Georgia's delegation was divided. The States, known as the sliver States, favored the amendment, and the East, the North and the South voted almost solidly against it.
The fight was made squarely on the merits of the question, and the issue was in no way clouded with parliamentary technicalities. Those delegates, who favored the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1, voted for the amendment, and it was lost by a majority of 147.

Plant a Henvy Grain Crop.

The time for planting grain has about arrived, and farmers should not neglect this important duty. It would be suicide on their part because cotton has gone up not to plant a heavy grain crop. The lise in cotton is proof positive that the price is regulated by demand and supply. Those farmers are best off who raise at home those products which are to be consumed at home. A good corn crop this year, backed by a good oat crop next apring, will make our barn at home instead of the Wrst. We advise all farmers now to commence to sow oats, rye, wheat. t. Every Man Has a Chapca

Every man endowed with common Every man endowed with common-sense and reasonable health has a com-petance within his grasp, if he is only willing to pay the price. To do this he need not be as cuuning as Jay Gould, nor as stingy as Cussell dage, but he must both earn and save. If he curns little he must save a portion; if he earns much be must save much. It is better to have a ten per cent. faculty for saving than a one hundred per cent. faculty for earning, without it. A sacrifice—great wealth requires paris-mony and a heart of iron. We have bundant examples of these.
