baby born at the hospital during the past year. Mrs. Vaughan announced and open house will be kept from 2 to 5 in the afternoon. Refreshments will be served and sometime during the afternoon, Rev. W. O. Cone and Dr. W. H. Cobb will deliver brief talks, discussing the work of the hospital in the city. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the band of the Odd Fellows home. Hospital day was officially observed at the city's institution last year and the exercises were attended by many of the citizens. Mrs. Vaughan, speaking for the hospital management, said that she hoped hundreds would call Sunday afternoon. "The Goldsboro hospital," she declared "is the hospital of the city, and we want it to be very close to the hearts of the people. We want the people to know its needs, we want them to become familiar with its workings and to know first hand the great work that it is doing. "As for the loving cup to be presented, it will go to the 100 percent physically perfect baby born at the hospital during the year. Of course to every parent, every child is 100 percent perfect and more, and we wish we had a cup to give to every one born during the year. But we can't do that so we are giving the cup to the one nearest perfect physically." Not the least attractive display in the Hospital Day observance will be the infants born at the institution during the past year who will be given a seat of honor where all may marvel at them.

The hall which was completed yesterday is 30 by 24 feet. In addition there is a kitchen 12 by 12 feet and a pantry for food storage 6 by 6 feet. Dining space for seventy is provided. Construction of the dam which will provide the swimming lake will be started early next week. Equipment previously used at the camp at the Mt. When the camp has been placed in final readiness for the summer the Tuscarora Council of Boy Scouts plans to hold suitable dedicatory exercises to which people of Goldsboro and the county will be invited. Attempts will be made to bring some figure of national prominence in Boy Scout work to the county to make the dedicatory address. There was a possibility that Stanley Harris, one of the national directors of the organization, will be the speaker.
