Devoted to the Protection of Home and the Interests of the County.

THE GASTONIA GAZETTE.

GASTONIA, GASTON COUNTY, N. C., SATURGAY MORNING, December 4th., 1880. ......

GCHOOL NOTICE.

The Fall Session of this School will open and Monda yof August, 1880, and continue Four and a-Iral ( Months.

Teaches English and Mathematics, also Music and the rudiments of Latin, if desired. Pupils will be received at any time. Board, including washing, fuel and lights, per month, $$ 00. Tuition moderate. Terms payable monthly or one-half in advance; the remainder at close of session.. The boarding-house and school being located just within the corporate Bendol being located just within the corporate limits, three-fourths of a mile from the depot, are from the noise and bustle of Business. Best of references given. For particulars address Miss S F. CHALK,

Lich Gastonia, N. C.

STTORNEY-ST-L.SW,

T. M. PITTMAN.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

(spposite Court House,) Practices in the State and Federal Courts

Charlotte N. C. AG June 5 tf.

E. S. F. GILES,

DALLAS N C.

and pays prompt attention to business Will ne stitute loans.

RO. D. GRAHAM

Lady turn not from me so coldle. I have only told the truth;

In the State and United States Courts, Record Information, Abstracts of Title Surveys, &t., furnished for compensation. Office, N.-K. cor. Trails and Tryon sts., CHARLOITE, N. G. mar6-ly

Lady, shun that dark-eyed stranger,

Take your gold, I do not want it. Lady, I have prayed for this-

Rob him of expected bliss.

A: my look so fierce and wild; Lady a the church-yard yonder,

Attorney-at-Law,

Initiation of a Pittsburg Centle-

Will practice in Gaston and adjoining counties and the State and Federal Courts. Business promptly attended to. Feb21:14

Dr. GEO. W. GRAHAM, Charlotte, North Carolina, Practice limited to the Eye, Ear and Throat. Office with Drs. Jones & Graham.

1880. FRUIT TREES! 1881 A Fine assortment of FRUIT TREES, and VINES for the Fall of 1880, and Spring of 1981, at low rates, at The Grange Nurseries,

(Two Miles Houth of Garihaldi, N. C.) M. H. HAND, Proprietor. 12 Send for Catalogue 12 sep18tf

THOMAS JEFFERSON, BARBER. CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA Trust him not, O gentle lady, Though his voice below and sweet. Herd not him who kneels before thre, GYPSY'S WARNING.

Sofily pleading at thy feet. Now thy life is in its morning,

Cloud not this thy happy lot, Listen to the Gypsy's Warning .

Gentle lady trust him not. Lady, once there lived a maiden,

Young and pure and like the fair, Yet he would he would not warn her Thrilled her gentle beart with care,

Now he heedeth not her weiping He'd care not her life to save. Soon she perished, now she sleeping . In her cold and silent grave.

From a stern and withered sorrow, Lady I would hield thy you h. I would shield thee from all danger.

Shield thee from the tempter's snare,

I have warned thee, now beware.

For the hour that I might foil him,

Yes, I see those art filled with wonder

Sleeps the Gypsy's only child.

A Colorado Lynching.

man Into Western Mining Life.

Pittsburg Evening News .--Oil Inspector Ramsey, of this city, who was on a visit to the far west several months ago, yesterday related to a reporter of the Evening News an interest ing story of how he attended a lynchi g in a Colorado town. His story is as ful-lows: "Wake up, Ramsey!" called out a com panion of mine one morning at an early hour; 'wake up or you will miss the lynching.' I had gone to bed at an early hour, tired and sleepy, and had beard nothing of the murder which had be committed during the nights 'Hullo! Jin, is that you ?' said when does the thing take place ?' 'Pretty damned quick,' answered my friend. , So hurriedly donning my clothes I saunof a police officer. 1 had known him well. He was a splendid specimen of shot the officer through the heart."

tightly around bis neck. I had taken my drawing the curtains close to keep out in stand on the opposi e side of the street, and quisitive looks from the street, and drinkcould plainly see the poor wretch as he ing, tuting and sni king to their fill. The came out. He was richly clad, a large culprits pere brought before the city court diamond stud glistened on his shirt trant, and band over to the superior court un and on the little finger of his left hand was der heave bonds. Y rringt u's father fur-a large solitaire; a heavy gold watch nichted the bail for his son. Miss Gabel chain dangled from his vest pocket. If is countenance did not betoken fear, in fact, to look at the man one would have thought contesse the whole story of the crime the whole performance was but a joke. After reaching the street, the crowd seiz d hold of the rope and led the victim down to an old building, where a beam jutted out over the sidewalk. When they, the confour miles down the Tham s river.

reached this point

down on to the beam, and took a deliberate look at the crowd below. The leader of the committee then approached the gambler and said : 'Well, Jim, yer time's

Jim replied and said : 'Now, look h re, can't you just as well put a few bullets through me, what's the diff rence ?

I've got one thousand dollars in my pockets, and you can divide the whole thing among you, if you don't hang. Will 'Not by a damned sight,' said the leader, 'i'ou murd-red a good man, and

Well,' said Jim, 'go on ; I suppose must swing : this is the third man I put

He had no sooner said the words than he rope was quickly pulled up and Jim wis dangling in a horrible manner. His hands not being tied, he reached up over his head and grasp d the rop , and thus re-

"That won't do, Jim,' cried the leader and they let the daugling victim down again and speedily tied his a ma behind him, and again elevated him, where he hung for nearly an hour After it was ascertained that their victim was dead the 'committee" sent for a photographer and had a photograph taken of the entire

"gang." In the foreground the committee short ; want to say any hing ?'

you've got to swing for it.'

leased strangulation.

away, so I suppose my time's up.'

von do it?

RELICIOUS NEWS. FROM THE BALEIGH OBSERVER ] The revised Bible will be issued in Feboary.

The late general convention of the Epis copal church declined a canon forbidding went to fil. One alternoon Captain Whalthe sale of news. ky visited MisseGabel in her cell, and she Bishop Wi, htman, of the Methodiet Episcopal Church, is still ill, but it is hop She will aled that a large share of pluoed will be able to attend to his duties in a ler was in a hair truck, which they had few months.

taken house of C. C. Johnson It is said that Mr. Moody's meetings in and burged at the foot of a tall pine tree gton influential for good.

The Methodists of Goldsboro are makg necessary preparation to complete ork on their new church with the open ng of spring. It will be a handsome (di they then marked the spot with a fence-

Olgran 46

The Rev. Dr. C. F. Deems has been elected Councilor of the University of New York This will be gratifying news to the doctor's many friends in North Car olina.

missig goods, closely pack d, filled it. generally numbering between six and sev The trank contained the proceeds and prod of several robberies for which the cu pits had not yet been indicted. New conduints were made out, and they were iment place under mach heavier bonds. Yer-ory is a converted Choctaw Indian. Some times after presiding over a political meet ing of his p-ople, he calls th m to order and preachers a sermon to them. The North Georgia Methodist Confer their appearance for trial at the Noence convenes in Rome about the first of December It is a large body composed of over three handred ministers.

In the African Methodist Church of North Carolica there are 100 local preachrs, ninety two ex. orters 1.165 probation ers and 9174 m mbers. The value of church property is $35,857.

The R. v. A. B. Earle, the noted revis valist, preached his fiftieth anniversary serv mon in Boston a few days ago. He declars ed that he had been the means of making 150,000. converts. He conducted a great revival in R deigh about eight years

The general convention of the Christian closed its session at Louisville re-The topping andling a property shows that the denomination numbers States alone. Its membership in North bama lady, has just finished a quilt contain-

Tiere are 15 000 white families in Alabama without a Bible. A six ye r ohl girl in Barren county,

No. 42

Ky., weighs 230 pounds.

The school attendance in South Carolina, in 1879-'80, was 134,072.

Monroe county, Tenn., has shipped this year 15 000 bush-is of peas.

It is estimated that President Huyes has saved $100,000 of his salary, Mobile's two cotton mills paid last year 16 per cent on the capital invested.

Anthracite coal brings $18 per ton in Waco, Texas, and wood $16 per cord.

There will be one colored man in the next congress-Lynch, of Mississippi. The Kitch's monstain centrant Pretter 2 c the Air Line railroad about $10,000.

The South Carolina Baptist Convention will meet in Cam len November 24th.

Montgomery, Ala., off works shipped Saturday, ten car'loads of oil and meal.

Eas Tennessee pork hegs are being sold n Anderson, at six cents per pound gross-The electoral vote of California will tan I five for Hancock and one for Garfield. A State Dental Association will be organized at Houston, Texas, next month. Five northhrn gold mining bompanies are operating in McDowell county, N. C. There are 851 cripeled soldiers in Alabama who have drawn the bounty allowed. Nine hundred and ten Baptist churches in Mississippi, with a membership of 56,+ 630

A man in Nashville, Tenn., has been wearing the same overcoat for twenty two vears.

There is a marked increase in the Lowisiana sugar as compared with the crop of lust year.

Colonel Ed Richardson, of Mississippi, will make 15,000 bales of cotton, worth $6 )0.000

Guifield's vote in Tennessee was 105,-060-a republican gain of 16,000 votes in our years.

Grand commandery of Knights Templar for the state of Texas meets in Sherman, in February.

Mrs Lacey, a widow ludy in Savannah, over ninety years of age, is cutting a new sol of teeth

Mrs. J. B Speak, a sixty-year-old Alas ing 4 222 pieces.

sat the r of his station. The entire proceedings were Joson-'What is the matter with you 600.000 communicants in the United as quietly as could possibly be; not a Netyou look melancholy?" | Carolina is quite large. word or shout could be heared. The com- N-Yes; the fact of the matter is b.r term. A few days ago Mr. Yerton circulated e petition asking that prosecution of his son and Miss Gabel e. no further, . It was headed by the es of the p rsons whose premises had robbed, and nearly every citizen of ringin's father furnished scearity for his sonna a benevolent c.t z :n gave buil for Middabel Both were at liberty, under $6,00 bonds in Yerrington's case and

3 00 in the case of Hattie Gabe', pendeace in the city. It was signed by the I und captain of police, by the judge he court in which they were first ar reacd, by the city attorney who arand them, and by the editors and puber of the daily newspapers of this On Friday of last week the case was ered in court and the parties were ald to forket the bond. This disposition since.

Salt Lake City carried consternation into the ranks of the Mormons, and were very fice os. The captain procared a team and he ad the girl drove down to the wood. The captain fell to work with a spude they had brought, and soon the blade struk against the top of the trunk. He inte the frank up and open d it. The Spurgeon's vast congregation in London, in thousand people, join in singing the hymns without any instrumental accompa-Governor Wright, of the Indian Terri-

Proprietor Charlotte Hotel Shop.

Has opened a Branch at the Metropolimost skilful hair-cutters, and guarantees sepilitf natinfaction in his line.

CENTRAL HOTEL Spartanburg, S.C.

W. S. LIPSCOMB, Pro.

New house and furniture, ro ms carpeted, electric bells, attentive servants, location central. fare the very best. Terms, $2.00 a day. $10.00 a week. $35.00 a month. Frummers stopping over Sunday $1.50. Only a few yards from the Iron Springs. Sep25tejan1.

KING'S MOUNTAIN HOTEL, KING'S MOUNTAIN, N. C. Is the place to stop for good "We A good livery statle is attached to th Hotel. Terms moderate. L. H. LONG. Proprietor. Oct2 If T. E. Field, Blekory. R. H. Field Charlotte.

Cor. Tryon and 4th Sts., CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA A New and First Class Hotel. New Bed ding. New Furniture. Located in the Business Part of the City. Conventent to Post Office and Banks. feb21-14

Carriages,

Pheatons, do. THE LARGEST STOCK OF

Buggies Carriages PHEATONS. &C.,

ever brought into North Carolina. CHARLES WILSON, SR., Oct2 jan 1 Charlotte, N. C.

tered out and found my 'bunky' without at panion of the murderer was given six hours offairs hav at mixed up so in my famil the door of the shanty. We walked up time to get out of town, and was met some that lon't know who I am."

the street a short distance, and finding a two miles away by some of his friends who tan Hotel, where he will be glad to receive his Customers and friends. He has the door of a gambling hall, we pushed through gave me six hours to get out of town," said he, "and I am now five hours ahead of you widow who lived with her step and entered the saloon, where we found a coroner's jury empaneled and about to betime." gin their investigation. Two tables, used for dealing faro, had been pushed together.

ife, and I trust my last. and on them was stretched the dead body

Crime's Romance. A PILL-BOX SERVES AS A CLUE.

manhood, fully six feet six inches in height, and built in proportion, a quiet, unoffensive citizen, but thoroughly good officer. On the top of the body lay a coil of half Gabel, the romantic young burglars of this wis, of course, his grandmother, and inch rope, neatly rolled up, with a hang. min's noose at one end. As we entered the wealthirst residents of Norwich, last theer. My wife also had a boy. M the coroner called the first witness, who summer, has reached a cur ous ending in semocher is consequently the step-sister having been sworn, stated that 'on the the superior court. The stor. of Yerring of y b y, and also his grandmother, be evening previous he had been in the gamton and Miss Gabel's escapades is as singubling saloon of Jim Beggs, where two fellar as anything in the annals of crime lows were playing cards; during the game Neither is over twenty years of age, Miss they quarreled about something, and both Gabel is pretty and interesting. About T my mother's brother-inlaw, my wife got up from the table and entered the bar the first of last August wealthy families of is nt of her own sen, my soa is the grand ro m, where they both drank, and again Norwich, returning from summer travel, sof my father; and I am my own grandcommenced to wrangle about the bets found that in their absence their houses They made considerable noise, and the had been enter d by burglars and their midst of it the officer came in ... and quietly contents stolen or scattered. In about every said; Boys less noise this must be a opped,

He had no sooner anid this than one of the case an entrance had been effected through a rear window gamblers j rked out his 'gan'(revo'v r) and work on the The witness find proceeded thus jar when they finally strapping big fellow, clad in a red flandence of C. was lound on the H to: on which was nel shirt and with pantaloons stuck into name of a well-k own drug firm of the cl his boot legs, a bread-brimmed hat hall bidi g his dark eyes, quietly walked up to The druggist indentified the box as one the dead body, and taking hold of the coil of rope said; "Boys, that's enough, come were intimate. He had been often se on, pushing his way out through the crowd followed by fifteen or twenty of his com with her on the street, and it was En panions. Without a word they walked learned that Y rrington's family who well to do and isfluential in society, 1down to the "cooler" ( rame station-house) where the prisoner had been incare rated, bitterly reproached the young man every inmate, and which in absence draws and coming up to the six men on guard. demanded the keyes. They told them that young Verrington had 1 ft the st with Mr-s Gabel, and they w re at len that the keys were not in their possession. Hold up your hands then,' cried the found in a New Haven hotel. They c fessed their misdeeds with contrition. leader. Let's examin you.'

The guards (?) held up their hands and the person of Miss Gabel were found in this as to bring them up in the midst of a quietly submitt d to the examination. The articles of dress and jewelry, that hales lynchers, finding that the keys were not in stolen. On Yerrington were other a Waste not your time in accomulating their possession, went to a woodpile and goods, including knives, a watch, " wealth for them, but plant in their minds picking up an axe speedily demonlished the chaum pipes, and several loaded revis and souls, in the way propos d, the seeds door. The leader then eftered the room of the most costly make. The couples of virtue and prosperity. and in a few minutes came out with one a history of their visits to the dwes end of the rope over his shoulder, and at they had robbed. In the house of d. the other end was the murderer, the noose Johnson they had stayed nearly a k, quarter millions.

Jas n-Rather a strange remark. N-'I will You see, I murried danter; my father shortly after married This way my first initiation into western the p daugh er. My wife was, therefor the mother-in-law and daughter in law my father. I pm the step futher of myiotherain-law, and my wife's step datter is my step-mother. Well, my stepother-that is to s y, ny father's A dispatch from Norwich to the New wind my wife's daughter-had a son York Sun of the 18th says: The prosecu Thi my step brother, of course; but being of Charles A. Yerrington and Hattie C. alson of my wife's step-daughter, my city, who pillaged the houses of some of anis graudfather as well as his st p cht he is the child of her step-son, and mfather is the brother-in-law of my sowho is the son of my step mother.

of his wife and children, not only coavenjers and comfortable, but pleasant. L t him as far as circumstances will admit, be had sold to Hattie Gabel. It was knowindustrious in surrounding it with pleasant that Miss Gabel and young Yerringte objects; in decorating it, within and withont, with things that tend to make it ascreable and attractive. Let industry m ke home the abade of neutness and or der-a place which brings satisfacti a to his relations with the girl. It was for brek the heart by the fond associations of content. Let this be done, and this sucred snot will become more surely the scene of cheerfulness and peace. Ye parents who would have your children happy be induspleasant, a cheerful, and a happy lone,

Alabama has a populat on of one and a

The Synod of South Carolina, which met last week decided to endevor to raise $20. 009 within its bounds as part of proposed $30,000 endowrment of the home memorial fund for the Columbia Theological Sominas ry; there is every prospect that South Cars olina will raise the $20,000. At the Fifth Street Methodist church, of Wilmington, recently, the ordinance of baptism was administered to Soon, a v ung Chinese convert. He assumed the name of Charles Jones, after the captain of the revenue entter on which he is a suilor. This is probably the first Celestial ever baptized in North Carolina,

The colored Baptists of Texas, Arkan as, and Northern Louisians, numbering about 100,000, have determined to build a e dlege for the education of ministers and teachers, in the city of Marshal, Texas, They are making a vigorous and successsul fort to raise ten thousand dollars for this purpose among themselves, and they are hoping that a like amount may be contributed through the American Baptist Home Mission.

In 1770 there were only nine Baptist churches in this State, In 1876 there were 1.442 churches, with 793 ministers and 137,000 members. There are now about 180.000 Missionary Baptists in North Carolina, of whom not more than 80, 000 are constituents of this convention. Twenty thousand belong to the western convention, which comprehends the ixteen counties we-t of the Blue Ridge, and the convention of the colored Baptists of the State comprehends thirty two associations and probably 80,000 communicants.

G v. Brown says the world moves and be intends to move with it.

Railroad facilities in Florida are better an ever before in that State.

The cars on the Mohni Vesuvius milway are now lighted by electricity.

Bracensfield has been paid 10,000 ibs for a new novel called Endymians,

One In dred Swiss immigratts will at rive in n-rtheast Georgia in December.

The press of the Sinte are pretty gener ally agreed that Goy, Brown is on u.p.

Train pedding is complained of by travellers on many of the roads of the constry, Ben Butler is prencing around looking for a new party. Amble or, old cock eye

Judge Woods has appointed Col. H. P. Facrow to be a United States Commis sioner.

Mr Kennedy, near Corpus Christi, Texas has 180.0 0 acres under fence, 50,000 head of cattle and 10 000 horses, Virgina, Tennessee and North Carolinaraised this year 2,025,000 bushels of peas nuts, value about $1,500,000.

Edward Hawkins, an eight year old boy, of North Carolina, is lecturing in Kentucky. Objects-money to create himself.

Governor R berts, of Texas, wants a new capital building for that state of the black marble found in the Colorado river.

Kentucky woman, 99 years old, walked three miles to attend a circus, and saved filty cents by crawling under the canvass. The 41 cotton seed oil mills of the south turn out $0,000,000 gallors of oil annually, besides 1,300,000 tons of hulls. Hon Alvin Ha kins, just elected gova ernor of Tennessee, is a Methodist, and was in the late general conference at Cincia-

The senson at Jacksonville, Fla., lasts from the middle of Nevember to the mids dle of May Sixty thousand visitors last Sens: D.

James A Garfield is the third president of the United States who began life as a school teacher. The others were Millard Fil more and Franklin Pierce.

Mrs. Hastings, the president't nicce, and the young lady who was matried at the white house two years ago, has named her little daughte: Lucy Hayes Hastings. Some of the Choctaw girls in "the nas tion," as Indian Territory is called, are highly educated, very beautiful, and nearly as fair in complexion as their sisters in the Benjamin Harris Brewster's n me is multi red as a condidate for appointment to the United States superine court, in case of a vacency being made by the returnent of Justice Strong.

states.

Cohmel Robert Logersoil says that Sonator B a Hill's proposition to kill the d-mocratic party provided the republicans kill their party is much like the proposal of the conster to the horse, that they should not step on each other's feet.

He was a wenty and she was eighteen and they were on their weslding tour. Hy pointed out to her the beautiful scenery, and said : "We may have many mniversa rues of this occasion." "Yes," she answered "you will probably live long enough 1 have a tin wedding."

HOME ADORNMENT